outrageous attacks of Portland capital into Oregon for investment it five years, and yet his enterprises have been ridiculed and misrepresented by th Portland papers from the beginning, and the man himself openly villified. Such a spectacle would not be tolerated in a decent community, and It serves to Illustrate the character of Portland business men and advertise that town throughout the country as a place wher enterprise is not appreciated and foreign community would incide riot and might lead to the lynching of the miscreants who run them. The disgrace of such a proceedings will be felt and rescored by every honest man in Oregon.

SOME GOVERNMENT STATISTICS.

No one in Portland will pretend that city is a greater seaport than San Fran. tons. Total entered and cleared, 7200; cisco, but very many people have been hoodwinked by statements systematically appearing in the local columns of the Oregonian into believing that the shipping credible that any intelligent person could ances of American and foreign vessel amounted to 100,178 tens for San Franbe imposed upon in this manner, but when it is reflected that no other paper than the Oregonian is read in Portland such a tack of information is not unas countable

The Astorian has repeatedly given the editor of the Oregonian credit for the commercial situation of the Northwest, and HE KNOWS THAT PORTLAND IS LOSING GROUND EVERY DAY IN THE CONTEST FOR COMMERCIAL SUPREMACY, AND THAT WITHOUT BETTER SEAPORT FACILITIES, SUCH AS CAN ONLY PORTLAND HAS ABSOLUTELY NO EXPORTS WHATEVER

The gravity of the situation is so well called by the editor of the Oreonian that, in spite of the vigilance of the men who control the policy of his paper, he now and then breaks forth in a stirring blast like his "Matter of Choice" editorial, which, in any community not monopoly-cursed like Portland, would arouse public excitement to
