Local Happenings

Mrs. Albert Erwin and daughter, Avis, were shopping in The Dalles this week.

Miss Bertha Hoke of Hood River, is the guest of Mrs. Royal Rands and family.

Attorney John Gavin of The Dalles, was in Boardman Tuesday on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tucker and family and Attorney Gavin were in Heppner Wednesday.

R. S. Smith and family of Mesner, picnicked at the Willows near Heppner Junction Sunday.

No wonder our citizens are taking such a desire to visit Heppner. It is court week, and the grand jury is in session.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Signs and family left Sunday morning for Portland, where they will remain for the summer.

Mrs. T. Broyles and daughters left Saturday for Walla Walla for a visit. They went in their car, Miss Edna driving.

Mr. Bolton of Portland, a licensed auditor, was here this week going over the books of the Columbia Trading company.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner of Bickelton, Washington, were visiting with their son, Opal Wagner, at the Tom Hendrick's ranch.

Harry Crawford leaves today for Corvallis, where he will attend six weeks session of summer school. He is driving over in a Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Blayden and daughter, Frances, were in Hermiston on Thursday, paying their respects to the new baby, Miss Janet Gorham.

Mr. and Mrs. Doering of Mesner, and Mrs. Royal Rands drove to Irrigon Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Rand before their departure.

T. E. Broyles, John Jenkins and H. H. Weston, O. H. Warner, Chas. Goodwin and Mrs. Ada Morrison were in Heppner Monday on legal business.

John T. Johnson and wife and daughter, Mrs. May Beers, motored up from Wasco Saturday to visit at the J. R. Johnson home for a few days.

Buster Rands, who has been in Portland for some time searching for the bag of gold at the foot of the rainbow, returned home Tuesday fully satisfied that there is no such a thing.

H. Pearson and family, who returned last week from Heppner, leave the first of this week for Echo for a three weeks' stay. They are accompanied by Mr. Pearson's niece, who has been visiting them.

The Strait's are now building the Boardman ferry at the water's edge just beyond the depot. We hope it will be finished by July 4th so we can have one grand celebration. How about the 4th? Are any of the various organizations planning on a fiesta for that day?

The Ladies' Aid will have a food sale on Saturday. These are held once a month, and all the ladies of the Project contribute. Ladies are asked to get their contributions in as early as possible, and bachelors are asked to remember the sale and stock up for a good Sunday meat.

Miss Zetta A. Houston of Lewistown, Montana, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Crawford. Miss Huston has been teaching music in the high school at Lewistown the past year, and is now on her way to Portland. She will accompany her mother who has been spending the winter with the Crawford's. Mrs. Huston who suffered a stroke of paralysis during the winter, is greatly improved, but will consult a physician on her arrival in Portland.

Again we ask: What of a tourist auto camp? So far all who come have camped on the vacant lot north of the hotel, but this is undesirable for several reasons, one being a lack of shade, another it is in such close proximity to the haystacks and buildings that anyone who inadvertently left a few sparks in the campfire might start a conflagration equal to the lumber yard fire of a year ago. The ladies here seem to sponsor most everything that is accomplished in a progressive way so perhaps they must take hold of this question also. How about it?

Tuesday was regular winter weather, down to 50 degrees.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Myers were all day visitors at the Prater ranch on Friday.

Noah May of Stanfield, is here doing the mason work on Leo Root's new building.

Mr. Latorelle, the Ford man of Heppner, was making a business trip here Thursday.

W. A. Eggiman, the bakery man of Arlington, was a business visitor here on Thursday.

Mrs. Ada Morrison of Boardman, was granted a divorce Tuesday from Norval S. Morrison, Upton, Wyo.

Opal Wagner accompanied his father and mother to Bickelton, Washington, and spent several days with them.

Mrs. Tom Hendricks received word Wednesday of the death of her uncle. She left Wednesday night for McMinnville to attend his funeral.

Clinton and Walter Agee of McMinnville, cousins of G. W. Agee, were here visiting the first of the week. Walter has returned to McMinnville, but Clinton will make his home here.

C. Snively has installed a fine large phonograph in the pool room, and we understand him to say that he was going to take out the pool tables and have once-a-week dances instead and that the first one is to be this coming Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson and Virginia Johnson and Mrs. May Beers arrived Sunday for a short visit with the J. R. Johnson family. They were enroute to Pendleton to attend the G. A. R. state encampment, and were accompanied by Mr. Lower, Sr.

The Ladies' Aid met Wednesday in the church. It was voted to pay off the entire sum still due on the piano. After this there remains only a small note of $66 and when this is paid everything will be clear and the Ladies' Aid can breathe freely—until they start some new work.

Mr. and Mrs. Zevelin of Moro, were the guests of Mrs. Harter Sunday. They spent the day motoring over the Project, taking dinner at the Larsen ranch. Mr. Zevelin is a teacher in the Moro schools, and Mrs. Zevelin was formerly Miss Grace May, and is county superintendent of Sherman county.

Next Sunday evening Helen Boardman and Rachel Johnson are to lead the C. Endeavor. Meeting begins at 7:30 promptly. Everyone, young and old, are asked to be present. It is splendid the manner in which the young people have taken hold of this work, but they feel the need of the support of older folks.

Mrs. Bennett of Ridgefield, was here last week at the J. T. Bryce home. Mrs. Bennett is a sister of Mrs. Bryce, and she took her to Ridgefield with her Saturday for medical treatment. Mrs. Bryce has been suffering intensely with rheumatism and seems to gain no relief. She was at Hot Lake in the winter, but returned no better. It is to be hoped that she will return greatly improved.

We were a bit previous in our item last week regarding Mrs. Fennell's departure for Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, but since the items must be in by Wednesday it seemed proper to report that she left Wednesday for she had intended doing so. However, owing to a chain of adverse circumstances she didn't leave until Friday, going to Arlington and crossing the river to Roosevelt, where she boarded a train for Spokane.

If you have an item of interest, please send it in. We can't see all of you, but if you all boost we shall have a remarkably fine paper. Do you realize how fortunate we are to have a paper for so small a community? If so, please help. If you go away, have company, in fact if you do or know of anything interesting, please let us know. Mrs. Harter is city editor, and always glad to get items. Of course "all is not news that's newsy" and no doubt some things happen that may be very "newsy" but still wouldn't do for "news", but if you think it could be used send it in. We'll do the rest.

The Ballengers, Mrs. Dingman, Mrs. Blayden and Frances drove to Irrigon Wednesday for cherries. Irrigon is quite a mecca these days for Boardman folks to obtain delicious berries and cherries. However, not many years hence we expect to see everybody as far west as Arlington driving up to Boardman to buy berries, pears, apples, peaches, in fact any variety of fruit which can be raised in the northwest. Is it not so?

A small crowd was out Monday night to see the movie at the school house. The first picture shown was "A Dog's Love" and was very interesting and good. The second reel was of interest, but was a bit oblique, it being a war film and of such length that most people became tired. For children who never had the opportunity to see these war films they were of great interest, but since the most of us had seen the same films three or four years ago they became a bit monotonous. There were a number of little folks present who had never seen a "movie" before. The pictures flickered some but perhaps this difficulty could be overcome. Presumably most of the people forgot about the picture show or were too busy to come. Alton Clitz had charge of the machine.

Crool! Crool!
Outside it was cold, dark and rainy, but from the lighted windows of the regimental P. C. came sounds of mirth and jollification. "Say, buddy," said Post No. 2, just over and green to the job, "what does P. C. stand for, anyway?" "Oh, that?" answered Post No. 1, an old-timer. "That means pinochle club"—Exchange.

When a Farmer WRITES A LETTER

What do you expect? That it will be written on a blank sheet of soiled paper that has been rusting on a dusty shelf for months?

Not a bit of it.

The farmer's stationery is as important as his automobile. He is a business man, and he does business in a business like manner. He may raise hay, but you never find it sticking out of his boots.

We print letter heads, envelopes, bill heads, business cards, etc. for farmers. No chance for a correspondent to make a mistake in the name, or in the address, when it is plainly printed on the letter head or envelope. No chance for purchases to go astray in the mails.

The next time you want anything in the printing line, either come in and tell us what you want, or mail us your order and we will do the rest.
