Indicating that the Pierce-for-Governor campaign will be carried direct to the people before the rapidly oncoming election day, an advertisement is appearing simultaneously this week in the newspapers of the state making a plea for dollar subscriptions, on the basis that this candidate is one of the people and dependent upon the rest of the people to elect him. The issue seems to dwell particularly upon reduced taxes and no hint is given or claim made of party or partisan affiliations, but a clear cut delineation of government for the people and by the people.

In the matter of campaign expenses it is pointed out that Mr. Pierce himself is hardly able to bear the burden of placing his cause before the voters of Oregon, and, unsupported by wealthy and influential corporations, it has been necessary to depend upon the small contributions of those who may have both a dollar and a vote. A clean campaign is pledged throughout.

VOTE ON WORLD FAIR
PURELY TECHNICAL QUESTION

Technical legal reasons make it necessary for the people of the state to vote on the question of the 1925 exposition, according to an explanation issued by the exposition committee. While the measure authorizing a tax of $3,000,000 will be on the ballot in Portland, the measure on the ballot in the rest of the state will be on to authorize Portland to overcome the state tax limitation law which otherwise would prohibit Portland from levying the tax. No tax is provided outside of Portland.

"Before Portland can levy a tax within Portland, it is necessary to have the approval of the voters of the entire state," says the committee report. "This is due to the 6 per cent tax limitation law which reads in part as follows: 'Unless specifically authorized by a majority of the legal voters voting upon the question, neither the state nor any municipality, district or body to which the power to levy a tax shall have been delegated, shall in any year so exercise that power to raise a greater amount of revenue for purposes other than the payment of bonded indebtedness or interest thereon than the total sum levied by it in the year immediately preceding for purposes other than the payment of bonded indebtedness of interest thereon, plus six per centum thereof.'"

The six per cent limit applies in the proposal by Portland to finance the exposition in order for the city to exceed that limit, which the $3,000,000 tax would do, the constitution must be amended and this cannot be done excepting at a state wide election and with the approval of the voters a large.
