

PEOPLE ASKED TO HELP ON STATE-WIDE CAMPAIGN

With an appeal to the people in every part of Oregon to concentrate on a campaign of state-wide development by filling the state with visitors from all over the world and by presenting to the world the scenic, farming and industrial attractions and opportunities, the 1925 exposition committee in Portland has launched its campaign in behalf of the measure to be voted on at the state election November 6. The measure amends the state constitution so as to permit Portland to tax itself to finance the fair. No tax is provided outside of the city of Portland.

"We have a state full of resources opportunities and scenic attractions," says Mayor Baker of Portland who heads the exposition committee. "Oregon now is the least advertised state in the union and consequently is developing slowly. We must do like a store or a business concern does when business is slack—advertise, and the exposition is the best known way to advertise.

To bring thousands of people to Oregon from all over the world will bring money to the state and will bring business people, farmers and investors. We have the advantages and we must show them in order to place them on the market and in order to develop our state to the extent that what we already have in the way of products can be utilized. The 1925 exposition is not a Portland venture although that city will stand the expense. It is an all Oregon exposition and all Portland asks is that the state sanction it. The state which is now talking about the need for advertising our attractions could ask for no better proposition."

Plans have been made for a twelve day campaign between now and November 6th. The exposition advocates expect to extend the campaign throughout the state in an effort to organize the state as a unit for state development which is the underlying purpose of the exposition.

LADIES AID HOLDS ALL DAY MEETING

Wednesday was Ladies Aid day at Boardman. The Ladies Aid societies all over the county were invited to meet with the Boardman ladies.

The following Umatilla ladies attended the all day meeting of the Ladies Aid Wednesday at Boardman: Madama J. H. Cherry, C. A. Smith, D. W. Jackson, R. F. Paul, O. S. Stangeby, and W. T. Lambert. They reported a very enjoyable time.

A number of Pendleton ladies also attended coming in three cars. There was one man in the crowd but he did not register and kept out of sight except at eating time. We failed to get his name but we were very thankful to him for bringing his car full of ladies to the meeting. This was said to be the best meeting the Aid has ever held here. The Pendleton ladies were the first to arrive. The church was already arranged with set tables and chairs in a circle and after registering the guests proceeded to get acquainted. Rev. Benson was present to assist in any way he could. The good things to eat were soon put on the tables and lunch was served promptly at 12 noon. The visitors were elaborate in their praise of the dinner and the hospitality in general.

Mrs. Edith B. Crawford secretary of the local society was presented with a silver gift, as she is closing her work and leaves this week for Corvallis. The local Society presented the De Moss Family in concert Tuesday night realizing $20.45 as their share of the proceeds.

C. G. Blayden has the contract for the school year 1922-1923 to carry the school children from Coyote to Boardman.

The Dew Drop Inn is again occupied. This year the guests are the Misses Powell and Markham and Mrs. Hummel and son.

Mrs. Tom Hendricks has as her guest, her cousin Miss Connor.

LETTER FROM SUBSCRIBER FAVORS FAIR NEXT YEAR

It appeared that the secretary of our fair association, made a very good guess when he informed Irrigon that we could not hold a fair this year as it is very plain that very little interest has been shown here. Now that our president has sent his resignation to Mr. Crawford saying that their most enthusiastic fair supporters don't wish to take part in a fair this fall, we think we had better drop the matter for this season. We cannot consistently ask Irrigon to change their plans at this late date and I am opposed to holding a fair here until we have held one at Irrigon, which let us endeavor to do at the next season, unless Irrigon absolutely refuses to entertain us. Had Boardman responded to Irrigon's first call for a fair meeting, the chances are very good that we would have had a fair as planned. They are no doubt considerably disappointed and perhaps they think they have reason to be a little offended also. I agree with them on both counts: Our secretary perhaps is considerably to blame but we all should have been inquiring about it long before the matter was brought to our attention by the article in the Mirror. It is now too late to think of getting things gathered together even though all was harmonious. I am very sorry that the $600.00 has to be sent back to Salem to be squandered by our state officials. Let us make a strong resolve to never let it occur again. We had better take no action upon our president's resignation but consider the old officer as holding over until next year, then if we don't hear from them by the first day of August let us remind them of their duties. In the mean time let us be planning for our exhibits from the time the first field is planted. The ladies can begin on their fancy work immediately. Remember you cannot place your old work in competition the second time. Let us not forget the grain and hay show at Pendleton. Get your bale of alfalfa cut before it is in full bloom if you want to win the big money. Parties in charge of the Broadview ranch neglected so far to prepare their bales so I think competition from that source is eliminated. This makes it a little better for the other growers. I hope that we will be better represented this year and that every bale sent will win a prize, as they did last year.

Yours for a big North Morrow County Fair at Irrigon early in September, 1923.
C. H. Dillabough

CELEBRATE OPENING OF NEW DEPOT HERE

Three hundred people celebrated the opening of the new depot with a jollification Friday evening, September 1st. The evening began with a community feed followed by speech making. S. H. Boardman acted as director of efforts and the first to respond was C. G. Blayden, Boardman's first mayor and contestant with O. H. Warner for the honor of being the first settler in Boardman. Other local people to felicitate the occasion were Mrs. Margaret Cramer, who recited an original poem setting forth the struggles of Sam Boardman and Anna, his wife, to get a depot located at the town site; Principal P. J. Mulkey of the local schools, O. H. Warner, and the agent, Ralph S. Davis. Visitors from out of town who contributed to the success of the evening were: Messrs. Swayze, Dodd, Hunt, and Young, of Hermiston, C. C. Calkins, county agent, and C. A. Vanderwater, district freight and passenger agent of Walla Walla.

Mrs. Crowder of Wasco a member of our school faculty is living with the J. C. Ballenger family.

Mrs. Chas. Dillon has been bedfast for several days.

HEPPNER PESSIMISTIC
ABOUT 1925 FAIR
(Editorial)

A spirit of pessimism fogs the Heaven from the caverns of our county seat. The stopper to the bottom of the abyss has been lifted and a blue mirk befalls the brain cells of those who are still able to wander aimlessly about. A commercial house tells a woe that their business died in 1921, and now in 1922 it is dead again. The funeral is spon to be held and the mourners request that money be brought instead of lilies. It literally breathes a spirit of hopelessness which permeates a community.

A caravan of Portland business men ask Heppner for their good will and vote that they may tax themselves to hold a fair for a liOregon. The haunting bugbear of a possible legislature request for a state appropriation dampened the county seat's response. Have you no hope for the future Are you of all men, the burden bearers? Do not others spin and reap not? Shall all curse the hand of fate and live without hope. Why not at least a showing of optimism to the fellow across the line, though we steep in pessimism? He may help us from the slough of despair. Let's be up and doing. A bath and clean shirt has given a brighter prospectus to many a man. Why not to a community.

Miss Ruth Akers, of Wasco is visiting with her cousin Mrs. J. C. Ballenger.

BEAUTIFUL RACERS TO BE AT ROUND-UP

Twenty-four beautiful racers, representing the Eddie McCarty strings, and five bucking horses are at the Round-Up stables in anticipation of the coming Round-Up. Among the fleet-footed animals which come to Pendleton after winning laurels on many tracks are Young Hexter, Alta M., Miss Enora, Apirantna, Orphan Child, Dora Turner, Ruth Van, Mangle Van, Shamrock Van, Dr. Dugan, Auditor, Skillful S., Karl C and Sultan. McCarty is now in Spokane and the horses are under the care of George Langdon.

The Monday before the Round-Up will see the arrival of the patron saint of the show, namely, Charles Irwin, who is a familiar figure in track and arena. He states, in a wire to H. W. Collins, president of the Round-Up, that he will have about 29 head of stock. His lady relay riders are Lorena-Trickley, acclaimed world champion woman rider and winner of the Hotel McAlppin trophy, and Vera McGinnis. For the two men's relay strings he has as riders "Spider" Kelly and "Red" Pruitt. His trick riders are Harry Walters, Miss Trickley, Miss McGinnis, and Roy Kivett, who is also a trier roper. Steer ropers of the Irwin appropriation are Kivett, Claude Sawyer, Buddy Stenling, Cliff King and Phil Yoder. Irwin will have in his old stalls besides his racing stuff, bucking mules, five bucking horses George Drumheller, of Walla Walla, and one laydown horse.

la, long a friend of the Pendleton Round-Up, will secure for this year's show the horses for Queen Thelma Thompson and her attendants. There will be four white horse fo the maids and one cream colored animal for the queen. Miss Jessie Drumheller, daughter of Mr. Drumheller, has been chosen as one of the maids. She is an accomplished horsewoman and has ridden in the Pendleton show. Two other maids are Miss Al-ladeen Scroggins of La Grande and Miss Helen Thompson of Pendleton. Miss Scroggins has ridden in the Union Stock Show. A Portland Miss is yet to be chosen to make up the group of attendants.

PENDLETON, OREGON
SEPTEMBER 21, 22, 23, 1922
In the whole World there is no contest so intensely exciting, and with more thrilling and spectacular elements, than the riding of "cutters" bronches by cowboys and cowgirls. These contests, also the wild horse races, wild steer roping and bulldogging, Indian dances and pow wows are all that remain of the young, wild, vigorous, yet lovable West.
