THIRD YEAR Edited by the High School Students NUMBER 1
 EDITOR, Truman Messenger, '24
 ASSISTANT EDITOR, Mayme Hango, '25

The Boardman school opened last Monday with a total registration of 106. Of these, 84 are in the grades. The high school showed an enrollment of 22, an increase of two over last year.

Following is the enrollment by grades:
 First grade, 12.
 Second grade, 14.
 Third grade, 13.
 Fourth grade, 11.
 Fifth grade, 10.
 Sixth grade, 5.
 Seventh grade, 7.
 Eighth grade, 12.
 Ninth grade, 13.
 Tenth grade, 3.
 Eleventh grade, 4.
 Twelfth grade, 2.
 Total, 166.

Clara Marcus, a former student at Monument, Ore., has enrolled in our high school as a sophomore.

Who says our school has lost some of its pep? There has been talk of a school orchestra, so all you parents wishing to get instruments for your children please do so in order that we might make this talk not a passing dream, but a reality.

Freshies! Freshies!
 Lots of little freshies!
 Plenty to initiate.
 Say, won't there be lots of little green caps bobbing around, but just between you and me, I'm feeling sorry for the upper classmen. How about you?

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander entertained the teachers last Sunday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in eating luscious watermelons, cantaloupes and peaches. A musical program was rendered by the children, Mrs. Wicklander and Miss Wolf.

Frank Cramer has again come to the rescue of the Boardman teachers by erecting a one-room cottage for J. H. Griggs, who will take up his abode there next week.

The largest class ever to enter the Boardman high school is the present freshman class, consisting of thirteen members. They claim they have three more recruits to arrive—thus obliterating the unlucky hoodoo number, and enabling them to overwhelm any body of upper classmen that may be sent against them. Watch the freshmen!

J. C. Ballenger has supplied the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades with blotters; also a few large sized ones suitable for teachers' desks. Thanks for these deeds of kindness. Buster Rands was a new arrival in the seventh grade room Tuesday.

JOKES

Mrs. Crowder: "Have you taken any of Scott's works?"
 Art Chaffee: "Yes, Scott's Emulsion."

Mr. Mulkey (speaking to the first graders): "All you children who are starting to school today for the first time, please stand." Norman Bailey (freshman) stood up with the rest of the primarians. Oh, well, what else can you expect of a green freshie.

First day in the primary room.
 Teacher (to Basil Cramer): "What is your name, little boy?"
 Basil (to his mother who was sitting by): "Mamma, what is my name?"

This was but one of the amusing incidents of the first day, showing how eager and excited the little folks were.

IRRIGON NEWS

Irrigon is establishing herself on the map this season. The latest news on Irrigon products on the Portland market is that our Pride of Irrigon cantaloupes are topping the market and considered most wonderful. Anderson Brokerage Co. says they have never seen anything like them, and that the better class of trade demands our products and is willing to pay the higher prices. These reports are coming in from all sources, but when a reliable brokerage concern reports this unsolicited, and newspaper correspondents write that the products are far superior, we are beginning to think there is a big future for Irrigon. In fact, already it is assured that the association has made a big success this year and much greater acreage is now being lined up for next season. Last week we announced that no more carloads would be rolled, but the demand was so great that more iced cars have been loaded this week—one for Portland and another to Bend.

Fred Warfield and family of California and Billie Britton of Nova Scotia, cousins of the Grim brothers, and Miss Francis Weaver of Hubbard, Ore., spent a couple of days with the Grims this week, eating cantaloupes and watermelons. Billie Britton is going to spend the winter out west.

Frank Rider announces the marriage of his son, Bruce, and Miss Grace Ross of Grangeville, Idaho, August 25th. They are going to make their home at Powers, Ore., where Bruce has a position.

County Agent Morse and Prof. Scullen were Irrigon visitors Wednesday and Thursday.

Local News

H. E. Warren is in Portland this week.

L. V. Kutzner is doing carpenter work at Arlington now.

A. T. Hereim is working on the highway near Arlington.

Miss Wahnona Keyes returned on Saturday from Milton where she has been visiting.

The Murchies from Wasco were overnight visitors at the Ballenger home last week.

The Albright and Nate Macomber families enjoyed a picnic diner at near Castle Rock Sunday.

Mrs. John Jenkins left Friday morning for Seattle where she was called by the serious illness of her mother.

Melvin Logan and family and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kestensen of Cecil were guests at the Zenneth Logan home last week.

Mrs. Evan Stoneman and daughter who have been visiting relatives the past week left Monday for their home in Hardman.

E. E. Williams and wife of Portland motored up Saturday afternoon for a short visit with the Hereims returning Sunday morning.

Eden Larsen went to upper Butter creek last week for a few days visit with his friend, Walter Wigglesworth. The latter returned with him and visited a few days at the Larsen home.

Mrs. Lily Crowder came Sunday from Hermiston to begin her year's work as one of the teachers in the high school. She is making her home with the Ballengers again during the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wigglesworth and family of Butter creek visited Monday at the A. L. Larsen home on their way to the Willamette valley, where they will make their future home, having sold their interests on Butter creek.

Mrs. McDaniels returned from Hardman last week, where she has been for several weeks. Her daughter, Zoe Hadley, returned recently from Junction City, where she has been the past two months.

George Agee has returned to Boardman after several months absence. He has practically recovered from the injury he received when he was run over by the blade while working on the highway near Pendleton.

Boardman continues to grow! She boasts a new house, which will be occupied by Mr. Griggs, the manual training teacher. The house was erected by Messrs. Cramer and Goodwin on the lot adjoining the house where Mr. Mulkey lives. It isn't much for size, but will be ample enough for bachelor quarters.

Mrs. L. Soldren and Mrs. Packard, mother and sister of Mrs. Healy, returned Monday to their home in Portland, after a few days' visit here. Miss Doris Healy accompanied them and will go on to Monmouth, where she will attend the state normal.
