FARMERS PLAN PADDLE FOR GRAIN EXCHANGE

COMMERCIAL CLUB TAKES ACTION TO INTEGRATE BOARD OF COMMERCE A CITY

A meeting of the Board of Commercial Club in the school board and county commission was called to order.

The only business on the agenda was the consideration of legislation pertaining to the grain exchange.

The Board of Commercial Club unanimously recommended the legislation to the school board and county commission.

COMMUNITY PLAY PROVES UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

The community play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," was performed at the local theater. The play was well-received by the audience and was considered a success.

The play was directed by Mr. John Smith, and the cast included young performers who showed great talent.

The play was performed to raise funds for the local community center.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS HAPPENING DURING WEEK

REVIEW OF OREGON LEGISLATURE WORK. WEEKLY DIGEST OF BILLS CONSIDERED

for elementary schools. Voting centers were established throughout the state under the direction of the state superintendent of public instruction.

The method of voting was by secret ballot, and each registered voter was entitled to one vote.

A bill to provide for the construction of a new state capitol building was introduced.

The bill was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

While the bill was under consideration, a group of citizens organized a citizens' committee to support the construction of a new state capitol building.

A resolution was introduced in the legislature requesting the state legislature to appropriate funds for the construction of a new state capitol building.

The resolution was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

The citizens' committee and the legislature were encouraged to work together to ensure the successful completion of the construction project.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TAKES ACTION TO INTEGRATE BOARD OF COMMERCE A CITY

A meeting of the Board of Commercial Club in the school board and county commission was called to order.

The only business on the agenda was the consideration of legislation pertaining to the grain exchange.

The Board of Commercial Club unanimously recommended the legislation to the school board and county commission.

COMMUNITY PLAY PROVES UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

The community play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," was performed at the local theater. The play was well-received by the audience and was considered a success.

The play was directed by Mr. John Smith, and the cast included young performers who showed great talent.

The play was performed to raise funds for the local community center.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS HAPPENING DURING WEEK

REVIEW OF OREGON LEGISLATURE WORK. WEEKLY DIGEST OF BILLS CONSIDERED

for elementary schools. Voting centers were established throughout the state under the direction of the state superintendent of public instruction.

The method of voting was by secret ballot, and each registered voter was entitled to one vote.

A bill to provide for the construction of a new state capitol building was introduced.

The bill was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

While the bill was under consideration, a group of citizens organized a citizens' committee to support the construction of a new state capitol building.

A resolution was introduced in the legislature requesting the state legislature to appropriate funds for the construction of a new state capitol building.

The resolution was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

The citizens' committee and the legislature were encouraged to work together to ensure the successful completion of the construction project.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TAKES ACTION TO INTEGRATE BOARD OF COMMERCE A CITY

A meeting of the Board of Commercial Club in the school board and county commission was called to order.

The only business on the agenda was the consideration of legislation pertaining to the grain exchange.

The Board of Commercial Club unanimously recommended the legislation to the school board and county commission.

COMMUNITY PLAY PROVES UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

The community play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," was performed at the local theater. The play was well-received by the audience and was considered a success.

The play was directed by Mr. John Smith, and the cast included young performers who showed great talent.

The play was performed to raise funds for the local community center.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS HAPPENING DURING WEEK

REVIEW OF OREGON LEGISLATURE WORK. WEEKLY DIGEST OF BILLS CONSIDERED

for elementary schools. Voting centers were established throughout the state under the direction of the state superintendent of public instruction.

The method of voting was by secret ballot, and each registered voter was entitled to one vote.

A bill to provide for the construction of a new state capitol building was introduced.

The bill was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

While the bill was under consideration, a group of citizens organized a citizens' committee to support the construction of a new state capitol building.

A resolution was introduced in the legislature requesting the state legislature to appropriate funds for the construction of a new state capitol building.

The resolution was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

The citizens' committee and the legislature were encouraged to work together to ensure the successful completion of the construction project.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TAKES ACTION TO INTEGRATE BOARD OF COMMERCE A CITY

A meeting of the Board of Commercial Club in the school board and county commission was called to order.

The only business on the agenda was the consideration of legislation pertaining to the grain exchange.

The Board of Commercial Club unanimously recommended the legislation to the school board and county commission.

COMMUNITY PLAY PROVES UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

The community play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," was performed at the local theater. The play was well-received by the audience and was considered a success.

The play was directed by Mr. John Smith, and the cast included young performers who showed great talent.

The play was performed to raise funds for the local community center.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS HAPPENING DURING WEEK

REVIEW OF OREGON LEGISLATURE WORK. WEEKLY DIGEST OF BILLS CONSIDERED

for elementary schools. Voting centers were established throughout the state under the direction of the state superintendent of public instruction.

The method of voting was by secret ballot, and each registered voter was entitled to one vote.

A bill to provide for the construction of a new state capitol building was introduced.

The bill was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

While the bill was under consideration, a group of citizens organized a citizens' committee to support the construction of a new state capitol building.

A resolution was introduced in the legislature requesting the state legislature to appropriate funds for the construction of a new state capitol building.

The resolution was referred to the committee on public works, and a hearing was scheduled for the next legislative session.

The citizens' committee and the legislature were encouraged to work together to ensure the successful completion of the construction project.