OH, NO; WE AREN'T WARLIKE!

Uncle Sam has been testing out new giant cannon at his proving grounds near Aberdeen, Md., for a couple of weeks. The picture shows what a big 16-inch "rifle," throwing shells weighing 2400 pounds each did to a piece of steel armor plate a foot thick.

Boardman Utellem

Vol. 2. Boardman High School, Boardman, Ore., Nov. 4, 1921. No. 4.

BOARDMAN UTELLEM

Edited by the Boardman High School

Mrs. Shurte has been a visitor at school this week.

A new set of International Encyclopedia has been added to the library.

Wanda Gilbreth left here last week and is now going to school in The Dalles.

The sewing class is making woolen dresses for themselves instead of doll dresses as was announced last week.

The Singer sewing machine agent came in Friday afternoon, and gave the machine a thoro overhauling and readjustment.

Delbert Carpenter has decided that the High School should have more practice in reading aloud. Miss Runner is co-operating.

Edna Broyles and Dorothy Boardman are entertaining chicken pox this week so they will not be in school until their guest departs.

Many of the high school students attended the Hallowe'en Carnival at Irrigon last Saturday night. They report having had an enjoyable time.

The House Decoration class is now building (on paper) a $2500 house. They also are giving $900 (in figures, not real money) to finish the building.

Efforts are being made to enroll a dairy record keeping club among the boys of the junior high school. Records are of primary importance.

in successful dairying for only by that method can the star boarder among the cows be eliminated.

Four of the boys from the J. H. room were absent from school Monday forenoon. They must have been sea-sick as they took a trip to Blacklock Island Sunday.

The pupils of the primary department gave a Hallowe'en party in their room on Monday. Games were played and refreshments of cracker-jack and apples were served.

There are several absences from school owing to the chicken pox. The cases are not serious, and three or four days is about the limit for the disease to run its course.

The Debating Society has decided upon the following question for Tuesday, "Resolved, the Boardman School District should build a Gymnasium." The president appointed Lauren Cumins to take the chair so that she might take part in the debate. Edna Broyles was appointed critic. The sides now stand, affirmative: Wilma Gilbreth, Dorothy Boardman and Delbert Carpenter. Negative: Mac Watkins, Della Olson and Doris Healey.

Frances E. Willard Day was recognized at assembly last Friday morning, using as a basis the program suggested by State Superintendent Churchill. The first number was the singing of "America" followed by the "Flag Salute." The assemblage was next addressed by Mrs. Boardman, who gave a short talk on the life and work of Miss Willard. A number of quotations were given by the Junior High, and some results that have followed prohibition from the grades. After practicing the new song, "Oregon My Oregon" once or twice the assembly was dismissed.

JOKES

Doris—"In what course do you expect to graduate?"
Fritz—"In the course of time."

The generosity of some people is delightful—they never can keep anything to themselves.

Mr. Crawford is about ten minutes late for lunch at the Cafeteria nearly every day.

Miss Runner as a rule gets down for lunch about ten minutes late.

What is it? The farther it goes the bigger it gets.—Gossip.

Sixth Grade

Mabel Brown and Edna Rhinehart have returned to school after a short illness of chicken pox.

COAST CRANBERRIES

NOW APPEARING

Through the efforts of Senator R. N. Stanfield, the navy has made a ruling to the effect that canned cranberries may be placed on the ration list of the Navy. Previous to this time, cranberries had been listed only in fresh form, and in consequence no canned cranberries could be offered for sale for use of the Navy. The action of Senator Stanfield provides a new outlet for this already famous Oregon product. This announcement comes as a welcome order to the personnel of the Pacific Fleet, for at holiday time many of the officers and men may be away in distant stations or in Asiatic waters far from that patriotic combination of turkey and cranberry sauce.

Late Pacific Coast cranberries are now appearing on the markets. The local berries are readily distinguishable from their Atlantic cousin, the eastern cranberry, by the lighter color of the local fruit. This lighter color is now recognized as a distinct asset, as it gives the cooked product a much brighter red hue, and also creates a stiffer jelly. No cranberry could produce a sauce or jelly of finer quality than those grown in our own state.

The entire crop is now harvested, and the growers are now devoting their attention to the quality of their pack. Fine weather during September and the first part of October has permitted the fruit to be picked dry, and the growers are well pleased with the fact that they had such favorable weather during the harvest, as the keeping quality of their product decidedly improved thereby. The crop is fully up to earlier expectations, and with an acute shortage of the eastern cranberry, the Oregon cranberry is already in great demand.

In the great cranberry district at the mouth of the Columbia river is the bulk of Pacific Coast cranberries grown. Oregon and Washington have joined forces in a marketing campaign, and growers of these states have formed the Pacific Cranberry Exchange which markets their fruit.
