MANY FAMOUS PEOPLE COMING TO ROUND-UP

The Pendleton Round-Up never fails to attract many famous people who are among the thousands who see the big show and the 1922 presentation September 21, 22 and 23 will be no exception.

Ben W. Olcott, governor of Oregon, D. W. Davis, governor of Idaho, Wallace Irwin, Saturday Evening Post writer; George Palmer Putman, publisher and author; Heywood Brown and Ruth Hale, newspaper and magazine writers; Frederick O'Brien, author of "White Shadows in the South Seas"; Charles Hanson Towne and Dr. Walter E. Traprock, (George Chappell) both noted writers have made reservations for the three days and other prominent people will be here also.

Already the livestock is being brought to Pendleton, in preparation for the staging of the world's greatest out-door drama. Two carloads of Mexican longhorn steers, whose chief characteristic is a decided hostility to the world in general are being cared for on the Umatilla ranch by W. K. Doughtrey and Bod Abams. The animals will without doubt add considerable zest to the events of track and arena and it is probable that a pleasant time will be had by all when the visitors from over the border "meet up" with Round-Up performers.

ACCIDENT JULY 26
FATAL TO ECHO MAN

Injuries suffered by David McCarty of Echo on July 26, when an automobile driven by him crashed thru an overhead crossing near Big Eddy on the Columbia highway four miles east of The Dalles Sunday morning resulted in his death at the hospital there. His skull was fractured in the accident, causing meningitis.

He was born in Polk county, Oregon in 1865, being 57 years old at the time of his death. When a boy he came with his parents to Butter Creek where he lived almost continuously since, thus being a pioneer of the Echo country. He was a member of a highly respected family and leaves a mother, five brothers, John, James, William, Albert and Otis, and one sister, Mrs. James McCumber, to mourn his loss. The body was brought to Echo Monday and funeral services were held at the M. E. Church Tuesday at 2:00 o'clock. The Masonic lodge, of which Mr. McCarty was a member, was in charge of the services. Interment was made in the Echo cemetery where his father has rested for several years. A host of friends sympathize with the bereaved family. Masons from Stanfield and other nearby towns attended the funeral.

A BILLY SUNDA
"EVE"

Mary Agnes Vitchevstain is 14-year-old girl evangelist of Pittsburgh, Pa. Her sermons are delivered with all the two-fisted punning of Billy Sunday's gymnastic gyrations. She was recently invited to preach in New York.

RICHARD LLOYD JONES
ved family. Masons from Stanfield and other nearby towns attended the funeral.

RAIN IS GENERAL

Rain was general all over Umatilla county, says J. C. Kuhns, Umatilla Forest Supervisor. It put out all fires and will be of great benefit to the grazing range. Mr. Kuhns stated.

IMPRESSING THE JAPS

Secretary of Navy Denby went to the Orient on a peaceful mission, nevertheless, his stop in Japan did not fail to impress the little islanders. His great size was made more conspicuous as he walked through the palace grounds with Admiral Uru. His wife is with him.

Is Brooklyn Bridge Falling Down?

That largest suspension span on the famous old structure, the Brooklyn Bridge at New York, has slipped under the constant hammering of traffic and authorities have closed it to all except pedestrians. Arrow points to slipping cable.
