TIDE TABLE—May, 1899.

Table with columns for DATE, HIGH WATER, and LOW WATER. Rows list days from Monday to Wednesday with corresponding tide times.

The inter-state commerce commission is now engaged in an investigation of complaints made by the business men of New York City that grain rates have been so manipulated by some of the eastern railroads as to force foreign bound cargoes to the ports of Philadelphia, Baltimore and Newport News.

New York maintains her commercial supremacy not merely by virtue of her natural location, but by insisting upon the enjoyment of the advantages which her location gives her in competition with other places.

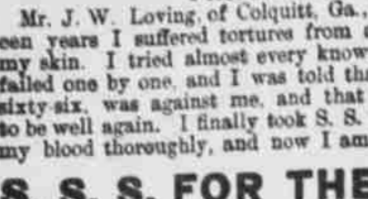

It does not lie in the painter's fancy to imagine a prettier picture than that of a young girl, with lips luscious with the promise of love, half parted in the smiles of happy dreams.

Every air castle a woman builds has a man in his best clothes raking up the front yard.

The opening of the wheeling season gives especial interest to some tables prepared by the treasury bureau of statistics, which present the statistics of bicycle exports during the past few years.

NEVER TOO OLD TO BE CURED.

S. S. S. is a Great Blessing to Old People. It Gives Them New Blood and Life. Age does not necessarily mean feebleness and ill health, and nearly all of the sickness among older people can be avoided.

Mrs. Sarah Pike, 677 Broadway, South Boston, writes: "I am seventy years old, and had not enjoyed good health for twenty years."

Mr. J. W. Loving of Colquitt, Ga., says: "For eight years I suffered tortures from a fiery eruption on my skin."
