A TIP TO OUR FOLKS

It is hard work to get folks in most communities to pass the news along to the editor of the home paper. S. A. Mellon, of the Plymouth, Wis., Reporter, tried an unusual slant the other day to stimulate "contribs." Here it is:

HAS ANY ONE

- Died
- Eloped
- Divorced
- Left town
- Embezzled
- Had a baby
- Had a fire
- Had a party
- Sold a farm
- Been arrested
- Come to town
- Had twins or colic
- Sold a cow or lost an auto
- Stolen a dog—or his friend's wife
- Committed suicide—or murder
- Fallen from an aeroplane
- Fallen into a well
- Fallen into a legacy?

Well, then,

THAT'S NEWS

so phone or mail it to "THE MIRROR" so we can make your troubles known

The newspaper is the best community asset there is. It is the thing that makes for the solidarity of its population; it advertises the town and its interests elsewhere; it boosts the town in a variety of ways and never stops. And then it provides news interest and entertainment for great numbers of the people of the community.

If the people of a town care anything about greater and greater results of their property and interests through this medium of publicity, it is up to them to help the publisher make a constantly better paper.

If you have the news, as outlined above by Brother Mellon, give it to us.

There are also a number of little places we would like a correspondent from.

MORE RECREATION AND LESS WORK IS ADVOCATED

Necessity for more recreation and less work for children in rural districts, was emphasized by Dr. Henry S. Curtis, well known orator and playground supervisor who visited on the campus during the recent Farmers' week.

Oregon and 27 other states have passed laws for playground work which are only enforced in cities, the speaker said. These laws must be enforced in the rural districts, he declared, so that children living in the country will have the same advantages as the city children.

"The long hours of country life," said Doctor Curtis, "are fast going. A farmer will have more time for recreation. Farm wives and children need more time for recreation than they have been getting."

"It is a tragedy that the children are disappearing from the farm, and that they are not learning to love the beauty of our country. The city child is an expense until 21 years of age, while the country child is self-supporting after the age of ten or twelve."

"Every home with children ought to have a sand pile for them to play in the first few years of their life. Provisions should be made for athletics in rural schools, for the country boy, though stronger than the city boy, is not better in athletics."

Some of the best games to be played in the rural schools recommended by Doctor Curtis are volleyball, playground, baseball, croquet, and tennis.

"The country schools have a great responsibility to get the children to like the country," said Doctor Curtis. "But they can have everything in the country that they have in the city and it is largely up to the teachers in rural schools to give them the start."

while Mr. Fargerstrom completes their new house during his spare moments.

Mrs. Jones and children of Kameia, were visitors at Brays during the past week. Mrs. Jones reports a big crop of huckleberries in sight.

B. B. Lewis has been employed by the O.-W. R. & N. company as signalman and is relieving C. D. Albright at Measner. Mr. Albright is on a vacation back East at this writing.

W. H. Pierce and family of Chehalis, Wash., are camped in the shade on Seventh street, and are trying to make some arrangements to hire some one to improve their place and get it into alfalfa this fall.

George E. Hendricks came home for the Fourth from his tour of tuning pianos, spending the day home with his family, and is now arranging to market his potato crop and return to his work tuning again.

Dale Watkins drove over to Heppner with a load of new potatoes for M. E. Doble Friday, returning the following day.

George Caldwell had his car wrecked on the evening of June 30th by a party travelling in a speedy roadster under an Idaho license. They struck his car from behind, taking off one wheel and turning the car completely upside down. George was driving the car and had his father and Ernest Fargerstrom with him and how they escaped with their lives cannot be figured out, but they only received slight injuries. George telephoned to Arlington as soon as he could gather himself up, and the parties were arrested there and their names and license number taken, but later escaped. They hope to trace the license number up and have the parties brought back for trial.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Goets and family of Ogden, Utah, who are motoring through to Condon, where they expect to live in the future, camped in Irrigon a couple of days last week.

The Umatilla ferry boat spent one night at Irrigon last week, visiting the Irrigon ferry. We hope they do not cultivate too close friendship and get to running back and forth visiting much of the time. Ferries are quite numerous anyway.

Mrs. J. W. Hood and children left Wednesday for Seattle, Wash. to reside there with her folks until Pastor Hood knows where he will be transferred to. Mr. Hood is expecting word daily as to where his appointment will be.

The Commercial club at its regular monthly meeting had only a little business to transact. The regular monthly meeting night was changed from the first Friday to the second Friday, owing to the hall being occupied on the first Fridays in the future.

M. E. Doble has been experimenting on something that is worth while for the farmers of this project, and the whole west for that matter, and that is, poisoning rabbits at this time of the year. He placed one ounce of poison in five or six quarts of warm water with a couple cups of sugar and some salt and soaked a lot of new small potatoes in this liquid and spread them in the run-aways and where the rabbits seemed to be the thickest and the first four days buried 156 jack rabbits. In doing this, he only used the very small potatoes and did not cut them. They should be put out of the reach of stock and very few in a place.
