OREGON SENATORS TO VISIT BOARDMAN SOON

Boardman is to have a visit in the near future from Senators Stanfield and McNary, who are coming to inspect the project and to find the real wants and needs, and where the government money should be expended.
The visit of the two distinguished gentlemen is under the auspices of the Commercial club, and it is planned that both men will make short addresses at the auditorium. The ladies of the project will be asked to serve a luncheon and everyone is urged to be present. Definite date later.

Earl Cramer and Jay Cox motored to Holdman last Friday on business.

The Jay Cox family were guests at the home of Earl Cramer last Sunday.

Aid meets next Wednesday at the church. Everyone is asked to be present.

Lee Mead has to arise earlier in the morning now since entering the dairy business.

Adolf and Ingvard Skoubo bought several pieces of furniture from Mrs.
Signs last week.

Mrs. Blanch Watkins and Hon
Mac of Irrigon, were guests of Mrs.
Earl Cramer Wednesday.

Wm. Lower writes from Bolivar, Mo., that in all his trip from Boardman to Bolivar he saw no crops that looked as good as at Boardman.

Mrs. Signs and Caryl returned to Portland Sunday night. It is so much better driving after night than through the day, on account of the traffic.

In the way of improvement the railroad put gravel all along the back side of the depot so that the trucks and autos can easily approach the platform to receive and leave freight.

The state highway commission has completed the installation of a rock crusher at Castle Rock and will proceed to put crushed rock on the highway. W. H. Stewart is the engineer in charge.

Margaret Smith was seven years old Tuesday so she was hostess at a party for a few of the smaller folk, who enjoyed the affair immensely.
The guests were Mildred Allen, Edward Skoubo, and A. T. Hereim, Jr.
Mrs. Faler, Mrs. Spring, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Hereim were also present and enjoyed the party as much as the little folk.

A "get-acquainted" day was held at the church Sunday and a beautiful dinner enjoyed by all present.
This was given in place of the usual reception for the pastor, and all had a better opportunity to become acquainted with Rev. Hughes, wife and daughter than at a former reception.
A short program was given after the dinner under the direction of Mrs.
Messenger.

Mrs. Jack Gorham was hostess to a delightful afternoon party on Wednesday, honoring her sister, Mrs.
Anderson, of New Plymouth, Idaho, and her cousin, Mrs. Cooper, of San Diego, Calif. The afternoon passed all too quickly in visiting and consuming ice cream and wafers, with musical numbers interspersed. Guests Frank Cramer, Gobbons, Klagts, Rands, Hereim, Harry Warren, Clay Warren, Ballenger, Goodwin, Miss Mildred Warren and the honor guests.

Tiling to be satisfactory in heavy weather must handle half an inch an acre of rainfall every 24 hours.
In unusual storm periods the O.A.C. experiment station field tiles have run off as much as an inch an acre in one day.

SAID BY THE WISE BIRD

It is safe, to judge a man's ability and achievements by the haughty angle he wears his cigar.

"I guess I'm going to be an undertaker after all," said the hobo, snatching a pair of B. V. D's from the line.

If Uncle Sam's job holders were placed end to end it wouldn't serve, any purpose except that of making ends meet.

They are telling Russian children that there is no Santa Claus, but many will ask, "Well what is the United States then."

Every husband should tell his wife about his past sins, so she will have something to talk about when she has a headache.

It took Milton fifteen days to write one page of a book. "Nothing, I saw in the paper the other day where a fellow in the pen spent twenty years on one sentence.

I own several choice irrigated tracts in Boardman district. Will
