What Happened to the Freshies!

Six little Freshmen
Not much alive—
One of them fainted,
Then there were five.
Five little Freshmen
Looking very sore—
One of them fainted,
Then there were four.
Four little Freshmen
Cute as cute could be—
One of them swore,
Then there were three.
Three little Freshmen
Looking awful blue—
One lost his pretty cap,
Then there were two.
Two tiny Freshmen
Making lots of fun—
Along came the Senior class,
Then there was one.
One wee Freshman
Very much in love—
Put his arm around a maiden,
Then Heavens above!

JOKES

Delbert—I'm going to quit school.
It's too lonesome here, now.
Fritz—Better try Doris, kid, she's lonesome, too.

Last Wednesday morning, after election day, while the seventh and eighth grade pupils were discussing the qualifications of voters, it developed that many of the pupils were born in the different states of the Union. The states represented and the number are: Washington, 8; Oregon, 6; Idaho, 1; Pennsylvania, 2; Texas, 1; South Dakota, 4; Kansas, 1; Michigan, 1; Oklahoma, 1.
The seventh and eighth grades also held a mock election for governor, constable and justice of the peace. Result follows: For governor, Pierce 15, Oleott, 11; for constable, Gorham 8; for justice of peace, O. H. Warner 8.
The seventh and eighth grades have elected Thelma M. Beck as class editor.

A calendar for the month of November has been stenciled in colors on the new blackboard which was recently put in the high school room.
The high school held an election Wednesday afternoon during civics class period. Mrs. Crowder, Mr. Mulkey and Mr. Carroll acted as an election board. According to our election N. J. Sinnott was elected representative in congress, W. M. Pierce governor, O. P. Hoff, state treasurer, J. A. Churchill, superintendent of public instruction, H. A. Taylor, senator, J. T. Lieualien, representative, N. A. Macomber was elected constable, while W. A. Goodwin and O. H. Warner were tied for justice of peace. The exposition tax amendment and school bill carried.

A few of the basket ball boys with the assistance of Messrs. Lee and Carroll have about completed the task of fitting up the Beck hall for basketball practice. Those who assisted in the work are, Arthur Bailey, Alton Klitz, Chas. Attibory and Delbert Carpenter.

Yesterday morning during yell practice, Mr. Mulkey called on each class in turn and they responded in feeble tones. When the seniors turn came they all stood and stretched their lungs enough to make up for the entire high school.

Last Monday morning Mr. Mulkey called a general assembly during which he announced there would be no school on Tuesday. He also told about the chicken dinner the ladies aid would give in the cafeteria, and the program in the evening.

Last week Mr. Carroll regulated all the clocks and made a reading table for the third and fourth grades in addition to his other work.

All those who were operated on for tonsillitis have returned to school and they appear to be none the worse for their experience.

The high school has been practicing for Armistice day. Be careful Legion, our lungs as well as our bodies are getting tuned up.

Mrs. Hammel and some of the girls have organized a girls' basketball team. The lineup is as follows:

Mildred Duncan, Frances Blayden, Zoe Hadley, Katherine Brown, Mayme Hango, Ida Melford, Ethel Broyles
School was not held last Tuesday on account of election being held in the school house.
Sophia and Ida Mufford have returned to school after several days illness.

Delbert—I'm going to quit school. It's too lonesome here, now.
Fritz—Better try Doris, kid, she's lonesome, too.
Loren, (reading in English class)—Of Shakespear's later plays, Coriolanus and—(hesitatingly)
Mr. Mulkey—Pericles.
Lauren—Pair of what?
Mildred D—Why do they call a bug "chummy" just because you have to crawl thru the carburetor to get into the auxiliary seat?
Mr. Mulkey—And what did the poor little dog do when you brutal boys tied the tin can to his tail?
Dale A—Oh, he just went broadcastin' down the road.
Mildred—I wonder why fat men are always so good natured?
Mac—Because nobody loves them.
Mr. Warner—How long have you owned this car?
Loren, (arrested for speeding)—One week, your honor.
Mr. Warner—Um, then you can still afford to pay a fine. Twenty dollars.

TRIGON SCHOOL NEWS

Miss Ruby Bebe of Hermiston visiting in Arlington, the guest of her friend, Miss Matheler.

The school board has made several improvements in the gymnasium. Electric lights have been installed and benches placed around the walls. With these improvements the gym is in fine shape for any games or entertainments that may be held here.

Miss Shirley Hendricks of the high school has been confined to her home part of this week due to illness.
A musical concert was held at the Strader home Wednesday evening, November 1st. The program consisted of music by the Filipinos and several piano solos by Ishmael Hendricks.
