THIRD YEAR Edited by the High School Students NUMBER 7
 Truman Messenger, '24, Editor Katherine Brown, '26, Assistant Editor
 Edward McClellan, '25, Joke Editor

The time is at hand when Boardman citizens should consider the question of a school gymnasium.

The need of this school attribute is very apparent. Our boys and girls have no place to play except upon the rocky ground at the rear of the school building. There is no suitable place for athletic sports such as other schools enjoy, no protection from winter's chilling blasts or spring and autumn dust storms.

With a gymnasium the teachers could conduct organized play during inclement weather. Competitive games between various groups of children could be carried on. School management would be made easier, school morale and efficiency higher, and bodily health and physique of the children improved.

At the present time if we are asked by a neighboring school for a friendly game to be played at Boardman, our reply must invariably be "Yes, we have no 'gym'."

Why not think it over and talk it over? It is a question of ways and means, that is all the little sticks, the dollar will follow. Let Boardman have a gymnasium.

Those in high school who have received 100 per cent in department for last month are as follows:

Zoe Hadley Wahnona Rands
 Ida Mefford Marie Messenger
 Alton Klitz Howard Packard
 Genevieve Gorgor Clara Marcus
 Ray Dempsey Roy Dempsey
 Louise Klages Catherine Berger

The prize pencils offered by the Curtis Publishing company have been awarded for those procuring the highest number of subscriptions for the "Country Gentleman." Those receiving the awards are as follows:

Marie Messenger Katherine Brown
 Erma Broyles Blanche Imus
 Zoe Hadley Weldon Ayers
 Alex Ayers Eden Larsen
 Arthur Chaffee Truman Messenger
 Ray Dempsey

While the football boys were away at Lexington, some of the high school students remained, and after completing their school work spent the rest of the time cleaning house. Blanche Imus, Genevieve Gorgor and Catherine Berger made the assembly room look like new and achieved some progress in the library. Eden Larsen did some good work straightening out the tangle in the manual training room. The installing of radiators had rendered this room untidy. Miss Marvin spent the afternoon putting the cafeteria in order. Mrs. Crowder and Mrs. Viegas chaperoned a crowd of girls to Lexington. Their names are as follows: Nellie Messenger, Louise Klages, Zoe Hadley, Irma Broyles, Clara Marcus and Mildred Duncan. Pretty big load for one car! On the way they composed many yells and songs for our team, but "alas!" said Louise, "We had but little chance to use them." Other students being excused from school meandered home thru the green fields of the project, listening to the warbling of birds and to the cackling of China pheasants.

Time is now given to the pupils so they may appear at the noon luncheon with clean hands and faces. Just before noon each room is allowed a five minute period in which to gather at the wash stand and perform the act of ablution. This means better appearance and more comfort.

The football boys received their new suits last week and, naturally enough, are quite proud of them. Besides being a protection to the boys they add to the appearance of the team.

Who Can Tell When (Where or Why)

1. The freshmen will wear their colors next?
2. The football team will win?
3. The class editors will do their work?
4. The Jeffs will give the Mytts a party?
5. The Latin class will learn anything?
6. Mr. Mulkey doesn't tell jokes anymore?
7. The Student Body are going on a vacation?

If someone hauled some sawdust and put it on the football grounds it would be appreciated very much.

Mrs. Messenger and daughter, Lois, visited school last Friday.

Current events are all the rage. The first and second year English classes have them every Thursday, and the third and fourth nearly as often. The history class also have their turn every Friday.

Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Wicklander visited the school last Thursday.

The 7th and 8th grades are very much interested in the spelling contest being given in the Portland schools. They are going to see how many of those 1500 words they can spell.

Choosing class colors is contagious. The 7th and 8th grades will be the next room to have color day, each class having chosen colors.

The first group of officers of the Literary society in the 7th and 8th grade room has served one month and another group has been chosen. It is the purpose to give everyone in the room the opportunity to serve at least once. All are learning how to conduct meetings according to parliamentary rules.

First and Second Grades.
 On Friday evening last there came into existence a new family, known as the Stick Family. The members, that is all the little sticks, have been recognized by their badge worn over their hearts—and that it is nothing more than an innocent safety pin—to the sticks it means much more.

This family organized and made their first expedition on Friday. They plan to meet every two weeks and are hoping many others will become sticks soon and share their good times.

Fifth and Sixth Grades
 A new recruit was welcomed into the 5th grade last Monday, Mohava Kutzner.

JOKES
Poetry by the Joke Editor
 The boy stood on the railroad track,
 The train was coming fast;
 The boy stepped off the railroad track
 To let the train go past.

Weldon (freshie): "May I raise my hand?"
 Mrs. Crowder: "What for?"
 Weldon: "I want to ask a question."

Wahnona (at the play last Saturday night): "All ready, run up the curtain."
 Arthur C.: "Say, what do you think I am, a squirrel?"

The City Guy: "Tell me, how's the milk maid?"
 The Country Lass: "It isn't made, you poor nut, the cow gives it."

Diebert (out riding): "My clutch is awful weak."
 Mildred: "So I've noticed."

Mildred D. winked at Diebert the other day and I think it's an awful joke.

It is reported that Zoe H. turned into a mechanic on the way back from Lexington.

Ray D. (on the way to Lexington): "Will we go thru Wells springs?"

Howard P.: "I think we'll try to dodge or miss them."

Teacher: "Alex, give three reasons for believing the earth is round."
 Alex: "Well, my father says so, my teacher says so, and the book says so."

Arthur Bailey's chief hobbies: Chewing for Wrigley, kicking for B.H.S. and flirting with Zoe."

Weldon (at Lexington): "How long will I have to wait for a shave?"
 Barber: "Oh, about three years."

Teacher: "Eden, why don't you do something?"
 Eden: "Aw, I can't see much to do."

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

Miss Blanche Powell and her brother, Charles Powell, motored to Hot Lake sanatorium from their home in Irrigon Wednesday returning the same night. They drove there to accompany Miss Madeline Boldman of Auburn, Wash., and E. D. Boldman of New York City, who had been their house guests, to Hot Lake where the latter couple will take treatments for a few days. Mr. Powell has been a patient at Hot Lake.

Lyle Seaman left for Portland Sunday evening to take a course in the Adcox Auto school. He expects to be gone about four months.

William Norcross and Miss Hazel Smith were married Monday in Heppner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer. Rev. F. R. Spaulding performed the ceremony. They have purchased the Mrs. Debbie Bell McCune properties and will make their home here. A big serenade was given them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lamoreaux Monday evening where the treats were served. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

The first frost of the season came the morning of the 23rd, followed by another the night of the 24th. Who cares now? Melons are all some long ago and the money is coming in now.

The China pheasants seem to know the season is over and are braver again. Plenty are left for next season.

H. C. Wolfe has purchased another house in the east end of town and will also move it to his acreage south of Irrigon. If he had sons or daughters it would look like he was building a nest for them, but such is not the case. He says cantaloupes and watermelons look good to him and he wants to fix up his place so he can get a satisfactory renter or lease.

SAVE $200 EVERY YEAR . . .

One sure way to make money on your farm is to protect your farm machinery.

The average annual loss from deterioration alone on farm machinery left out in the weather is $200.

A machine shed that will turn this annual loss into a profit can be built for a surprisingly small amount.

The shed shown here is only one of many carefully designed and economical plans that our Architectural Department has ready for your inspection.

Our Blue Prints and Material Lists are so complete that it is an easy matter for you to do the building yourself during the slack season.

Come in and let us show you how little money it takes.

IRRIGON SCHOOL NEWS

Irrigon Third Annual Hallowe'en Carnival

We are pleased to announce that for the third year the Irrigon school will hold its Hallowe'en carnival. It will be held on the evening of November 3rd and in the school building instead of the gymnasium as formerly. Admission is free. Every room will participate in a free literary program, after which refreshments will be sold. We believe in keeping a good thing going and improving it as we go. We are expecting a larger crowd from Umatilla, Hermiston and Boardman than ever before. Those who have been attending we feel will surely need no encouragement to come again this year. Don't forget the date—evening of Nov. 3rd at 8 o'clock.

Miss Winifred Steward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Steward, and Lyle Seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Seaman, were married on Saturday, Oct. 20th. Mrs. Seaman will attend school in Irrigon, she being a prominent member of the junior class.

Mr. Ben Howard of this city preached in the community church Saturday evening and also Sunday morning.

Miss Blanche Powell, the primary teacher, was away on business Monday and Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Lyle Seaman is taking her place during her two days' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Lewis of The Dalles were Irrigon visitors Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Hendrick and son Jay. Mrs. Lewis was a former student of the Irrigon high school and is now attending school in The Dalles.

The Eversharp pencils to be awarded to those who secured subscriptions to the Country Gentleman arrived Monday morning and were distributed during the assembly period. Those receiving pencils were: Vivian Adams, Raymond Lamoreaux, Rhea Randsler, Leola Benefiel, Margaret Seaman, Walter Seaman, Robert Smith and Winifred Seaman. The number of subscriptions taken was forty-seven.

The school has received and installed a set of ball bearings for the swings on the playgrounds, which is certainly an improvement over the old swings.

The volley ball net has been put up and the small children as well as the large ones get a great deal of enjoyment during the play time.

Basket ball practice will start soon and it is hoped that the girls' team will be able to play better than last year. The boys, it is feared, will not be able to play this year on account of the shortage of players.

It is believed that by spring the school will be able to put in a tennis court.
