PIERCE IS ELECTED GOVERNOR OF OREGON

Compulsory School Bill Carried, But Single Tax and Income Tax Lose.

Portland, Or.—On the face of returns from over the state, Walter M. Pierce has been elected governor of Oregon over Ben W. Olcott by about 20,000 votes.

Olcott lost both in the state outside of Multnomah county, considered as a whole, and also in Multnomah.

He apparently has carried Benton, Curry, Gilliam, Hood River, Klamath, Lake, Washington and Wheeler, while Pierce has all the other counties.

WALTER M. PIERCE
Democratic Candidate, Elected Governor of Oregon.

Strong majorities were rolled up against the republican candidate in Multnomah, Coos, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Linn, Lane, Umatilla—all the counties in which the larger towns are located, except that returns from Salem and Astoria, in Marion and Clatsop counties, respectively, are somewhat closely drawn between the two candidates.

All other republican candidates for state office have been elected.

The public school compulsory measure has, it is indicated by the returns, been adopted by a majority perhaps in excess of 10,000.

The exposition enabling amendment voted on in the state at large is in doubt. It apparently has a majority in Multnomah county. In the state at large the vote is almost even, but the slight difference is against the bill.

Single tax has again been defeated, this time two and one-half times to one. The income tax amendment is also defeated by better than two to one.

MOORE IS 3400 IN LEAD

Republican Candidate for Governor in Idaho is Winner.

Boise, Ida.—The republicans have captured the governorship of Idaho, it was conceded early Wednesday when Moore, G. O. P. candidate was reported to be leading Alexander, democrat, by more than 3400 votes. Moore was gaining steadily in all the out state counts. H. F. Samuels, progressive candidate, is coming up strong on the two leaders and the fight may develop into a contest between Moore and Samuels. Addison T. Smith, republican, was declared winner over Whitaker, democrat, in the race for congress.

California Remains Republican.

San Francisco.—California definitely refused to join the movement toward democratic majorities noticeable in eastern states, returns available on Tuesday's election showed. A republican governor, senator, full state ticket and a congressional majority have been elected, while the legislature will be the same party.

NO SOCIAL WEARINESS OR ENNUI ON EAST SIDE

Do you complain of weariness or ennui and lack of social advantage? If so, move out to the East End of the project and you'll have no just grounds for such complaint. So much is going on that the husbands feel neglected. Last Friday a number of the neighbors went to the Kutzner home and spent the day in pulling wool. (Now, don't misinterpret that). Everyone had a jolly time and a great heap of wool was pulled and carded and put aside to be made into quilts later. Not the least part of the day's pleasure was the bounteous feast the surprisers brought with them, which was enjoyed at noon time. Let me see, there was hot mashed potatoes, meat mince pie, apple pie, sandwiches, coffee, cakes galore, cookies, etc., etc. The neighbors who enjoyed the delightful and unconventional affair were Mesdames King, Christenson, Mead, Welch, R. Brown, Garrett Richardson, Howell, E. K. Matvey, T. Miller Hereim. We can't take time to say "and children" after so many names, but the children were present and enjoyed the day as much as the grown-ups.

BOARDMAN WOMAN MAY WIN HEPPNER HERALD AUTO

Did you know that Mrs. Jack Gorham is one of the ladies in the Heppner Herald contest and we all have aspirations of her becoming the owner of the Ford sedan. If you are interested in the Heppner paper at all be sure to give Mrs. Gorham your subscription and help her win the car. The Herald is to carry Boardman items from now on and an historical column is to be added which will carry stories of early Morrow county and eastern Oregon history.

Senator Kellogg Apparently Defeated.

St. Paul, Minn.—Increasing his lead as each additional precinct was counted Dr. Henrik Shipstead, non-partisan, appeared to be victor over Frank E. Kellogg, republican, for United States senator. Anna Dickie Oleson, first woman nominee for the senate, running on the democratic ticket, ran a poor third.

Democrats Elect Senator in Michigan.

Detroit, Mich.—With but 631 precincts of the 2906 in the state missing this morning, former Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, democrat, apparently had been elected to the United States senate over Senator Charles E. Townsend, republican.

Fine Dinner By the Aid.

The Ladies Aid dinner was quite successful on election day. Hot-chicken fricassee, hot biscuits, mashed potatoes, cold slaw, pickles, creamed carrots, coffee and cake were served. at 35 cents per plate. The dinner was well managed and nicely served. There was no confusion and everything went well. About $30 was cleared. Mrs. M. L. Morgan, Mrs. J. R. Johnson and Mrs. Nick Falter were the members of the committee who had this successful affair in charge and were ably assisted by other girls and women of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cummins, and son, Loren and Wahnona Rands were dinner guests at the Howell home Sunday. They enjoyed a lovely dinner.

Mrs. W. D. King and children and Mrs. Christenson were dinner guests at the Hereim home Sunday.

ALICE ROBERTSON LOSES

Only Woman Representative Beaten for Re-election to Congress.

Oklahoma City.—Miss Alice Robertson of Muskogee, republican, the only woman member of the 67th congress, was defeated for re-election by the man over whom she won in the republican landslide of 1920, the returns indicated.

W. W. Hastings, democrat, veteran of three terms, who was unseated by Miss Robertson in the last election, had a lead of almost 2 to 1.

San Francisco "Wets" Win Election.

San Francisco.—San Francisco voters by a vote of 2 to 1 directed the city board of supervisors to memorialize congress, asking modification of the Volstead act to permit light wines and beer, returns showed.

Senator Reed is Missouri Favorite.

St. Louis, Mo.—United States Senator James A. Reed, democrat, held a lead of more than 15,500 votes over N. R. Brewster, his republican opponent for re-election.

Chicago Votes for Modified Dry Law.

Chicago, Ill.—Returns from Illinois, with the city of Chicago virtually complete, on the beer and wine referendum, gave: For 594,563, against 133,864.

Berger Again Strong in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis.—One hundred and forty-eight precincts out of 153 in the sixth Wisconsin congressional district gave Berger, socialist, 28,899; Stafford, republican, 25,205.

Send In the News

We need more news items for our Mirror. Please send them in either directly to Stanfield or call Mrs. Root, Mrs. Morgan or Mrs. Earl Cramer, all of whom have been kindly contributing their time to make the paper a success.

The tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Warren was seriously ill Monday night and Tuesday with acute indigestion. Dr. Johnston was called Monday night. Last reports are that the baby is slowly improving.

M. B. Signs and family have moved to Portland after three years residence here. Mr. Signs completed final proof on his homestead before leaving. He has a position at Oreno, Ore., a suburb of Portland.

Wahnona Rands has returned to school after two weeks absence on account of illness.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

Election has passed off quietly. Irrigon appears to have indicated about the average vote for the state. The compulsory educational bill having carried by a safe margin and Pierce 47 to Olcott's 24. Two to one in a Republican stronghold would indicate people are of one mind, namely, in need of some changes in the present administration. Patriotic organizations have come to the front in no uncertain force. These men are all obligated to work for the removal of all foreignism among us and deal just such death blows to all rotten politicians. It's up to candidates in the future to mark out the straight and narrow path and demonstrate their ability to walk the same before announcing their candidacy for any office.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Harris are now arrivals among us from Boyds, Washington and have rented the Michael Donnelly place for the time being. Mr. Harris is here for his health and if he improves, will try to find him a small farm in this district.

Mr. Geo. Satow will be the new foreman in charge of the extra gang at work on the back relay work for the railroad company. Gang No. 9 has been laid off and gang 11 sent to replace them.

Senior class of Irrigon school will write up items on the school—beginning not later than next week and space has been arranged in both the Spokesman and the Mirror. The regular correspondent will confine himself to other news exclusively.

RADIO CONCERT AND MOVIE BENEFIT CEMETERY ASS'N

Boardman is forging ahead. Her citizens can now boast of having heard a radio concert. The directors of the cemetery association gave the affair Tuesday evening to raise the necessary funds for the payment on the cemetery plot. The auditorium was packed and everyone was so interested to hear the radio—most of for the first time. This was a bit of a disappointment at first because of some difficulty and so the films run instead and the audience thoroughly enjoyed "Alfalfa Love" a light comedy in which a trained dog was the leading actor. Then came Harold Lloyd (who is always good) in a screaming comedy; the house rocked with laughter from start to finish of the film. Following this we heard splendid solo very clearly and distinctly on the radio, and then a violin solo which came over the air waves so plainly that it was almost impossible to believe that the violinist was hundreds of miles away. Then more difficulty was encountered, the sounds becoming scratchy and blurred and harsh, but those who stayed later reported hearing some excellent music.

The ladies aid met in regular session at the church Wednesday afternoon of last week, and quite a little business was transacted. It was voted that the Aid pay $10 towards the moving expenses of the new minister, Mr. Gibson, who is to preach his farewell sermon next Sunday. He will have charge of the Umatilla and Boardman parishes. Rev. Benson preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. Plans are being discussed concerning the excavation of the basement. It is planned to have it excavated and a full sized cellar under the church, and the first thing is to have the big heating stove moved to the basement and the church heated in that manner so that every one can be comfortable during the winter months and not just those nearest the stove.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cron and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shyro, of Milton, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rands last week. The girls are neices of Mrs. Rands and were on their honeymoon. They will make their home in California.

Dr. Donnelly was in Boardman on business over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown returned to their ranch on the west side this week after spending some time in camp.

Mrs. Dick Johnson is on the sick list this week.

The McPhersons of Wasco visited at the Ballenger home last weekend. On Tuesday the Murchies came for a few days visit.

Howard Packard has recovered from his illness and is back in school feeling fine.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Stanford, of Milton, Oregon, were visitors at the Rand home this week. They are motoring through to California. Mrs. Stanford is a sister of Mrs. Rands.

Fredrick Barnes stopped at Boardman on his way through last week.

POINDEXTER AND DILL RACE CLOSE

Contest Is One of the Hottest in the History of the State of Washington.

Seattle, Wash.—The state of Washington will probably send a solid republican delegation to the lower house of congress, returns from Tuesday's election indicated, but it may take the official count to determine whether or not former Congressman C. C. Dill defeated the present republican incumbent, Miles Poindexter, for the United States senate.

The senatorial contest, coming at the end of an especially bitter campaign, was one of the closest in recent history of the state. Until midnight Tuesday night Poindexter maintained a lead, but later returns added strength to the democratic nominee. Two years ago Senator Wesley L. Jones, republican, defeated his democratic opponent, George F. Cotterill, by 148,511 votes, and six years ago Poindexter defeated former Senator George Turner, democrat, by 67,000.

In the congressional elections the five incumbent republican representatives in congress maintained apparently safe leads over their opponents.

The closest congressional fight was in the fifth district, where 183 precincts gave J. Stanley Webster, republican, 6694 votes and Sam B. Hills, democrat, 6212.

Outside of the senatorial campaign, republicans have evidently won a sweeping state victory. All of the five republican congressional candidates have been returned to the national capital and no marked defections have been reported in any of the legislative districts.

The King county (Seattle) republican ticket was swept into office by its usual overwhelming majority.

Of the nine measures on the ballot, only one seems sure of having carried. This is initiative measure No. 49, providing for the repeal of the poll tax. The unpopular five dollar a head per year law has been wiped out by at least 5 to 1.

You will find Hotel Dorion, Pendleton, homelike, and rates reasonable.
