BOARDMAN UTELLEM

Edited by the Boardman High School

Below is printed the words of the new Oregon state song by J. A. Buchanan. Music by Henry B. Murtagh. It is endorsed by the Supt. of Public Instruction, and was selected in a competitive contest and published by the Oregon Society of Composers. It may be had from the Oregon Eilers Music House, Portland.

OREGON, MY OREGON
Land of the Empire builders,
Land of the golden West;
Conquered and held by freemen,
Fairest and the best
Onward and upward ever
Forward and on and on;
Hail to thee Land of Heroes,
My Oregon,
Land of the rose and sunshine
Land of the summer's breeze
Laden with health and vigor,
Fresh from the Western seas,
Blest by the blood of martyrs,
Land of the setting sun,
Hail to thee Land of Promise,
My Oregon.

Amy Strait of the Sophomore class has moved to Alderdale, Wash.

Della Olson has been appointed Literary Editor to fill the vacancy left by Amy Strait.

Lauren feels doubly lonesome for Edna has left him to the mercies of physics alone! On the other hand well—we won't say anything this time, Lauren.

Word has been received that Wahnona Keys, who underwent an operation in the Emanuel hospital at Portland a short time ago, is on the road to recovery.

Edna Broyles has joined the sewing class. This class is soon to begin making doll dresses. At present we are engaged in the enjoyable art (?) of darning stockings.

the Auditorium every Monday morning has been changed to Friday at the usual time, the reason being that as there is no fire in the building over the week-end the Auditorium is not well heated.

The Senior English class is to have a debate Thursday, the subject being "Resolved that the Railroad Strike is justified." The affirmatives are: Edna Broyles, Della Olson and Doris Healey. Negatives: Dilbert Carpenter, Lauren Cumins and Dorothy Boardman. Mac Watkins is to be critic in accordance with his wishes.

JOKES

Lauren—"I'm going to be a doctor and specialize in bone surgery."
Alton—"You've sure got a good head for it."

H. C.—"You know now if I would like you could never get another fellow just like me."

N. R.—"Who said I would want another just like you?"

Dilbert—"There will be a lot of disappointed girls when I marry."

Doris—"For Heaven's sake! How many do you expect to marry?"

THE WOUNDED HOUND

By Helen Boardman, 5th Grade

One still afternoon in May, a man came out of a big farm house followed by two large hounds. He went out of the yard and out into a field, the two hounds racing before him.

Suddenly a shot broke the stillness. It whistled thru the air and struck the dog in the lead, just above the paw and he dropped to the ground with a howl of pain. A minute later the man came running to him followed closely by the other hound. He snatched him up quickly and ran towards the house with the other hound following sorrowfully.

At the gate that led to the big farmhouse a little girl came running to meet him followed by a little white puppy.

Oh daddy, she cried, what has happened to poor old Joe?"

"He has been shot," was the answer.

He pished the gate open and brought the dog into the house and laid him gently on the floor.

"Virginia," he said "bring me the liniment and bandages quick!"

Virginia quickly brought what was needed and the man bathed and bandaged up the wound carefully while the other hound put his long sharp nose into the air and uttered long howls of sorrow.

However the wound was not serious and it healed rapidly. Soon Joe could go with his master again.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

The Farm Bureau held a special meeting Saturday evening and petitioned the County Court to designate election day for the purpose of voting on five mill tax levy for road purposes as has been agreed upon in former years. The money will be expended on the Riverview Boulevard to complete one mile from the old school house, thence another mile on the Powell road south of Irrigon. Should there be anything left from this levy, balance to go on the Markham-Slocum road. The Farm Bureau also went on record for installing a wagon scale immediately unless the Tum-a-Lum Lumber company decided to install one at once. The secretary was also instructed to get in touch with corn shippers in the East and secure best possible prices. Regular monthly meetings will be held in the future. Prof. C. F. Grover motored to Heppner Wednesday with Irrigon school teachers to attend the county institute, returning Saturday morning. They report the roads in very bad shape at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rand and son, Batie, have returned from their vacation tour of the country, and are now at home on their farm. They travelled about 7,000 miles, in their Dodge car which they purchased just before they started, going through the Yellowstone National Park on their way East, and returning via California. They say the much talked about good roads in California must be clear down to the extreme south end of the state as they failed to find anything better than the Oregon roads on their journey in that state.

The Hay Growers' Association has Roy Baker of Prosser, Wash., on the job in this district baling hay for the association this week, and the first car is being loaded at this writing, being choice hay from the Walpole-Allen cuttings.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hicks and family of Prosser, Wash., accompanied by Alvin Davis, of Scales Mound, Illinois, and Mrs. McGuire of Oklahoma, a sister of Alfred Hicks, were visitors at the Glasgow's on Sunday. They motored over from Prosser, and returned in the afternoon, the limit on Mr. Davis' transportation not permitting a longer stay. Mr. Davis is a brother-in-law of Mr. Glasgow, who he has not seen for 22 years. Our ferry makes it possible for many similar journeys and visits that would be impossible otherwise.

Professor Jamison, of the O. A. C., and H. K. Dean, of the Umatilla Experiment Farm, accompanied by our County Agent, Calkins, are scheduled to lecture in the new school auditorium Friday evening, October 28th on the dairy business. Prof. Jamison will dwell mainly upon the proper feeding and Dean on pasturing. Everybody in this district is interested in the dairy business, directly or indirectly, and should get out to attend this lecture. They will give similar lectures at Boardman in the afternoon of the same day, and will then motor to Irrigon for the evening session.

Mrs. H. E. Riggs of Pendleton, was the guest of her sister, Miss Anna Ellertson, a couple of days the first of the week.

SHOULD MARRIED WOMEN WORK?

The Commander of the Barbara Fritchie Post of the American Legion in New York is a woman—Mrs. Julia E. Wheelock, the writer, who during the World War recruited 16,000 men for the United States navy. Mrs. Wheelock has urged married women who work unnecessarily to give up their jobs in favor of unemployed ex-service men.
