Small Apartments Hurt Sale of Big Paintings
 London.—Large canvases painted by old masters to hang upon the spacious walls of the rich man's mansion are hard to sell in these days of apartments and small houses. Bond street dealers say the demand is almost entirely for small pictures, so that prices frequently are in inverse ratio to size.
 Postwar social changes are held responsible for the poor market accorded huge masterpieces with their many yards of canvas. Scores of country mansions have been closed or sold to the newly rich, who have been too occupied with money-making to care about art, and most town houses are already overfilled with furniture and ornamentation.

 Almost every part of the whole has a commercial value.

SCHOOL DAYS

THE ONE WHO WON

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

TWO there were upon a quest:
 One went east, and one went west;
 One was rich, and one was poor,
 One the highroad, one the moor.

One of them (no matter which,
 Maybe poor, or maybe rich,
 One with wealth, or one with not,
 Road or moor, no matter what).

One of them, who trudged along,
 As he traveled, sang a song,
 Smiled to see the sun again,
 Played with snow, and laughed at rain.

One of them found many things
 All along to give him wings,
 Morning-glory, whippoorwill,
 Often helped him up the hill.

One of them, I'm sad to say,
 Traveled quite another way,
 Cursed the rocks, and cursed the road,
 Ev'ry labor, ev'ry load.

One of them, (no matter whom,
 Man of gladness, man of gloom,
 Man of wealth, or man of naught),
 Found at last the thing he sought.

One of them (no matter which,
 On the highroad, in the ditch)
 Found the thing he sought, although
 Which it was I do not know.

One of them, I know at least,
 Found work fun, and life a feast,
 If he won, or if he lost,
 Found the journey worth the cost.

Two there were. Whichever came,
 Wealth or want, or failure, fame,
 Good or bad, or right or wrong,
 One at least had had the song.

The Why of Superstitions

By H. IRDING KING

PLANTING PEPPERS

OLD-FASHIONED farmers in some sections of the country will assure you that if you want to have your pepper plants do well you should have them set out by a red-headed person. Same thing if you grow the plants from the seed—get a red-haired person to sow the seed. Some say a quick-tempered, irritable person, even if he is not red headed, will do as well. This is a clear case of sympathetic magic applied to agriculture and the application of sympathetic magic to agriculture is not only one of the oldest, if not the very oldest, phases of the mental development of primitive man, but is one which exists in the form of various superstitions all over the world today.

In some parts of Europe the peasants at planting time leap high in the air in the sown fields in order that the crops may grow high; in another a sower of wheat wears a golden ring in order that the grain may have a rich, golden color and a stone, wrapped in a white rag, is placed among the cabbages in order that they may "head up" white and hard; while in Sumatra the rice is sown by women with their hair hanging loose in order that the cereal may grow luxuriantly and have long stalks.

Instances of similar practices might be multiplied almost indefinitely. All are inheritances from the primitive; the persistence of primitive magic into the Twentieth century, subsisting side by side with colleges of agriculture.

Have You This Habit?

By Margaret Morison

A SPEAKING VOICE

"OTHER things being equal," said the great doctor that evening at dinner, "a good speaking voice is the greatest asset a man or a woman can have. When I want to engage a secretary, I always try to have my first interview over the telephone. The secretary I have now I picked out from five other young women who applied, all of them capable, mainly because she speaks clearly and isn't nasal."

"Can a pleasing voice be acquired, doctor?" asked his host, "or is it just a golden spoon that some people are born with and others not?"

"Good voice production," answered the eminent specialist, putting down his fork and speaking emphatically, "good voice production is a habit and can be acquired. I once had a young assistant," he went on, "who purely by imitation and association with the group he was running with fell gradually into a sloppy way of talking that was very difficult to understand and very unattractive. I finally had it out with him; he saw my point—he was a fine fellow—and though it was a struggle he began to stand up straight, open his mouth, shape his words, get his voice forward. You'd be surprised if I were to tell you his name; everyone knows it these days."

The next morning at church the doctor's host heard a sermon that stayed in his memory for many days. The message of that sermon was fine, but he had heard the same thoughts many times before without consciously carrying them about with him afterward. The difference in the impression made lay in the voice of the speaker which, with no visible effort, carried clearly and quietly. He was quite undramatic. He was telling his own beliefs in unstrained, rightly placed tones that pronounced slowly and distinctly, not garbled sounds, but well-rounded English words.

It is of the universal habit of running our words and sentences together into one confused jumble, or squeezing our throats until our voices must come forth through our noses, of hissing and spitting out our sounds, of bawling and distorting our faces that we must beware.

 By E. R. PEYSER

Has a man like this proposed to you?
 Symptoms: Looks dull, but brightens at your interest in him. Tells you, "You're the first person to understand me; my boss doesn't, never had one who does; my mother, dear little woman, always petted me. All the girls I know jilt me for more successful chaps." Wants his own way in little things. Never thinks anything he does is wrong. "Nobody does it right. Why don't they let me?" Always talking about the fellows in the office who go ahead of him on the job. He's often late at his desk. He slinks around the office like an underdog.

IN FACT
 He is dogged.
 Prescription for his bride: Prepare for a real bully in the home.
 Take spine exercises for your backbone.
 Absorb This: SUPPRESSION IS THE FATHER OF OPPRESSION.

Woman Aviator Killed.

San Antonio, Tex.—Mrs. Bertha Horchem, member of an air circus, was killed instantly Sunday afternoon at the municipal flying field here. The left wing of her plane crumpled as she went into a loop at 1200 feet. The plane crashed to the ground 20 feet in front of the crowd of 3000 spectators. Cyle Horchem, her husband and owner of the circus, collapsed as the woman's body was removed from the twisted wreckage. He is in a serious condition.

Good Advice for Women

Portland, Ore.—"All my life I have known of Dr. Pierce's medicines. My mother was a physician and she thought so well of Dr. Pierce's medicines that she quite frequently recommended them to her patients, especially the 'Favorite Prescription' for women. For about two years after the birth of my fourth child I suffered with feminine trouble of a very serious nature. I had all the aches and pains a woman could have. I was nervous and weak—just able to be around. I was in distress all the time, when I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, but was completely relieved of all my ailments and restored to perfect health.

"When my daughter was growing into womanhood she was backward and had such poor health that she was compelled to quit school. I gave her the 'Favorite Prescription' and it completely restored her to health and she came into womanhood in a very natural way."—Mrs. Jennie Butterfield, 821 Mich. Ave.

Plane Falls, Two Hurt.

Morehead City, N. C.—Lieutenant-Commander A. E. Montgomery and Machinist-Mate Christianson were placed in a hospital here suffering from injuries received when their airplane fell 50 feet into shallow water opposite here Sunday. The machine, the 61, was one of three observation planes which left Hampton Roads, Va., for Miami, Fla., Sunday.

Investigation Wanted.

"What makes you think you were defeated by fraud?" "I paid for 163 votes in the second precinct, and the books show that I got a total of only 153 there. Our election system is simply rotten."—Cleveland Leader.

Ruinous.

Flora—"Don't you find the hot sun bad for the complexion?" Fauna—"It's awful. It melts the rouge and leaves the face all streaky."
