

The Boardman Mirror
Boardman, Oregon

MARK A. CLEVELAND, Publisher

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

Entered as second-class matter Feb. 11, 1921, at the postoffice at Boardman, Ore., under act of Mar. 3, 1879

Printing is the inseparable companion of achievement.—R. T. Porter

La Pine is to have another sawmill. Thirty-six students will receive diplomas from the Cottage Grove high school this year.

Because of the recent favorable weather, Blossom day at Salem probably will be held May 5.

Albany will be the scene of the annual encampment of the Spanish War Veterans on July 12, 13 and 14.

Roseburg's campgrounds have been officially opened and are being used by a large number of tourists daily.

N. D. Body, now serving his third term as mayor of Cornucopia, has a record of 26 years as postmaster of that town.

A total of 125,000 automobile licenses for the year 1923 had been issued by the secretary of state Saturday night.

Ira B. Storges, father-in-law of Representative-elect Elton Watkins and early resident of Oregon, died at his home in Baker.

The Hood River Chamber of Commerce is arranging for an annual blossom festival dinner during the season of apple blooms.

Reedsport is assured of a new $20,000 high school building, the bond election having come out almost unanimously in favor of it.

Fire losses in Oregon during March, outside of Portland, aggregated $119,045, according to report of Will H. Moore, state fire marshal.

The Salem Water company, in a report filed with the Oregon public service commission, showed net profits for 1922 of $38,681.72.

Forest Protection week will be observed by Portland and Oregon April 23 to April 28, according to proclamation made by Governor Pierce.

Bend's population is now estimated as 7435, based on the number of residences furnished with water by the Bend Water, Light & Power Co.

The last car of broccoli has been shipped from Salem for this season. A total of four carloads of the product were shipped from this vicinity.

The Booth-Kelly Lumber company has taken an option on the timber holdings of the Auld brothers on the Mohawk river, northeast of Eugene.

Morrow county sheep men have formed a wool pool, representing about 174,000 pounds of wool, and are asking for bids at 45 cents a pound minimum.

Multnomah county has received from the state treasurer the sum of $283,275.29, representing the first payment from motor vehicle license collections.

L. E. Bean, recently resigned as a member of the state game commission, has been named to succeed Richard S. Smith as state land attorney for Lane county.

Nearly all the mills of Klamath county are now operating, some with both day and night shifts, and lumber production is said to be normal for this season.

The wool clip of about 100,000 pounds of Ben Daly and associates was sold at Lakeview for 44 cents to the Pacific Coast Wool Products company of San Francisco.

Three of the largest lumber mills on Coos Bay have just announced an increase in wages to a minimum of $4 a day, the last announced minimum having been $3.60.

Fire at Portland partly destroyed the four-story wholesale furniture distributing house of the Heywood Brothers & Wakefield company. Damage is estimated at $300,000.

Organization of the Bend Woolen Mills company was effected at Bend. The organization will start its activities as a knitting factory and hopes to add a scouring mill later.

At a meeting of loganberry growers at Salem it was decided that 5 cents a pound will be the minimum price for which the loganberry grower's association will sanction any sales.

Judge W. R. Bilyeu, 76, one of Linn county's most prominent residents, died at an Albany hospital. Judge Bilyeu came to Oregon with his parents in 1862 and to Linn county in 1868.

The Salem chamber of commerce has appointed a committee to investigate the feasibility of a railroad line up the Santiam river to tap and develop the resources of that part of the state.

Hubbard berry growers are to have a cannery of their own. Seventy-five thousand dollars has been raised for the building and purchase of the site, and the cannery will be in operation this season.

The Southern Pacific company will exert every effort to prevent a serious car shortage in the northwest this year, according to a letter received at the offices of the Oregon public service commission.

Odd Fellows from all sections of Oregon and southern Washington are expected to attend the ceremonies incident to the laying of the cornerstone of the new Odd Fellows' temple in Portland, April 26.

Oregon's population on July 1, 1923, will be $23,276, according to a bulletin issued by the census bureau. This is an increase of 39,831 since 1920. Portland's population on July 1 will be 273,621, an increase of 15,333.

Deterioration of Bend's hard surface pavements has become so rapid since they were laid in 1921 that the cost of repair or correction would run from $30,000 to $50,000. Robert B. Gould, city engineer, told the city council.

A tax levy of one-half mill for the purpose of creating a fund with which to erect a new courthouse will be recommended to the Douglas county court by a committee representing all of the leading organizations of the county.

Because of the failure of California and Washington to enact similar legislation, a law approved by the Oregon legislature at its last session, providing the eight-hour day in the lumber industry, will not become effective.

President Harding, according to latest plans, may make his Fourth of July address at some point on the Old Oregon Trail near the summit of the Blue mountains in eastern Oregon, instead of at Portland, as tentatively arranged.

A letter from the Kiwanis international headquarters at Chicago is to the effect that the Salem Kiwanis club stands second in the attendance contest in which more than 1600 clubs are participating. The report gave Salem 37.51 per cent.

A verdict of not guilty was returned at Klamath Falls in the second trial of J. W. Siemens, J. W. Siemens Jr., and Marshall Hooper. The Siemens were indicted on nine charges in connection with the failure last year of the First State & Savings bank.

Orders to "demilitarize" the old battleship Oregon have been received at the Puget sound navy yard at Bremerton, Wash. Guns of the famous old ship will be spiked and the Oregon towed to Portland to be turned over to the state of Oregon for preservation as a relic.

Authority has been granted the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company to purchase the Willamette Telephone company, it was announced by the interstate commerce commission. The Willamette company owns and operates exchanges at Independence, Monmouth, Dallas and Falls City.

Civil service examinations have been announced for May 12 to select postmasters for the following Oregon cities and towns: Athena, Aurora, Banks, Beaverton, Brownsville, Canyon City, Fossil, Gervais, John Day, Madras, Mount Angel, Newport, Stanfield, Toledo, Warrenton and Yamhill.

Protest against the removal of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kuser as superintendent and matron of the boys' training school at Salem was voiced by a delegation from Portland, representing the Rotary club, Parent-Teacher association, the Social Workers association and other organizations, which appeared before the state board of control.

The Oregon public service commission has filed an answer with the in-

HOOTS! WHO-O!

Fore!
Mary's fliwer had a horn.
But the steam train had no bell
The steam train couldn't stop in time
So the fliwer went too, too.

Dyna Mite says a blank book and a baby's mind is somehow mighty kin—both of 'em's virgin soil for the recordin' of big thoughts or glorious deeds. Ain't it a shame how many just get scribbled on?

Sing a Song of Rent Bills
The rose is red, the violet's blue, and so is the man when his rent falls due.

Prosperity does not depend half as much on politics as on hustle.

It is foolish to acquire a principal at the sacrifice of principle.

Candidates being initiated into the league of nations do not have to ride the goat. At present the league has no goat, efforts to get ours having proved futile.

Blessed be those who are not rich enough to be unhappily married.

The report that Ford and Hearst may start a new party suggests that what's needed is not parties but getting the old ones to live up to their promises.

When a young girl marries an old man who doesn't have any money we can rightly judge that it is a love match.

It is all right for a man to be cool in the face of danger, provided all the coolies is in his feet.

And there are more sufferings from brain lag than brain fog.

An Indianapolis, Indiana, man became so despondent because his wife lavished her affection on cats that he went to the dogs.

Down our way they tell of a man who was so hard that he could ride a porcupine through a bed of cactus and never get a scratch.

"You're stuffing me," said the mattress to the factory hand.

If only some motorists wouldn't try to see how many miles they can make on a quart.

Insults are always plentiful when one goes around looking for them.

The difference between the average player piano and the average piano player is that the former can be stopped.

The intelligent compositor that made it read bill weevil wasn't far wrong.

Pencil Stub to Office Sponge—Well, they say the stuff's hard to get nowadays but I notice that old Fountain Pen seems to keep pretty well filled up.

terstate commerce commission to the application of the Central Pacific for authority to build the Natron cutoff, in which it called attention to its previous demands that common-user privileges be allowed other roads and that the cutoff be completed and in readiness for traffic by January 1, 1926.

BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—A NEW AND GROWING TOWN

—BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—

WHY BOARDMAN?

Because

THE CLIMATE IS GOOD

THE PEOPLE ARE SOCIAL INTELLIGENT ENTERPRISING

TOWN IS NEW AND GROWING

LOCATION WELL CHOSEN
HALF WAY BETWEEN THE DALLES
AND PENDLETON ON O.W. RAIL-ROAD ON COLUMBIA RIVER

SOIL WILL RAISE ANYTHING

WATER FOR IRRIGATION FROM WEST EXTENSION OF UMATILLA PROJECT

McKAY CREEK DAM
WILL BE BUILT
ASSURING MORE ACREAGE
UNDER WATER

Boardman is a New Town But Not a
Boom Town

WRITE SECRETARY OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

—BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—

Bargain Offer

For 30 Days Only

Subscriptions to
The Boardman Mirror
$1 for full year

New or Renewal

Pay up your own subscription and send The Mirror to your friends while this offer lasts.

BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—WELL LOCATED

WELL LOCATED—BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—

BOARDMAN—MORROW COUNTY, OREGON—A NEW AND GROWING TOWN