The Sunny Southland

WHERE the sun shines most of the time. Out-of-door life all the time.

Thousands of miles of paved highways through picturesque semitropic settings make motoring wonderfully exhilarating.

Most attractive ocean beaches on the Pacific Coast.

Most complete system of hotels, apartment houses, cottages, bungalows and small suites for tourists of any country in the world, and all costs reasonable. Room for everybody.

Representatives of the UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM
will gladly furnish instructive and beautifully illustrated booklets giving complete information about the glorious playground of the West. Let them tell all about hotel rates, railroad fares, through car service, the famous Circle Tour through San Francisco and Salt Lake City, or a part of the way by ocean trip. No journey of equal interest in America.

FARM TOPICS

Germination of corn stored in ordinary sheds will be hurt by sharp freezes, unless it is well dried out. Corn that has been dried until the cobs are hard and the kernels well set will stand very cold weather without injury.—O. A. C. Exp. station.

Land foul with weeds, crop remnants, or bunches of grass and sod proves particularly inviting to insects as a breeding ground. Here the majority of our injurious cutworms, meadow maggots and wireworms occur. Cleaning up the fields will do much to prevent serious infestation of such pests.—O. A. C. Exp. station.

A cold, wet hen needs her food to warm up and dry her feathers rather than for egg production. If the birds are kept only for egg production, better results will be obtained if they are confined, providing proper management is carried out by properly feeding them to them exercise and keep busy. Out one day and confined the next does not make a satisfied, contented hen. Contentment tends toward egg production.—O. A. C. Exp. station.

Ordering queen bees for early delivery is advisable at this time, as the queen supply is limited.—O. A. C. Exp. station.

A. G. Sanford, president of the Central Oregon Beekeepers association, visited the agricultural college in the interests of beekeepers. He was formerly president of the Oregon State Beekeepers' association. He remained on the campus for the Hort. show and the fruit growers' convention meetings.

When the Seals Come, Buy Them

A LITTLE before Christmas, you will be offered some Christmas Seals. Keep them and use them on envelopes and packages. Send a check or money order to cover the small sum they cost.

When you do this, you help in the fight against tuberculosis. You help save human lives. Your help goes where help is most needed—to the house that is clouded with the threat of death. When the seals come, buy them.
