Easter services were observed in the local community church with a program by the Sunday school and special music, the sacrament of the Lord's supper and reception of members, Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Finnell, Mrs. W. O. King and Misses Rachel Johnson and Helen Boardman joining the church. The Easter service marked the conclusion of the work of Rev. W. H. Amos of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, who has been assisting Rev. J. W. Hood for the past two weeks. The meetings will continue another week. "Haywire" Davis will work with Mr. Hood during that time.

Leo Root has erected what appears to be three sections of a bill board. He is not getting ready for the circus posters, however, but is using this "back stop" as a wind break to stop the whistles of the rabbits from interfering with his concrete block manufacture.

J. C. Ballenger has at last come out in the open and exposed himself as a "Red" and is flaunting his colors to the world in a remodeled Ford bug of crimson hue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Finnell, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Albright, Mrs. Crawford and son, Harry, attended the Eastern Star dance in Umatilla Tuesday night and report a splendid time.

Arlington H. S. met defeat at hands of H. S. on Boardman grounds last Saturday. The score being 13-7. Results might have been different if some of the Arlington players had not been left behind on account of the mumps. They brought along a good crowd of rooters and proved to be good sports. They staged two strong rallies but were never able to tie the score. A return game is scheduled for April 9th at Arlington.

Callous Old Rascal.
Apes are so human that even when they display traits that in man would be simply abominable man cannot help laughing. A correspondent in South Africa writes that certain large apes are so much in the habit of raiding the coffee plantations that they have to be guarded.
Among the coffee trees there grows a shrub, the fruit of which the apes particularly enjoy. But as wasps fasten their nests to the shrubs, the apes, fearful of being stung, usually keep away from them. One morning the people in a certain plantation heard the apes making fearful outcries and, rushing out, saw a singular scene. A large baboon, the leader of a band, was throwing some young apes at the wasp nests just as a boy might have thrown stones at them. The poor victims, stung by the infuriated insects, were crying piteously, but the old baboon paid no heed to them whatsoever. While they were suffering from the anger of the wasps he quietly proceeded to regale himself with the fruit, which he could now pluck without danger. Occasionally he would throw a handful to some females and young a little way off.—Youth's Companion.

Boardman Wins Game From Arlington

The Boardman Hi baseball team defeated the Arlington Hi by a score of 13 to 7, Saturday, March 26, on the home diamond. The game was a walk-a-way for the Boardman boys, due to the weakness of the Arlington team, but they promise us a stronger line-up for the return game.

Arlington sent down an enthusiastic section of rooters, and Boardman was also well represented on the side lines. The girls of Boardman fell for the Arlington pitcher, "Goofie," and issued him an invitation to attend Boardman Hi.

The line-up for the teams were:

Boardman	Arlington
A. Klitz	Conley
U. Messenger	Berry
Earl Olsen	Douglas
R. Gilbreth	Weatherford
L. Cumins	Groat
T. Messenger	Dodson
J. Weech	Taylor
P. Hatch	Welkins
R. Dempsey	Blackburn

Albert Macomber and an Arlington man acted as referees for the game.

The Sunset

On a clear evening, looking toward the west one can see the tall Mt. Hood in changeable colors as the sun goes down. A little to the right the long lines of the Horse Heaven hills is a dirty brown color against the aerial hues of the beautiful sky that sends its long rays of departing sunlight over the blue-black Mt. Hood and the Columbia River's flat surface on its way to the distant ocean. At last as the sun sinks, a far off cloud still reflects the blood-red color of the departing sun.

HOWARD PACKARD.

Junior High Baseball Game.

The Junior Hi "Cubs" played the Irrigon grade team last Friday, March 25, on the home field, with a resulting score of 33 to 8 in favor of the "Cubs." Both teams played three high school boys. On account of the heavy wind, the game was slow and the fielding poor. The Irrigon team arrived by auto truck at two o'clock and the school was immediately dismissed for the game.

The line up was as follows:

Boardman	Irrigon
Ray Dempsey	p. Dempsey
Alton Klitz	c. Seaman
Lauren Cumins	1st Watkins
James Weech	2nd H. Warner
Earl Olsen	3rd Graybeal
Norman Hein	l. f. Jordan
Raymond Hango	c. f. Steward
Carl Olsen	r. f. Smith
Roy Gilbreth	s. s. W. Warner

Mr. Everett acted as referee for the game.

Declamation Contest.

In the series of the declamation contests in the different rooms the following decisions were made:

First grade—Norma Gibbons, first; Frieda Richardson, second.
Second grade—Molova Kutzner, first; Sadie Larsen, second; Dale Albright, honorable mention.

Third grade—Wanda Gilbreth, first; Gladys Wicklander, second.
Fourth grade—Helen Boardman, first; Avis Erwin, second.

Fifth grade—Louise Klages, first; Eden Larsen and Nellie Messenger, tied for second.

Sixth grade—Essie Suively, first; Donald Klages, second.

Seventh grade—Weldon Ayers, first; Mildred Baisley, second.

Eighth grade—Ida Mefford, first; Howard Packard, second.

High school—Wahnona Keys, first; Caryl Signs, second.

Della Olsen has re-entered school after an absence of two months.

Girls Give Party.

The Junior and Senior High School Girls' Athletic Class are giving a party Friday evening, April 1, in the school auditorium. The boys are asked by written invitation. All the teachers have been invited. About forty people are expected to be present.

Mrs. Shurte, county superintendent of schools, visited our school Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Haywire" Davis and Mrs. Shurte took dinner at the school cafeteria Tuesday.

Jokes.

Roy—"Each of the girls invited a boy to the party that they are going to give Friday." Miss Runner (anxiously)—"Did they invite one for each of the teachers, too?"

Miss Runner—"Did Mrs. Shurte just arrive?"

Wilma—"No, she has been in Mrs. Stuart's room. She left her gloves in Mr. Signs' office and he took her one of them a while ago. She just came back after the other."

Roy—"Maybe he intended to keep the other one."

Wanted.—A deaf, dumb and blind teacher.—Ethel and Frances.

We are wondering why Lauren has decided to work for a few days.

Edward—"Miss Scharmann, what is the most uncommon thing?"

Miss Scharmann—"Common sense."

Can a cracker box?

Can you string beans and kid gloves?

Sh-h-h! I heard a cough drop. Wood alcohol charcoal?
