Why School Teachers Go Crazy
Poise is the way a Dutchman says boys.

Equinox is a wild animal that lives in the Arctic.

King Arthur's Round Table was written by the author of "Ten Knights in a Bar Room."

Copernicus invented the corau-copla.

Etiquette teaches us how to be polite without trying to remember to be.

In the stone age all the men were ossified.

The climax of a story is where it says it is to be continued.

A gulf is dent in a continent.

Buttress is a butler's wife.

Conservation means doing without things we need.

If Ponce de Leon hadn't died before he found the fountain of youth, he wouldn't have died.

Uncle Ephraim is coming with his summer boarders. He will arrive at the school auditorium Friday evening, March 28, or April 4. The title of his play is "Uncle Ephraim's Summer Boarders."

The student body of the high school is sponsor for this production. They will furnish all the talent, do all the work, and desire to apply the proceeds to the paying of a debt.

They promise to give an evening's entertainment that will be well worth the admission price and be a source of community pride in school talent plays.

Let's everybody come and get acquainted with Uncle Ephraim, his family, and summer boarders.

Tuesday afternoon the boys of the high school held a school baseball meeting in the library for the purpose of electing a captain, property man and to discuss the schedule. Alton Klitz was elected captain, Ed McClellan property man, and they decided to play seven or eight games with towns close by.

The sixteen eighth graders have decided that there surely will be enough of their class graduate to justify a program of their own at the close of the school and are therefore planning accordingly. Their teacher says that all sixteen can earn diplomas if they are willing to work hard enough. Let's see if they can do it.

If the program is carried out there will be enough more swings and bars erected at the north side of the school building to supply the pupils with a modern amount of equipment.

Prof. John J. Carroll, who taught manual training here last year, writes from Fallon, Nevada, that he is now a benedict. The Utellem extends congratulations.

During this period of good weather the forty-five minute noon hour has been extended to one hour.

Jokes

Carl—"What's the difference between a bank and a bee hive?"
Ida—"Well—er—I don't know."
Earl—"A bank takes in notes, and a piano gives out notes."
Ida—"Well, what did that have to do with a bee hive?"
Earl—"That's where you get stung."

Mr. Mulkey (in English)—"I'm tempted to give this class an examination today."
Ed (sitting in the back of the room)—"Yield not to temptation."

Mr. Mulkey (In teacher's training class to two bobbed-haired girls)—"I rather like bobbed hair. It gives one a better chance to take care of it."

A Souvenir

She held out her hand, and the young man took it and departed.—From a story.

For County Judge

To the Republican voters of Morrow county: I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination at your hands for the office of County Judge at the primary election in May, 1924. My experience of many years as county commissioner makes me conversant with the duties of the office I seek, and I shall greatly appreciate your support at the primary and for all past favors, I thank you kindly.

Gum, Spell It Backwards.

If you will,
It spells a mug.
A mug it always fills,
And yet this mug
Is seldom still.
Mug craves more gum
To fill its maw,
Increase expense
To pa and ma.
And once the jaw
Gets fully set,
The mug's a sight
You ne'er forget.

Bats and balls have been distributed to the various groups of children and the playground resounds with the crack of bats and shouts of "run!" The coaches are numerous and lusty lungs make clamorous music for the flying spheres. The show goes merrily on and it's ball, ball, bawl.
