The Trustees of the church met Sunday and made out a report to submit to Presbytery at Moro.

Last Sunday was communion service at the Community church. Rev. Gibson preached as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson of Portland, friends of Mr. Berger, are now living on the C. D. Albright place.

The Welch family is moving to Albany, Oregon. They traded their ranch here for one over there.

Mrs. Wollam and little daughter Naoma Laurine are visiting at the C. M. Beck's, Mrs. Wollam's parents.

The picnic at Ione last Sunday was a great success and enjoyed by all. We hope it will not be the last one.

Mr. Shell moved his house Wednesday from the Berger place to the lot in town he purchased from Leo Root.

Sunday, April 29, is Community Church day. Everyone come and bring dinner, for we want a good attendance.

Mr. Hopkins has moved his family into the rooms in front of the Phelps Voyer warehouse. He has accepted a place as foreman in the state highway work.

A. J. Hicks and family left Wednesday for Lost Valley, Oregon, where Mr. Hicks has work in the timber.

Orville Carpenter arrived here Sunday from Cedar Point, Kansas, for a visit with his brother Delbert Carpenter.

M. J. Dewesse and family spent Saturday and Sunday in Arlington visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dewesse.

H. N. Hopkins moved his family to town Sunday and left Monday for Prineville, where he will work on the highway this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Burnham, and Mrs. A. L. Huff of Arlington were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey last Sunday.

The Grange served a lovely supper for their new members Saturday night. A good program was also one of the features of the evening (and the lights went out).

A request has been received by Ida Mefford, historian of the local American Legion Auxiliary, from the State historian asking for the history of the organization of the Legion and Auxiliary, also a general history of each Legion member's joining the army. This report has to be in by July 1, so will each one help her get it in on time.

J. R. Johnson and family attended the celebration of the 55th wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, of Wasco, Monday. The family returned home Tuesday, but Mr. Johnson went to Moro to attend the meeting of the Pendleton Presbytery. Rev. Gibson is also attending. They represent the Community Church at this meeting.

IRRIGON NEWS

Mrs. W. T. Eggertson spent the week end at Pasco, Washington with her husband.

George E. Hendricks and son have rented the McGill and Pat places and are on the job for the season.

Miss Inez Benefiel has returned from Walla Walla where she spent several days visiting with friends.

Prof. C. F. Grover and family, accompanied by Miss Clara Corrigan were in Pendleton Saturday shopping.

Mrs. J. E. White has gone to the hospital at Pendleton for medical attention. Mrs. C. B. Smith is taking care of the baby during her illness.

Mrs. T. H. Skells of Portland spent a week with her daughter, Miss Carrie, who is teaching in the Irrigon school. She returned to Portland Tuesday.

April 18th and 19th Miss Margarie Smith of the O. A. C. will be with us to demonstrate and lecture on nutrition. See Mr. Glasgow and Mr. Fredrickson for particulars.

Coming—Saturday, April 21st "All A Mistake," a big farce comedy in three acts, by the high school students assisted by the Young People's Orchestra. It will be the one you cannot miss this season.

Among the number of Irrigon people making the weekend trip to Umatilla and Hermiston, were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Walpole and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Graybeal, Bette Rand, James Warner and son Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Howard and P. C. Bishop.

Messrs Marshall Markham, Wesley Chaney and Beecher Lewis are making Irrigon their headquarters regularly on Saturday and Sunday regardless of the distance from their work. The distance is never too great if the object is big enough.

Our new county agent, Mr. Price, and Professor Scullion of the O. A. C.

When a little boy discovered a cucumber growing out in the garden it was something new to him so he rushed into the house and exclaimed: "Mamma, mamma, there's a pickle growing on our squash vine."

lectured on and demonstrated the handling of bees at the Glasgow ranch Tuesday, April 19. A number of the bee culturists took advantage of the occasion to get information on best methods of handling bees.

Mrs. J. E. Berry has been very low at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCoy, for a week or ten days but is reported doing nicely at this writing. Miss Snow McCoy is also on the sick list with the 'flu'.

N. Seaman and son report frost alarm at four o'clock on the morning of the ninth, and turned out in force with amudges. They report having saved their apricot crop and also cherries and pears. Some others who failed to amudge report some damage. We believe it will not be heavy however.

The farm bureau held its regular monthly meeting Saturday evening, April 7th. Not a large turnout but much business was transacted. A car of corn was listed and secretary instructed to place the order by wire for immediate shipment. The price has gone up two dollars a ton since the quotation a week ago and will now figure $36.50 F. O. B. Irrigon on No. 2 Yellow.

Various improvements to the park were also decided upon and R. L. Wisdom appointed as manager for the season. A tax of fifty cents will be levied upon all tourists remaining over night. Water will be piped to the grounds and fuel furnished. Friday afternoon, April 13, was designated as cleanup day for the park grounds and the trees and hedge will be pruned.

Farmer Smith is shipping in three bushels of cotton seed to experiment in this district. It is now on the way by freight from the east and should arrive some time the latter part of the month. S. H. Boardman, at Boardman, is going to make an experiment with forty pounds of this seed and the balance will be distributed among other farmers who desire to experiment with raising cotton.

To a Spit Curl

(With apologies to Rob. Burns)
Dear, shiny, slick and sticky curl,
You are decked upon a pretty girlie;
Yet you make my brain go in a whirlie
With all your curves;
You blur my eyes, and, oh, most surely
You shock my nerves.
But with the girls you have made a hit,
And on that snowy brow you sit,
Safe and secure, stuck on with spit
(For glue it serves),
But you would stick and better fit
If they'd use preservatives.

Allen Clark was a brief caller at the school Tuesday. Mr. Clark is an old friend of Mr. Mulkey and is now a salesman for Weatherby Ice Cream company of Portland.

Arbor Day, Friday, the 13th, was observed by each school room with appropriate exercises and some tree planting was done. It is the intention to participate in the planting of trees in the newly designated Project Park as soon as arrangements can be made. This is an enterprise well worth while, as trees are one of nature's chief adornments.

Only twenty more school days, golden days, which in future time the student shall speak of as the "golden days, the golden days, of long ago."
Let us not forget that youth is the time to build. School days come but once and it behooves each one to see that no time is lost. Look forward to your goal.

Malin and Cecil Hicks, two boys from the primary room, have moved to Condon with their parents. This leaves a total of 31 in the primary room.

Lauren Cumins has returned to school and is making preparations with the rest of the class for graduation.

The civics class has been very busy this week writing on various subjects, among them are: Immigration, Government and Labor, The Regulation of Corporations and The Conservation of Natural Resources.

CAR PROBE ORDERED

Roads Failure to Move Apples to Be Investigated.

Washington, D. C.—An order was issued by the interstate commerce commission for an investigation of the extent to which railroads serving the Pacific northwest failed during the last crop season to supply adequate facilities for the transportation to market of apples and other perishable products.

The order was prompted by a resolution adopted by the senate January 20. John P. Hartman of Seattle, who has orchard interests in Washington east of the Cascades, made the complaint that the railroads failed to supply sufficient refrigerator cars to move the apple crop. This complaint resulted in the resolution.

Naturalization Head Indicted 5 Times.
San Francisco.—Five indictments were returned against A. Frederick N. Littleton, naturalization examiner, by the federal grand jury. Three of the indictments charge violation of the naturalization laws and two of bribery with ten separate counts.

Helicopter Attains 20-Foot Altitude.
Dayton, O.—New helicopter records were made at McCook field, when Thurman H. Baue, ex-commandant at McCook field, rose vertically more than 20 feet in several tests of the De Botheast helicopter.

Kelso Bridge Suits Filed.
Kelso, Wash.—Suits aggregating $219,000 were filed against Cowlitz county and the city of Kelso on behalf of nine claimants for damages or account of the Kelso bridge collapse.

Jokes

Ethel (in English class)—I don't like to study Bunyon.
Nona—I don't neither, because I have one on my foot.

Kathryn—Mac, where have you been all the time? I haven't seen you for a long time.
Mac—You've seen more of me than I have of you.
Kathryn—Why so?
Mac—Because I'm bigger than you.

Stranger—Do you go out a great deal?
Mr. Mulkey—We pay such high rent we have to stay in to get the worth of our money.

Lauren—If I stole fifty kisses from you, what kind of larceny would it be?
Zoe—I should call it grand.

After the clock had struck 11, the peevish father strode to the top of the stairs and called down:
"Mayme, doesn't that young man, Mac, know how to say 'Goodnight'?"
"Does he?" echoed Mayme. "I'll say he does."

Al—This bus is making 30 miles an hour.
Idea—Now don't try to fool me, kid. We've only been gone 15 minutes.

Doris—Delbert proposed to me last night.
Chat—Did you accept him?
Doris—Of course I did. Any man who would propose now with the cost of living where it is must love a girl a lot.

Edward—So you and Mayme don't speak. What's the trouble?
Mac—We had a dreadful quarrel about which loved the other most.

Mrs. Crowder—Doesn't a rabbit's foot really bring good luck?
Mr. Lee—I should say so. My wife felt one in my money pocket once and that it was a mouse.

Dorothy—What makes you, like Della so well?
Art—Bobbed hair, flapper manners and too much make-up.
Dorothy—Why, I'm surprised! That certainly describes most of the girls, but certainly not Della.
Art—I know it. That's why I like her so well.
