

Boardman Paragraphs

Mr. James Carthy was in town Tuesday on business.

School opened again Wednesday with a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballenger were Hermiston visitors Tuesday.

M. L. Morgan was a business visitor in Pendleton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurchell Binns motored to Heppner last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hereim entertained the Leon V. Kutzner family Sunday.

Mrs. Hurchell Binns left New Year's eve for a visit with relatives in Portland.

On New Year's night there was a very enjoyable dancing party at the Mike Marshall home.

The teachers are all back from their vacations ready to take up their work at the school again.

Messrs. Wicklander, Broyles, Albright and Weston motored to Hermiston on business last Friday.

Tuesday was butchering day at the Wm. Mefford home; they butchered two big hogs, a veal and a mutton.

Mrs. N. A. Bleakney and daughter, Awilda Claire, of Echo, are guests of Mrs. Bleakney's mother, Mrs. H. H. Weston.

Mrs. Evan Stoneman and daughter, Bernice, went to Pendleton Thursday of last week to have her eyes tested and glasses fitted.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Stoneman and daughter were guests at the Glen Hadley home during Christmas week. Mrs. Stoneman is a niece of Mr. Hadley.

Guy Lee and M. L. Morgan have been so infested with the radio bug that both installed sets in their homes last week.

Mrs. Howell was hostess at a dinner on New Year's day to Mr. and Mrs. Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and family.

December 25th Nellie Dillon and Katherine Berger gave a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Dillon, whose birthday was that day. A very enjoyable time was had.

Another has fallen victim to the "la Castle" hair cut. This time it is Mrs. Chas. Wicklander, who gives the same alibi as the other victims for following the mode.

W. H. Mefford has finished the roof on his new house and if this nice weather continues a little longer he will soon be moved into it.

A birthday surprise party was held Saturday on Nellie Dillon, it being her birthday. Quite a few of the young people of the neighborhood were present.

On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Myers gave a house warming in the new addition to their home. Dancing was the principal amusement of the evening.

Glen Carpenter returned Wednesday from Montana with his bride, where he was married on December 25, 1922. Mrs. Carpenter was formerly Mrs. Hathaway, of Corvallis.

Miss Beth Blackman, who was a guest of Miss Zoa Hadley during the holidays, left Sunday for her home in Hardman. She was accompanied by Mrs. Evan Stoneman, who is teaching in the Hardman schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Berger left New Year's day via the Ford coupe for a visit of indefinite length in the south. Mr. Berger has leased his farm to his brother and has also disposed of his interest in the Cash Mercantile company.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard had as dinner guests on New Year's the following: Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Broyles and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nizer and Miss Louise Klages.

The Cash Mercantile Co. has moved into the Broyles building where it has more room and better accommodations to serve the public. It has been suggested that the company use the mezzanine floor as a public rest room, furnishing a few comfortable rockers, a Victrola, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Rands entertained on New Year's afternoon at a 3:30 dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham, Miss Dorothy Boardman, Messrs. Wm. Lower, Jess Lower, and M. A. Lee being the guests. After dinner Guy and M. A. Lee played several of the old melodies on the cornet and violin which were very much enjoyed by those present.

On Thursday afternoon the Misses Nellie Dillon and Catherine Berger gave a surprise birthday party to Mrs. Chas. Dillon. Those who enjoyed the afternoon with Mrs. Dillon and partook of the delicious lunch prepared and served by the young hostesses were Messdames W. H. Mefford, Clarence Berger, Ira Berger, H. H. Weston and Cason.

(Left out last week.)
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadley acted the part of host and hostess on Christmas day, having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Evan Stoneman of Hardman, Mr. and Mrs. King and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Kristensen.

The east end truck carried 58 passengers to town Christmas night to enjoy the Christmas tree and program.

The E. K. Mulkey family and the J. Cox family, and Mr. Lytle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cramer Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Christmas day.

A family reunion was held at the W. H. Mefford home Christmas day. About 24 were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Stoneman and daughter were guests at the Glen Hadley home during Christmas week. Mrs. Stoneman is a niece of Mr. Hadley.

State News

Dr. Willibald Weniger, professor of physics, and W. S. Brown, professor of horticulture, represented Oregon Agricultural college at the meeting of the American Association for Advancement of Science, held in Cambridge, Mass.

Frank Cuyworth Flint of Salem has been honored with the chancellor's prize for English essay at Oxford, according to a message received. This prize, it was said, is one of the highest honors in the gift of the educational institution.

One man ended his life and two others failed in their attempts at death in a post-Christmas epidemic of suicide in Portland. E. L. Collins, about 45 years old, shot himself twice through the heart in a lavatory at the Metropolitan club.

According to the weekly lumber review of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, 127 mills reporting to the association for the week ended December 23 manufactured 69,481,941 feet of lumber, sold 82,732,614 feet, and shipped 78,910,647 feet.

Abolition of the voters' pamphlet will be proposed in a bill to be submitted to the state legislature at its coming session, it was decided at a meeting at Oregon City of the legislative committee of the Oregon State Editorial association.

The central Oregon irrigation district has filed application with the state irrigation securities commission for certification of bonds aggregating $180,000. Approximately $120,000 of these bonds will be used to defray the cost of the development work.

Lincoln's birthday is to be celebrated by the republican state central committee of Oregon with a large banquet in Portland, to which republicans from all parts of the state will be invited, according to a statement by Walter L. Toome Jr., republican state chairman.

Purchase by the state board of control of supplies for all state institutions and departments instead of only a part of these supplies, as authorized under the present law, will be recommended to the legislature at its next session by Sam A. Koser, secretary of state.

That the fire which wiped out the business district of Astoria December 8 was of incendiary origin and that clues have been found which will lead to arrests was the information given out at Astoria following an investigation by deputies from the state fire marshal's office.

Carnation King Matador, 3-year-old Holstein-Friesian, sire of the Phymere herd owned by Dr. W. T. Phyl of Hot Lake, died from acute indigestion. He was the only son of the famous Carnation King Sylvia for which the Carnation company paid $106,000, and was valued at $35,000.

IRRIGON ITEMS

Mrs. Blanche Watkins, Dale and Max, spent their vacation at home, returning to Boardman Monday.

Hay is moving out rapidly now. Both baling outfits are moving along at a good rate now and should clean up this month.

John Beavert returned from Portland Monday and reports Mrs. Beavert as doing nicely at the hospital and expects she will be able to return soon.

Miss Clara Corrigan is on the sick list in Portland, and is not expected to return until next week. Prof. Grover is handling the high school single handed this week.

Don't forget the Farm Bureau meeting Saturday evening, January 6th. Election of officers for this year and, we understand, a big dance is to be pulled off after the business meeting.

The Farm Bureau gave their progressive 500 party last Saturday instead of this week. It was an error of the correspondent due to the fact that Wadsworth hall was engaged for other purposes. The party was held in the auditorium of the high school and dancing followed in Wadsworth hall after serving all other purposes. Geneva Glasgow and Bishop Wisdom carried off the prizes.

C. E. Jones of Portland spent a couple of days with his son, Vernon, the first of the week.

Farmer Smith, of the Union Pacific system, spent a couple of days in Irrigon business this week. He expects to farm the old demonstration place this year himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howard and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Howard, also Mr. Wagner and John Parks were guests at Ben Howard's the first of the week.

George E. Hendrick and son, Ishmael, who have been on a week's concert tour in the Baker-Prairie City country, returned Monday morning. They say we could enjoy our weather after their experience with sleet, snow and cold on their trip.

The Farm Bureau car of corn has arrived at last and been distributed among the farmers from Boardman and Umatilla. About eight or ten dollars a ton was saved in the car lot purchase.

IRRIGON SCHOOL NEWS

The boys basketball team is expected to play at Echo Friday of this week.

Miss Blanch Imes spent the vacation at her home near Lexington.

Everyone enjoyed a merry Christmas vacation and are back in school again, ready to start the new year.

Merwin and Reva Ransier, who have been attending school at Umatilla, entered school here.

Friday night, after the Christmas program, two of the teachers, Miss

Corrigan and Miss Skells, left to spend the holidays at their homes in McMinnville and Portland, respectively. Genevieve Glasgow, Snow McCoy and others accompanied them to the train which was four hours late. Batie P. Rand and Charles Powell report a very cold night.

Ray Lamoreaux's school bus has been out of order and the children have been forced to walk.

The Irrigon high school has joined the State High School Athletic association. Lyle D. Seaman has been elected treasurer of the high school.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF PRINCIPAL EVENTS HAPPENING DURING WEEK

Smallpox has made its appearance in Bend.

Residents of Grants Pass have reported ripe strawberries in their gardens.

The Indian school at Chemawa is at last to have a girls' dormitory at a cost of $25,000.

Because of the ravages of the heavy sleet storm of November, 1921, the lumber cut of Hood River dropped off materially the last year.

Because of the increasing demands for tow, the Willamette Flax and Hemp Growers' association will not be able to fill all the orders at hand.

Frank K. Lovell, state tax commissioner, who resigned recently because of ill health, has gone to California, where he will pass the winter.

Governor-elect Pierce will arrive in Salem Friday preparatory to assuming his duties as governor Monday, the opening day of the legislature.

With the total assessed valuation for Linn county $224,978 less for 1922, taxpayers will pay only one-tenth of a mill more this year than last.

The Roosevelt highway is definitely on the map of future construction in Oregon, the bureau of public roads has assured Representative Hawley.

Oregon now has fifty-four drainage projects embracing 275,000 acres, according to W. L. Powers, secretary of the Oregon State Drainage association.

The Woodburn Co-operative Poultry association has been formed at Woodburn with O. L. Davis as president and Mrs. Ella Plank as secretary-treasurer.

Fred S. Morris, Portland financier and ex-member of the firm of Morris Brothers, Inc., died of appendicitis at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

A terrific wind storm struck Tillamook last week, tearing roofs from barns and other farm buildings, and caving in the doors of the Methodist church.

The Salem postoffice established a new record for receipts during the present quarter, according to announcement made by John Farrar, postmaster.

The court records in La Grande, taken during the holiday season, show a distinct increase in births, marriage licenses issued and in arrests for violations of the liquor law.

across Coal bank inlet, between the city of Marshfield and Bunker Hill, to M. W. Payne for $23,796.

Marion county will rank first in the state in percentage payment of taxes this year, according to tax officials. Marion also ranks ahead of all other counties on delinquent taxes collected.

The Pacific Spruce corporation's railroad, operating between South Beach and Waldport, Lincoln county, has been declared a common carrier by the Oregon public service commission.

Sheepmen plan to have a lobby at the legislature to see that the bounty on coyotes is not repealed. Cutting out the coyote bounty has been suggested as one of the ways in which to economize.

William Young Arthur, who was committed to the state penitentiary more than a year ago from Baker county for embezzlement, received a conditional pardon by Acting Governor Ritner.

Independent loganberry growers from all sections of the Willamette valley held a conference in Salem and discussed plans for the production and marketing of their berries during the 1922 season.

J. E. Stearns, city recorder, was appointed as temporary city manager of La Grande to succeed O. A. Kratz, whose resignation has been accepted, until a time when a permanent appointment can be made.

The diphtheria epidemic which has prevailed at Salem for several weeks is now on the wane, according to physicians. There have been approximately 15 cases reported to the health authorities, with two deaths.

The jail that served as a place of incarceration for drunks and other law breakers during the hectic saloon days of Glenada, the city near the mouth of the Stuslaw river, that a few days ago voted to disincorporate, was sold for $17.

Battery A, 14th field artillery, Oregon national guard, the only Oregon unit preserving its identity intact through the major battles of the world war, and the oldest military organization in the state, was signally honored in ceremonies at the armory in Portland when a regimental croix de guerre and six silver battle rings were presented by Adjutant-General White.

Special Price Clean-Up Sale

Small size Rinso 9c, 12 for	$1.00
1776 Soap Powder 13c, 8 for	$1.00
Ivory Soap Flakes 9c, 12 for	$1.00
Diamond W Baking Powder, per oz.	1c
Del Monte Pork and Beans	9c
Curtain Rods, each	5c
Reg. $1 Knife Sharpeners	49c
Heavily Tinplated Stew Pans	49c
14-inch Platters	18c
15-inch Platters	23c
18-inch Platters	29c

WE GIVE 5 per cent Discount for Cash on all other goods

BOARDMAN TRADING CO.
Boardman, Oregon

Cement Wood Coal Builders Hardware Building Material

W. A. MURCHIE
Boardman, Oregon.

BIG SUBSCRIPTION OFFER

You Get ALL FOUR of These
MAGAZINES and OUR NEWSPAPER
For One Year Each FOR $2.55 Order Now

THIS EXCEPTIONAL OFFER IS GOOD FOR A SHORT TIME ONLY
Subscriptions may be new or renewal. All renewal subscriptions will be extended for one year from present date of expiration.

U.S. Tires & Tubes

SERVICE CAR
ANY TIME
ANY WHERE

BOARDMAN GARAGE

M. L. Morgan, Pres.

GAS—OILS—ACCESSORIES