

BOARDMAN UTELLUM

Lyndella Olson Editor-'23
Doris Healey, Assistant Editor-'23
Dorothy Boardman, Joke Editor-'23

From the School Record

The total enrollment in the school reached the 140 mark, there being 71 boys and 69 girls. The per cent of attendance for the last month was 96.1.

The school has just received a free exhibit of J. & P. Coats spool cotton from Pawtucket, R. I. The exhibit which is enclosed in a handsome case with a glass top, shows the various stages in the manufacture of spools, and also of the cotton from its raw state till it appears wound on the spools. This will become the permanent property of the school, and will be of especial interest to the geography classes.

Seniors

Ethel Broyles is absent from the senior class, due to injuries received in an accident last week.

The senior English class is studying written and oral composition. Some very interesting subjects have been written and talked upon this week.

Jokes

Mr. Mulkey (in civics class):—Alton, what does conservative mean? Alton (after deep tho't)—Something like "Hooverizing." I guess.

Mr. Swanson, state boiler inspector was up yesterday to inspect the school boiler. He pronounced it in perfect condition.

As the dynamo for the electric plant arrived yesterday, we have some lights again.

There has been a great deal of inconvenience caused by the snow. Thursday morning about ten o'clock, the west side bus picked up the east side children out on the road about three miles from town.

The Ladies Aid society has decided to postpone the bazaar until Tuesday, Dec. 12, on account of the bad weather.

Julian Durfey has entered the primary room. He is a nephew of Thomas Week.

Each room in the school has been given two cards of Christmas seals, each card containing one hundred stamps, to be sold at a cent each. The stamps are going rapidly for there are many patriots in Boardman.

Katherine Brown sold the stamps for the high school, so you see the Freshies amount to something after all. If the rest of us aren't awful they'll get the best of us yet.

Miss Morcom has received a number of maps for use in ancient history.

7th and 8th Grade News

The Literary society of the 7th and 8th grades held their regular meeting Monday morning. The following officers were elected:

Eldon Wilson President
Thelma Beck Vice-President
Nellie Messenger Sec.-Treas.
Rachel Johnson Editor
Helen Chaffee Librarian
Edna Reinhardt Critic

Seventeen from the 7th and 8th grade room were neither absent nor tardy for the month of November.

Marie Messenger, Helen Chaffee and Thelma Beck have charge of the sale of the Tuberculosis stamps for the room.

The 7th and 8th grade room is gayly decorated with a border of the Christmas flower, poinsettia. Santa Claus will appear next.

Basket Ball Practice

An interesting practice game of basket ball took place in the hall Tuesday evening between the American Legion boys and the high school. The lineup was: Al Macomber and Roy Gilbreth, forwards; N. A. Macomber and Albert Mefford, guards; L. Leo, center.

The high school—Earl Olson and Truman Messenger, forwards; Charles Atteberry and Carl Ayres, guards; Alton Klitz, center.

Arthur Bailey played the last half in place of Carl Ayres and Hal Stewart took Albert Mefford's place for the last half of the game. Alton Klitz, Earl Olson and Truman Messenger starred for the high school.

The Legion's brilliant plays were put over by Roy Gilbreth and L. Leo.

The result was 22 to 12 in favor of the high school.

Jokes

Miss Morcom (in cooking class): What do girls eat to make color in their face? Zoe (not hearing the eat part): Rouge!

Mr. Mulkey: "Who was Nero, Truman?" Truman: "Wasn't he a man that was always cold?"

Mr. Mulkey: "No, that is Zero you are thinking of."

Professor: If the gentleman in the back row will kindly remove his hat I will proceed to point out a concrete example.

Miss Powell: Can any boy tell me what is meant by "divers diseases"? Buster: "Yes, Miss Powell, I know."

Miss Powell: "Well, Buster?" Buster: "Please, teacher, fish bites."

Winter cannot jump to summer without a spring, and summer cannot jump to winter without a fall.

Boardman Paragraphs

Why not have a community Christmas tree at the school house?

Erritt Hummel has been quite ill this week.

Lyle Blayden is spending a few days with home folks.

Mrs. A. T. Erwin is now improving from a few days illness.

J. T. Healey and Ray Brown made a business trip to Pendleton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kutzner entertained the Larsons at dinner Friday evening.

Ernest Brown and family took Thanksgiving dinner at the Glen Brown home.

A big crowd enjoyed a dance at the Tom Miller home in the east end on Saturday night.

The East End school bus was equipped with two new U. S. Royal cord tires this week.

Miss Powell and Miss Morcom have rented the Hereim cottage and will move into it this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hereim and junior were entertained at the Blayden home for dinner Sunday.

A. L. Larson and family spent the week-end at the Hereim home, returning to Butter creek Sunday.

Tom Drew is to build a new house on his farm as soon as weather permits.

Little Janet Gorham fell against the stove Sunday and received a severe burn on her arms.

Adna Chaffee returned the last part of the week from the valley, where he had spent some time.

Mrs. Blanche Hummel and Erritt entertained Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morgan at dinner Saturday evening.

Norman Healey returned to Portland on Sunday after spending Thanksgiving holiday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballenger returned from Waaco last Sunday, where they spent the holidays with home folks.

Miss Myrtle McNeill and brother, Gordon, motored up from Portland and were week-end guests with their uncle, Nick Faler.

A. Miller and M. A. Lee of Dalles, uncle and brother, respectively of Guy Lee, motored to Boardman last week for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gammel of Lexington, Ore., visited the project last Friday, looking over the place with a view of trading.

Thanksgiving eve Messrs. Delbert Carpenter, Al Mefford and Chas. Marshall were the hosts at an informal dance in the school auditorium.

Numerous dinner parties were the chief events of the day on Thanksgiving. The Kutzners and Glen Mitchell enjoyed a turkey dinner at Ray Brown's that day.

Miss Ethel Broyles is wearing a beauty plaster over her eyes as the result of an auto collision while returning from the dance at Heppner Thanksgiving night.

W. O. Kings were hosts at a bountiful dinner on Thanksgiving day, having as guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadley and Mr. and Mrs. Nels Christensen.

A neighborhood dance was given Saturday evening at the Tom Miller farm. A large crowd was present, and enjoyed the music and refreshments, which were served at midnight.

IRRIGON ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Markham drove to Umatilla Monday.

Ralph Bueffel went to Willows last week to work in the road camp.

C. D. Albright of Coyote transacted business in Irrigon Friday.

Attorney Zurcher from Stanfield was in Irrigon Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cork are guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hux this week.

Mrs. Bernice Barker, of Hermiston, spent the weekend with Mrs. Sam Smith.

Miss Blanche Imus and Christine Gray spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Imus near Lexington.

The Cunningham Sheep company in charge of Mr. Falconer, has a bunch of sheep near Beaverts for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland came up from Portland Sunday afternoon for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Saling.

Miss Winifred Steward, who has been on the sick list for a week or ten days, is better now, and has returned to school.

Misses Carrie Skells and Corrigan spent Thanksgiving with their people at Portland and McMinnville, returning Monday morning.

C. F. Grover went to Portland Friday and drove home another Chevrolet. These fires will not stop Mr. Grover from having a car.

Mr. Drolshagen has purchased a new hay baling outfit and is on the job again, ready to work as soon as the weather will permit. Martin and Eaton have also received their parts and are ready to work when the weather clears up. Those having hay to bale are anxious to clean up and be done with it for the season.

A few of our people drove to Ione Thanksgiving night to attend the dance. In the crowd were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stewart, Miss Ethel Broyles, Opal Waggoner and Dale Watkins.

W. H. Stewart has contracted for the new five-room bungalow which W. A. Goodwin is building on the lot south of Mr. Stewart's present home. The Stewarts hope to occupy their new home by January 1.

L. V. Root has installed a hot air furnace in his two story concrete business building. This is the first and only furnace of this kind on the project. Mr. Root has also been grading the ground around his building.

Mrs. Blanche Hummel entertained the high school girls at the "Dew-Drop-In" on Wednesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson and family spent Thanksgiving at Waaco with relatives, returning home Friday evening.

Mrs. Benz, son and daughter, of Seattle, on their way home from Milwaukee and Chicago, stopped off to visit the Glasgows a few days last week.

Miss Gertrude Graybeal entertained a group of the young folks Saturday evening. Various games were played and refreshments served.

Ernest Fagerstrom came up from Arlington on the early train Sunday returning on No. 1. Mr. Fagerstrom is now employed at Arlington as carpenter.

O.-W. R. & N. employes L. O. Ashby, leading signalman, and assistant, George A. Smith, spent Thanksgiving and the week-end at Portland with their people.

It looks like we will be able to chase rabbits again. The snow is over six inches deep at this writing and still coming down. However, there are not many around to be found and we could easily put the finishing touches to them if it happens to snow a foot or more. Let us be ready.

Mrs. W. L. Suddarth entertained with progressive five hundred Saturday evening, December 2nd, the occasion being Mr. Suddarth's birthday. Eight tables took part in the game and a number of guests who were not card players, to the number of 42, enjoyed the evening immensely. C. E. Glasgow carried off the high honors among the men, while Mrs. H. T. Walpole was the winner of the ladies prize. M. F. Wadsworth and Miss Blanche Powell carried off the consolation prizes. Refreshments were served to top off the evening entertainment.

LOST—Between Messner and Irrigon—a small female collie dog. Has white muzzle breast and feet; answers to the name of "Hooch." Finder notify C. F. Karn, Brooks, Oregon, and receive reward.

IRRIGON SCHOOL NEWS

Miss Blanche Imus, who is making her home with Mrs. W. L. Suddarth, and attending school at Irrigon, visited at her home near Lexington during the Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Christine Gray accompanied her.

Mrs. Anna Eggleston, teacher of the seventh and eighth grades, visited in Pasco with her husband during the holidays.

Mrs. Warner's and Miss Skell's rooms gave a short program Wednesday afternoon. Among the parents and friends present were Mrs. C. F. Grover, Mrs. H. Walpole, Mrs. H. Wolfe, Mrs. M. E. Doble, Mrs. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Cork and Mr. and Mrs. G. Hux.

Miss Clara Corrigan spent Thanksgiving at her home in McMinnville and stopped in Portland to shop on her way back.

Miss Winifred Steward is back in school after a week's illness.

Miss Skells, teacher in the grades, left Wednesday for Portland, where she spent the holidays.

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early

Our Christmas goods will be on display after the first of December.

Your inspection invited

We will carry a very complete line of toys. Make your selections early before stock is depleted

BOARDMAN TRADING CO.
Boardman, Oregon

Cement, Wood Coal Builders Hardware

Building Material

W. A. Murchie

Boardman, Oregon.

U.S. Tires & Tubes

SERVICE CAR
ANY TIME ANY WHERE

BOARDMAN GARAGE

M. L. Morgan, Pres.

GAS—OILS—ACCESSORIES

MAY WE SUGGEST

that this year you include a few dozen photographs in your selection. Such decision will solve many gift problems and cement many friendships.

PHOTOGRAPHS Carry a Message of sentiment that can be realized in no other way.

Wheeler Studio

222 E. Alta St., Pendleton, Oregon

Let The Boardman Mirror Print Your Butter Wrappers