The Ladies Aid met Wednesday at the church. A quilt was tied and the ladies were all pleasantly surprised to have refreshments served by Mrs. Harry Warren. Some bazaar plans were discussed and the invitation again mentioned by Mrs. Crawford for all the women to be guests at her home on Oct. 17th, when the West End ladies will entertain town and East End. Every one is asked to be present at this all-day meeting.

Miss Zoe Hadley was hostess at a jolly party last Saturday, when a number of her old friends were asked to help celebrate her 18th birthday. She was the recipient of many pretty gifts from her friends.

Mrs. F. F. Kiltz has been having King, and the King family were very case of hives.

Nels Christanson returned last week from Portland, where he went to consult a physician concerning his injury. It was found unnecessary to have an operation and he is greatly improved.

Boardman is emigrating to Long View, it seems. Chas. Barnes, Tom Dempsey and A. T. Hereim left on Monday, Charles going by motorcycle, Mr. Dempsey driving a team down and Mr. Hereim going on No. 1. Mr. Kutzner went down recently Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payne, former Boardman residents, are living there now.

Mamie Hango left last week for Hood River where she will work in the fruit. Friends here will be interested to know that Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hango are again grandparents, their daughter at Kelso being the mother of a new son.

Mrs. Egwert of The Dalles has come to Boardman to keep house for W. H. Gilbreth and children.

E. T. Broyles, Belle Packard and Edna Broyles returned last week from a short trip to Colfax, Wash.

Mrs. W. H. Stewart enjoyed a visit from her father, mother and brother, who motored up from Fossil.

Mr. and Mrs. Tagg, parents of Mrs. King, and the King family were guests at the Christanson home on Tuesday for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen were hosts at a delicious dinner on Sunday to Nick Falter and wife and Myrtle McNeill. Norma Gibbons was Mildred's guest at that time also.

Mrs. Will Davis left Monday for her home in Portland, after spending a few days at the Ralph Davis home helping care for Mrs. Ralph Davis, who was quite ill for a few days but is greatly improved now.

Mrs. Glen Brown and two youngest children returned this week from Walla Walla and nearby points, where they visited for a few days.

Mr. Becholdt left Monday after a short visit in Boardman. He visited at the Rands and Johnson homes.

Miss Myrtle McNeill, who is teaching on upper Butter creek, left last Wednesday morning accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nick Falter for Portland, where they visited until Sunday. Mr. Falter went down to consult a doctor about his back, which

THIRD YEAR Edited by the High School Students NUMBER 4

Truman Messenger, '24, Editor Katherine Brown, '26, Assistant Editor Edward McClellan, '25, Joke Editor

Mr. Mulkey and Mr. Griggs attended a meeting of the High School Athletic association for this district last Saturday.

The meeting was held at Arlington and about 20 men were there from high schools in Gilliam, Morrow, Wheeler and Sherman counties.

At this meeting officers were elected for the coming year and games scheduled for the football season. The list of schools that will be represented in this district are as follows: Heppner, Lexington, Ione, Boardman, Hardman, Condon, Arlington, Wasco, Moro and Fossil.

has been troubling him of late so that he suffers great pain.

Glen Hadley, Everett Hadley and Mr. Williamson went to Hardman and vicinity on a hunting and pleasure trip last week.

The Kullinger's, who have been visitors at the Garrett home for the past week, left Saturday for their home at Eagle Creek.

Earl Cramer sold his truck to Lauren Cummins this week. Mr. Cramer and family plan to leave this week for the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Meesenger and daughters had a pleasant trip to Sunnyside last Saturday, returning on Monday.

Mr and Mrs. J. P. Hadley are here from Hardman and will spend the winter with their son, Glen Hadley.

Buster Rands was a Herniston visitor Tuesday, where he had some dental work done with Dr. Prime.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bieakman of Hardman motored down on Friday and visited at the Glen Hadley home. They drove to Paterson on Saturday for fruit, returning to Hardman on Sunday.

The high school and some of the grade boys have cleared a new football field south of the school building. This is much more convenient for practice than the old grounds, and adds to the appearance of the school premises.

Boardman HI plays lone football here at Boardman, Saturday, Oct. 6, at 3 p. m. sharp. Be on hand!

Joe Shaw has entered the 8th grade.

Basil Cramer and Dale Cox left school Thursday. They are going to Portland.

Lella Barlow, a freshman, left school last Friday. She will enter school at Heppner.

JOKES.

Poetry by the Joke Editor

'Twas a cold wintry day in summer; The trees were lovely and bare; Icicles hung in the blazing sun, In the valley of who knows where.

In the bus on the East End. (Just passed over a bump.) Frances G. "Hold her!" Voice from the front: "Well, most likely he did."

Clara: "Keep your eyes open these days." Delbert: "Why?" Clara: "Why, so you can see."

If any one wants to study astronomy first-handed come out and play football. (By one who knows.)

REV. B. S. HUGHES, Pastor.

Truman: "That horse knows as much as I."

Howard P.: "Well, better keep still, you might want to sell him some time."

Mr. Griggs: "When your wife starts to talk does she know when to stop?"

Mr. Mulkey: "I don't know yet; I have only been married nine years."

Mr. Griggs (at breakfast): "I've got a bad head this morning."

Miss Wolf: "I hope you'll be able to shake it off."

Zoe Hadley, representing the seneschals quite a bit, at least one of them.
