Mrs. Ernest Brown and Mrs. Walter Cohoon were school visitors in the primary room last Friday.

The Freshman Class
There are 14 freshmen this year—They're some great bunch when they're all here.

First, there's Bud, Art and Shorty. And I'll tell you they run like forty. Next comes Alex, Eden and Norm. And they work thru the livelong morn.

Hector and Diebert are next you see And they are bright as they can be.

The girls you see number a little less. But that's no sign they know any less. First, there's Erma, Nellie and Marie. And they are smart as you can see. Next are Louise, Gene and Catherine B.; And are good looking—all the three.

Blossom Time
"Blossom Time," one of the most charming and enchanting musical plays the stage of this country has ever had will be presented by Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert at the Rivoli theatre, Pendleton, Feb. 20.

Having completed a run of two years in New York, "Blossom Time" comes here with the Century Theatre, New York, company and production intact. The story is based on incidents in the life of Franz Schubert, the famous Viennese composer. The scene is laid in old Vienna. The original theme of the story was discovered in a semi-fiction and semi-biographical life of Schubert; which was published shortly after his death. The book and lyrics of "Blossom Time" are by Dorothy Donnelly, adapted from the original of A. M. Wilner and S. Reichert. The music is from the melodies of Franz Schubert and H. Berle, adapted by Sigmund Romberg.
