OREGON BEE MEN MEET IN PENDLETON

A STATE CALAMITY

The Oregonian carries the following letter from John B. Potter, of Portland:

"Klamath Falls, Oct. 17th:

Oregon fans will be interested to know that the Oregon football team is making a remarkable record. The boys are finishing out the season with a victory, the only one of the year, and are now in the process of preparing for the big game against Washington. The Oregonians are determined to make it a close contest, and it promises to be an exciting game."

M. B. Dugger, a Portland, Oregon, and a member of the Oregon football club, has been appointed as a special correspondent for the Oregonian. He will cover the game and report it in detail.

OREGON BEE MEET IN PENDLETON

Bee men from all parts of Oregon gathered in Pendleton on Sunday to hold the annual meeting of the Oregon Beekeepers' Association. The meeting was held in the Pendleton Opera House, and was attended by over 100 beekeepers from all parts of the state.

The meeting was opened by President W. H. Brown, who welcomed the beekeepers and said that the work of the association was going on well. He said that the association was now in a strong position, and that the work of the past year had been most successful.

Next, Mr. Brown introduced Mr. A. C.rvine, who spoke on the subject of hivekeeping. Mr. Irvine said that the most important thing in beekeeping was to keep the bees healthy. He said that the most common disease of the bees was the varroa mite, and that the best way to prevent this was to keep the hives clean and free from robbing bees.

The meeting then adjourned, and the beekeepers proceeded to the Pendleton Opera House for a banquet.

COLD WEATHER HAS NO TERROR FOR MORROW AND UMATILLA CANDIDATES

In the cold winds of winter, the candidates for Morrow and Umatilla counties have been hard at work, campaigning for their favorite party. The candidates have been out in the cold, but they have not been deterred by the weather.

John B. Potter, a Portland, Oregon, and a member of the Oregon football club, has been appointed as a special correspondent for the Oregonian. He will cover the game and report it in detail.

THE HOME MERCHANT

Mid pleasures and palaces though I may find, I find the home merchant a much-valued friend. The mail-order catalogues wos me in vain, to pay-for-without-seeing may bring me a pain. The home merchant, however, he can sell the wares to him who wants to buy, and who wants to sell. The home merchant is the king of the world, and the world is his slave.

The home merchant has been busy all winter, and the home merchant is looking forward to a busy spring. The home merchant will be busy all summer, and the home merchant is looking forward to a busy fall. The home merchant is the master of all he surveys, and the home merchant is the master of all he possesses.
