The Boardman Mirror

Volume 4

Oregon News Notes of Principal Events Happening During Week

The Lincoln County Journal, June 24th, had the following:

The Tide will now roll over Clackamas from the mouth of the river, and an election will be held in the town of Clackamas, as an election was held.

Civil service nominations are now being held, and a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held.

The Prineville weekly, issued today, has the following:

The town of Prineville has a population of 600, and a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held.

As a result of the election of December 31, the Board of Aldermen has been elected.

The Albany daily, published today, has the following:

The town of Albany has a population of 1,200, and a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held.

The Daily Mail, published today, has the following:

The town of Eugene has a population of 5,000, and a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held.

Boardman Board Meeting

To be held Saturday, July 16