

Bad Habit of Extravagance

Habit is our most potent instrument. This is especially true of bad habits.

One of the worst of the bad habits which got the American people by the throat during the war was extravagance.

In spite of the more or less sincere efforts to get out of this habit during the past two and a half years, it must be admitted that not enough progress has been made to be visible to the naked eye.

One of the chief difficulties seems to be that many of the people had done who talk loudly of the necessity for governmental economy are constantly bringing pressure of the government, either as individuals or as members of organizations, to spend large sums for that, that or the other unnecessary purpose.

Senator Pennington, for example, recently thanked a constituent for writing him urging that government expenses be reduced. The senator said that he had received hundreds of letters urging him to vote for bills calling for big appropriations of public money, but that this was the first letter of the other character he had received.

The senator added that the more pressure for economy brought to bear in official Washington, the sooner the bad habit of extravagance would be overcome.

Continued extravagance means continued high taxation, which is the price the public pays for its indifference in a matter which vitally concerns every man, woman and child in the nation.

Enough Melon For All

Out of the Imperial Valley alone enough cantaloupes have been shipped to allow one melon to each person in the entire United States and still have millions distributed for a second helping.

Up to July 31 a total of 26,500 carloads of cantaloupes had been shipped to Eastern markets. This means 153,000,000 melons—324 crates to a car and 45 cantaloupes to a crate.

Last year up to July 31 there had been shipped 2,900 cars of cantaloupes, or 122,100,000 melons out of the Imperial Valley.

This year's immense crop was shipped in approximately 200 trainloads, 50 cars to a train, which if placed one behind the other would extend for a distance of 500 miles.

Packing and packing the crop was done in approximately 400 hours, the 150,000,000 cantaloupes requiring two individual handlings—first the packing, then the packing.

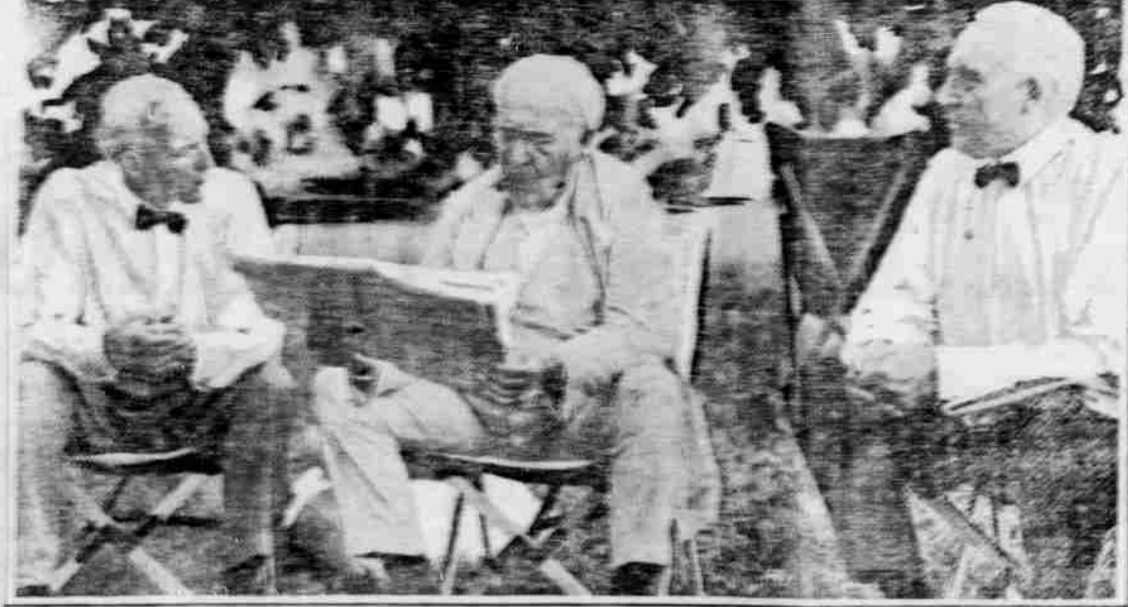

According to the railroad officials, 210 more cars of 2,732,500 melons, bringing the total number of cars to 28,750 will have been moved out of the Imperial Valley before the end of the season.

Important Western Bill

Senator McNary of Oregon, has introduced and secured favorable report in the Senate on his bill to secure federal and state co-operation in reclamation of public lands.

The bill appropriates $250,000,000 to enable ex-service men to get out

"I SEE BY THE PAPER—" SAID TOM TO WARREN AND HENRY

Isn't it a grand and glorious feeling when you can lay greatness and cares aside for a day and be a regular fellow on a camping-out trip? Four of America's biggest men (from left) on the gas of his own little roadster the other day, forgot that he was President and whizzed out to a little Mars-lane mountain camp for a day of roughing it with Henry Ford, Thomas Edison and Harvey Firestone. This picture shows Ford, Edison and the President looking over the daily papers while Harvey Firestone was busy trying an egg "sunnyside up."

to exceed 150 acres of public lands, provided for irrigation and construction of homes and associated payments over twenty years.

It is a scientific piece of legislation from the standpoint of law-making and finance. After the year 1930, $10,000,000 a year to be returned to the treasury, and no royalties for monopoly or exploitation.

Such an act would be a deserved recognition of the younger generation that enlisted or were drafted to fight for our country and the world in the greatest crisis of modern times. It should become a law.

The Final Great Objective

Within a year a world congress of women leaders in commerce, finance, agriculture, industry, education and government will be held in either Washington, Geneva or The Hague.

This announcement has been made by Mrs. Katherine Clemmons Gould, president of the Woman's International Chamber of Commerce.

This congress promises to be one of the milestones in the rapid progress which the women of the world have made during the past half dozen years in realizing their ambition to achieve a real place in the sun.

We can imagine nothing that would be more potent in furthering the cause of a better understanding among nations, leading eventually to world peace, than annual conferences of the world's leading women.

Whatever the immediate object of bringing them together, this would surely become the final great objective.

G. E. SUMMER CONFERENCE AT COLUMBIA CITY

All sports found at a popular summer resort are possible at Columbia City. Boating, bathing, beach parties, base ball, hand ball, roller ball, tennis, hikes, and stunt night.

From the crest of the conference grounds one views a picturesque scene of the Columbia river, rolling valleys, and the three snow-capped peaks of Mt. St. Helens, Mt. Adams, and Mt. Hood.

A speaker at the New York convention said: "The G. E. society is the heart of the church. As the heart is continuously pumping more blood through the human system, so the G. E. society continually furnishing new workers for the church and, because of this important function, the young people should receive increasing help and encouragement in their work." The daily classes in every branch of G. E. work will give the young people of this community new plans and new enthusiasm.

As the young people are the heart of the church, so the church is the heart of a successful community. It upholds the best of ideals before the people. Therefore it is at your best interest to give your moral and financial support to send as many delegates as possible to this big summer conference of young people.

ORDINANCE NO. 2

An ordinance to prevent and restrain the running at large of horses, dogs, cattle and other animals, or chickens, commonly called farm yard fowls, within the City or any portion thereof, and to provide for the sale or impounding of the same. Be it Ordained by the Common Council of the City of Boardman:

Section I.
It shall be unlawful for any person, person or corporation owning or having possession or control of any bull, steer, cow, heifer, horse, mare, colt, gelding, mule, ass, swine, sheep, or chicken, commonly called farm yard fowls, to permit such animals or fowls, or any or either of them to run at large, or to be, or remain at large upon any of the streets or public grounds, or in any or upon any uninclosed grounds in the City of Boardman.

Section II.
It shall be the duty of the Marshal, and of his deputies, and of such of them as take possession of, and safely keep in an inclosure provided or designated by the City Council of the City of Boardman, Oregon, for such purpose, all animals of the kind enumerated in Section One of this ordinance, found upon the streets or public grounds, or uninclosed grounds in Boardman, Oregon, contrary to the provisions of said section. And the Marshal shall immediately, and not later than the following day, cause to be posted in three public places in said City of Boardman, a notice, which notice shall contain a description of the animal or animals, or fowls, so taken up, together with a description of any artificial marks or brands on the same, if any can be discovered by the use of reasonable care in looking at said animals. Said notice shall state that if the animals or fowls described therein are not claimed by the owners, or those entitled to the possession thereof, and the costs charges and expenses against them paid and they be taken away within ten days from the date of the notice, said animals or fowls will be sold to the highest bidder at public auction, and the proceeds of such sale applied to the payment of the costs, charges and expenses of taking up and keeping said animals or fowls and making such sale.

Section III.
At the end of said ten days' notice, said animals or fowls shall not have been claimed by any person, or if claimed and the costs, charges and expenses of taking up, keeping and passing the same shall not have been paid, then the Marshal shall at two o'clock P. M. of the day following the day on which the said ten days' notice expires, offer said animals or fowls for sale at public auction to the highest bidder at the inclosure provided or designated by the City Council of the City of Boardman, and shall sell the same for cash and apply the proceeds of such sale, first to the payment of all charges, costs and expenses of keeping such animals or fowls and the sale of the same, and the surplus, if any there be, shall be paid to the City Treasurer, who shall keep a separate account of said moneys, and if said moneys are not claimed, or refunded as hereinafter provided, it shall after six months from the date of the receipt thereof, be converted into the general fund of the City.

Section IV.
Upon sufficient proof of ownership of or proprietorship made to the Marshal after such animals or fowls are taken up and impounded, and before the sale thereof, he shall restore the same to such owner upon the payment to him of all costs, charges and expenses as herein provided, up in the time such claim is made, and sufficient proof substantiated, and not otherwise. Upon sufficient proof made to the Recorder within six months from the date of the sale of such animals or fowls of the ownership or proprietorship of such animals or fowls, said Recorder shall issue a written order to the City Treasurer directing him to refund out of the moneys collected under the provisions of this ordinance, and deposited with him, the surplus received from the sale of such animals or fowls, less the charges and costs of making such proof, to the person making such claim.

Section V.
The Marshal, or any police of the City of Boardman, shall be entitled to charge, receive and collect, in addition to the salary or compensation allowed him by the ordinance, the following fees for performing the duties required by the provisions of this ordinance: For each animal or six fowls taken up and impounded, one dollar; for causing notice to be posted, one dollar; for selling each animal, or six fowls, one dollar; and the owner or proprietor shall be taxed as a part of the costs, charges and expenses against such animals or fowls, the necessary expenses of keeping, feeding and watering such animals or fowls, which shall not exceed fifty cents per head per day for each animal or fifty cents for each six fowls per week. The Marshal or other officer mentioned in this section shall not receive any compensation for the services mentioned in this section except such as may be received from the proceeds of the sale of the animals or fowls impounded, to be paid by the owners or proprietors thereof. The Recorder shall have as his fee for hearing evidence of and making proof of ownership and issuing order on the City Treasurer as herein provided, one dollar for each animal, or six fowls, so proven or attempted to be proven, which shall be taxed as a part of the costs and charges and expenses to be paid by the owner or owners of such animals or fowls.

Section VI.
If the owner or owners of any such animals or fowls taken up or impounded under the provisions of this ordinance is known to the Marshal or other police officer, he shall immediately give notice to such owner of the taking up and impounding of the same.

Section VII.
Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent the driving in an orderly manner, under proper control, through the streets of the City of Boardman, any of the animals mentioned in Section I of this ordinance.

Section VIII.
This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Common Council and when approved by the Mayor and shall be published in the Boardman Mirror, a weekly newspaper published at Boardman, Oregon, for one week.

Passed by the Common Council of the City of Boardman this 5th day of August, 1921.

Approved by the Mayor of the City of Boardman this 5th day of August, 1921.

C. G. BLAYDEN,
Mayor.

W. L. FINNELL,
City Recorder.
