

BOARDMAN UTELLUM

Frances Blayden, '23 Editor
Truman Messenger, '24 Asst. Editor
Zoe Hadley, '24 Joke Editor

Baccalaureate services were held in the church last Sunday night and a large crowd was present. The Reverend Gibson delivered the sermon.

Friday, May 11, will be Commencement exercises at the school house. Every one is cordially asked to attend.

WANTED—Faculty nuzzles for seniors, ahem!

LOST—Prof. Mulkey's ten minute speech; 4 exemptions, and a 45 minute gong.

FOUND—A 90 minute gong, a lot of hard looks and a few hard knocks.

WANTED—Time to breathe.

LAST STUDENT BODY MEETING!

A student body meeting was held Wednesday to elect officers for the next term of school. Joe Hadley was elected president of the student body—Alton Klitz, vice-president; Wahnona Rands, secretary; Ida Mefford, treasurer; Mac Watkins, Sergeant at arms; Truman Messenger, editor; Mayme Hango, assistant editor and Earl Olson, athletic manager.

WANTED—Some dynamite, for pep. Signed, Seniors.

Mrs. Johnson, the county health nurse, was here Thursday and Friday.

PICNICS

The 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th grades went to Coyote on a picnic Wednesday. Parents were invited and they all went in cars.

The 5th and 6th had their picnic on the same day and they went to the "Green House." Will have particulars later.

Examinations were completed this week thruout the grades and also the high school.

JOKES

Mrs. Jinks was visiting some friends and left the following note for her nearest neighbor: "Dear Mrs. Garrison, would you please put out a little food for the cat I have been feeding this winter? It will eat almost anything, but do not put yourself out."

Al Falfa of Wayback, Pa., where they only have a movie once a month, was visiting his cousin in Philadelphia. His cousin anxious to show his hospitality, inquired, "What shall we do to amuse ourselves? Would you like to go to the theatre?"

Al was keen at this idea and exclaimed, "You bet. Is there a show in town tonight?"

Mrs. Mulkey—I'm getting lee from a new man now, dear.

Mr. Mulkey—What's the matter with the other man?

Mrs. Mulkey—The new man says he will give us colder lee for the same money.

Delbert—Did you have any trouble in learning to play the saxophone? James—Yes, I got a load of birch, shot in me and I lost two teeth. But it was easy after I took to practicing in the woods.

Earl—So that's your new overcoat, eh? Isn't it rather new?

Edward—It's all right when I put on a muffler.

Chat—Let's take Dorothy for a chaperon.

Lauren—Yes, but she isn't a Mrs. Chat—Well, I can easily change her name.

Dorothy—I guess I will have something to say about that.

1st Student—Why is Zoe always in a hurry?

2nd Student—Because she always keeps a "Cummin'."

BOARDMAN PARAGRAPHS

Mr. and Mrs. Root spent Sunday at the Garrett ranch.

W. H. Mefford purchased twelve head of sheep from E. T. Messenger.

Arthur Mefford and E. Wilbur arrived Saturday for a few days at the Mefford home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Garrett and Mr. Root motored to Hermiston Monday.

Mrs. Klitz reports having the first ripe strawberries of the season, May 4. Mr. Shell and Mr. Howell following close behind.

Wednesday evening the Legion and Auxiliary gave a farewell party at N. A. Macomber's in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hiatt of Yakima, Washington, are guests at the Royal Rand home. Mr. Hiatt is a brother of Mrs. Rand.

Deputy Sheriff J. F. Gorham made a trip to Heppner Monday evening, taking two Indians whom he arrested at Six Mile highway camp. The Indians, who ran away from a school near Salem, had been working at the camp for three weeks before they were located.

The farewell party given at the church, Monday evening in honor of the teachers was a great success. Over one hundred enjoyed the evening's entertainment. Many original verses of regret at their leaving and well wishes for our teachers were read. The closing number being a parody "Farewell Teachers" sung to the tune of "Goodnight Ladies." Ice cream and cake were served.

C. O. Beck took possession Wednesday of the restaurant which he recently bought from J. T. Webster. Mrs. Webster and children left for a visit with relatives in Canada while Mr. Webster will remain until he can dispose of the barber shop.

A pleasant afternoon was spent Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Goodwin, when Mrs. Goodwin and Mrs. Ballenger entertained in honor of Mrs. Ralph Davis. Delicious refreshments of orange ice and cake were served.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Van Winkle's sisters from Jordan, Oregon, spent a couple of days with her last week.

Mr. Adkins, of Heppner was over to visit his brother C. E. Adkins the first of the week, returning Monday.

Mrs. Mary E. Lester came up from Portland last week and is visiting at McCoy's this week. She hopes to find some good location to start a small store in the near future and

Mr. W. T. Wright has placed an order with the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company for material necessary to build a fine house and barn just as soon as the material can be delivered.

Prof. Kellogg, from the Lexington school was an Irrigon visitor Sunday. He was out on a tour about the north end of the county to shoot a few Jack rabbits and change the monotony of the week in the school room.

Mrs. Lula Johnson, county nurse, spent a day in Irrigon this week going over her usual inspection of the children at school and visiting the parents of the project. She came in her car this time and managed to make the rounds more conveniently.

The reclamation service is putting in several pipe lines this spring. Five car loads of concrete pipe have just arrived from Kennewick and been hauled to the grounds. A line is being placed to Jack Bullard's place and number sixteen is being extended several hundred feet.

In last issue we reported the Ladies Society held their annual meeting at Mrs. Glasgow's but this was an error. The Ladies had an open air meeting and picnic in the L. A. Dobles orchard. The Ladies should give account of themselves in the future to the correspondent and avoid these errors.

A fire of mysterious origin destroyed the house of J. L. Bullard about one o'clock in the afternoon Wednesday. Jack had just had his dinner and stepped out for a few minutes and discovered smoke coming out of the house and rushed to the door, flinging the kitchen all ablaze inside. He made for the other door and managed to pull out his trunk and suit case but could not get inside at all. He was unable to account for the cause of the fire. Mr. Bullard is making his home in the Mike Donnelly house now.

The first strawberries did not come on by the first as was expected but N. Seaman and Son made their first picking on the third and the crop is on its height at this writing. If we only had a big acreage instead of a few garden patches, there would surely be some money in them this year. Others report berries ripe the first week in May. Where are you Hood Riverians and Kennewickians? Can you beat that? The first Oregonian cherries moved out of Irrigon last year to Page and Son, Portland, on June 11th and it being about two weeks earlier this year, we will probably hold over our championship title this year.

350 SENIORS FINISH AT U. OF O.

Approximately 350 seniors will be graduated from the University of Oregon on Commencement Day, June 25th, a marked increase over the number in former graduating classes, according to Carlton Spencer, registrar, 256. The total numbers in other years were: 1921, 226; 1920, 200; 1919, 144; 1918, 164; 1917, 137; 1916, 123; and 1915, 107.

Dr. Henry B. Ward, professor of zoology at the University of Illinois and national president of Sigma Xi, honorary science society, will be the Commencement speaker at the university. Dr. Edward Ellery, dean of the faculty of Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., and national secretary of Sigma Xi, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon, June 24. His topic will be, "The spiritual evolution of man."

Dr. Ward is a graduate of Williams College and Harvard and dean of the school of medicine of the University of Nebraska before he joined the Illinois faculty. He was formerly president of the Association of American Medical Colleges, and was written widely on scientific subjects.

Both of the visitors will install the Oregon Chapter of Sigma Xi while at the university. The installation ceremony will take place in the Woman's Building on the afternoon of June 22. The Sigma Xi banquet will be held in the evening.

Hotel Dorion, Pendleton, is still the house of welcome.
