

EVERY ABLE BODIED MAN AT WORK ON ROADS

Almost every able-bodied man on the project who had a team of horses was working on the roads last week. Road Supervisor Jenkins had a full crew, not only on the road, but in the gravel pit as well. At present work is being done in the sand near Mike Marshall's place, and it is planned, providing sufficient funds, to gravel this road from Al Price's corner west to the lateral near Dillon's. This will give one good gravelled road east and west of the entire project.

Mrs. W. H. Stewart and son, Ray, were Hermiston visitors on Monday.

FOR JOINT SENATOR

Umatilla, Union and Morrow Counties

Henry J. Taylor

The name of Henry J. Taylor, pioneer farmer of Umatilla county, will be on the Democratic Ticket as a farmer candidate for Joint Senator. Mr. Taylor is a consistent advocate of and favors the strictest economy in the expenditure of the public's money and a liberal support of the public schools. He is opposed to the School Monopoly Bill for the reason that its adoption will mean the outlay and expenditure of about $2,000,000 for additional school buildings and equipment and an annual expense of about $2,000,000 for maintenance and operation in addition to the now almost intolerable load of tax upon us, and for the further reason that it would destroy parental authority and deprive the citizens of the constitutional guarantee of religious freedom and of the right to give their children a religious education in addition to that afforded by the public schools. A vote for Henry J. Taylor is a vote in the interest of every fireside in this Senatorial District and in the State of Oregon.

Two Arlington visitors seen on our streets Sunday were G. W. Biggs, merchant, and Attorney A. H. Switzer. These gentlemen, after being shown through the school building pronounced it very good, and proceeded to drive over the project.

The new seats for the high school arrived last Thursday and the work of putting them together was accomplished Saturday by Professors Carroll and Mulkey. The high school appreciates these seats very much as there were not enough to go around, and old chairs and benches were being used.

Last Wednesday afternoon which was October the 4th, Mrs. Garrett brought her cousins, Mrs. Tellington and children to visit our schoolhouse. Mrs. Tellington was much pleased with her visit.

New blackboards arrived Monday and will be used in the grade rooms to replace some of the old ones, which are in a very bad condition.

The pupils of the 3rd and 4th grades have been supplied with new chairs which will be used during recitations.

Assembly a week ago. Monday morning was a very mysterious affair controlled entirely by the spirits, just what kind, no one knows. After singing two or three familiar songs, at three claps of the hands, Mohara Kutzner appeared and spoke a piece entitled "Gettin' To It". Then when three more claps were given, Howard Klages gave a recitation, "In Winner". After the same proceedings, Mr. Leet room spoke "Weave the Web of Life" in unison. Mr. Mulkey then announced that the "town gang" which means the boys and girls who live in town, were to report the following Saturday morning and clean the school grounds (but no one reported). The meeting adjourned after singing another song.

Tuesday, October 10, was election day for the purpose of electing a director to the irrigation district.

The election was held in the basement of the school house with Messrs. Signs, Cobb and Boardman as judges. The vote was light but cast unanimously in favor of A. E. McFarland of Umatilla.

Seventh and Eighth Grade Notes. Delbert Johnson has built a reading table for the 7th and 8th grades rooms. It will come in very handy.

Jokes

Mr. Carroll—What insect requires the least nourishment?

Wahnona—The moth; it eats holes.

Mr. Mulkey—And what was Washington's farewell address?

Truman—Heaven, sir.

Delbert—Didn't you see me down town yesterday? I saw you twice.

Caryl—I never notice anybody in that condition.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

The high school boys entertained the girls at the high school Thursday evening. A very nice program had been arranged by the boys together with eats for the occasion.

The plans for the big Hi-Jinx and Carnival is progressing rapidly. The boys have located a real Alabama Nigger, a big broad faced fellow, with a mouth from one side two inches back of the ear and reaching over to the other side within a half's breadth of tickling the other ear. His nose comes well over the center portion of the mouth and the grand prize again this year will be awarded to the first man or woman who can spot the nose with a rotten egg. Mr. Max Watkins won the prize of $100 last year and he has promised to be on the grounds early to protect his title on the evening of the big doings. Fifty-two cases of rotten eggs have been donated to the Carnival company and several dozen baseballs promised. The egg supply runs out. The second annual Hi-Jinx and Carnival proves to be much greater than the last one last fall and great crowds have already signified their intention of taking their vacation at this time and attending the big doings. Don't forget the date, Saturday evening, October 28, 1922.

Miss Clara Corrie, of Portland, has been employed by the school board for second teacher in the high school. She arrived Saturday and took up her duties Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rand, of Linnton, are Irrigon visitors this week. They motored up Monday and picked up Harry Lester below The Dalles who was headed for Irrigon on a motor cycle but broke down and left the machine at Mosier. Harry returned to Portland the next day on account of having to return to his work.

Frank Rider reports having sold out to Mr. Rancier. Mr. Rancier is taking charge of the place immediately and Mr. Rider is moving to Spray Oregon. We understand they made a trade as part of the deal.

Mrs. Chas Dempsey and Snow McCoy made a business trip to Hermiston Tuesday, returning the same evening.

C. C. Collins, our county agent, reports H. I. Cooby, the poultry specialist from the O. A. C. will be with us on the morning of October 18th. The plans are to have the lecture at Glasgow's but this may be changed as Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow expect to be away on their vacation at that time. At any rate, those who are interested in feeding and culling of birds should arrange to watch Mr. Cooby on that date.

The weather conditions are ideal for fall sowing of alfalfa. Farmers all report having secured fine stands. There has been no wind worth mentioning and the ground is still warm, bringing rapid growth.

Watch Irrigon next summer. With the success N. Seaman and Son have had with their New Irrigons, this year, they are going ahead with big acreage next year. They have also secured cantaloupe seed on which they will specialize from now on. These cantaloupes will be almost like the New Irrigons, probably a little sweeter and running much smaller in size. They carry a very heavy rind and will ship across the continent. They will cross and recross those with the New Irrigons from year to year and improve both the New Irrigons and the Pride of Irrigon under which name the new cantaloupe will make its appearance next season. We are here to become the world's famous cantaloupe district.
