

Last Saturday evening, about eight couples of the young folks gathered at the home of John Jenkins, and enjoyed dancing and ice cream until a late hour.

Mrs. Watkins, of Irrigon brought a load of fruit to Boardman last Friday.

Mrs. Frank Cramer and Mrs. Gibbons went to Portland last Tuesday. They will spend the summer there.

Lee Mead and family returned from their camping trip Tuesday. They report a grand trip, but that home looks good.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

Mr. Lamareoux, father of Ray, Elra and Dayton Lamareoux, of Irrigon and Ralph Lamareoux, of Boardman, passed away Monday evening at the home of Elra Lamareoux.

Funeral services were held at the house and interment made in the Irrigon cemetery Wednesday morning. Mr. Lamareoux has been very feeble for some time and passed away without any apparent suffering.

Mrs. N. Seaman and daughters, Freda and Margaret and Mrs. Knight and her three daughters went to Heppner Monday to have the children's tonsils removed. They returned on Wednesday and all are doing nicely.

E. R. Jackson of the Co-operative extension work, accompanied by C. C. Calkins, our county agent spent some of last Friday going over the potato situation and showing the growers what were healthy plants and other points.

The apricot season is over. N. Seaman and Son and others with possible exception of Grim Brothers, are cleaned up at this writing and Grims are sold ahead so that it would not be advisable for anyone to attempt a trip to Irrigon for apricots without first making reservation for a certain day.

OFFICERS PLAN FOR CLOSE CO-OPERATION

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.—Plans for a system whereby identification of liquor runners, drug peddlers and other violators of federal laws would be exchanged by peace officers of Pacific northwestern states and Canadian provinces were adopted by the Northwest and Idaho associations of sheriffs and police officers at the concluding session of the joint conference here.

The plan, as presented by Luke S. May of Seattle, president of the north-west association, provides for compiling and forwarding to every peace officer descriptions of all such violators known to be operating in the territory.

Portland, Or., was selected as the meeting place for the next convention of the northwestern association.

The effect of illicit liquor upon country dances was discussed by the convention and resolutions were adopted advocating strict regulation of rural dances and legislation giving county sheriffs authority to grant and cancel licenses for public dances.

SENATE COMMITTEE REJECTS FORD OFFER

Washington, D. C.—Henry Ford's offer for purchase and lease of the government's projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., was rejected by the senate agriculture committee by a vote of 9 to 7.

Those voting for rejection were Senators Norris, Page (by proxy), McNary, Keyes, Gooding, Norbeck, Harfield, McKinley, republicans, and Senator Kendrick, democrat, Wyoming. Those voting for a favorable report were Senators Capper and Ladd, republicans, and Smith, Randall, Harrison, Heflin, and Caraway, democrats.

Despite the adverse votes, the Ford proposal will be presented to the senate for final decision through minority reports, it was explained by Chairman Norris.

The resolution introduced by Chairman Norris calling for operation of the projects by a government-owned and controlled corporation also was rejected, the vote being 9 to 5. Voting for rejection were Senators Capper, Keyes, Ladd, Smith, Randall, Kendrick, Harrison, Heflin and Caraway and for acceptance were Norris, McNary, Gooding, Norbeck and McKinley.

Track Men Don't Wait For Orders.
Chicago, Ill.—Peace prospects in the railroad strike were dimmed by the addition of approximately 100,000 men to the forces of the strikers. Negotiations for a settlement were temporarily at a standstill, with no positive indication as to the next move or its possible result. By many it is believed that the nation this week will meet the major industrial crisis of its history.
