Lettuce acreage in Oregon will probably be smaller this year than last. At least there will be no outstanding increase as has been the case in the past few years. Many sections are reporting smaller plantings than last year because prices did not come up to expectations.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

By N. Seaman

Frost during the past week has done more or less damage to various fruits in the district. N. Seaman and Son have smudged four nights recently. This has saved the bulk of their apricot crop. Some sheltered spots were not damaged as much as more open places. Fruits should not bloom in March. It's too early.

Experiment will be made on berries and apricots and possibly on watermelons and cantaloupes. Mr. Smith is expected in Irrigon some day this week or next for a day's visit.

Have you paid your income tax? Perhaps you figure it does not catch you, but we have single men here who have easily earned their $1,000 and are not listed as taxpayers. Either they did not get the wages claimed, or failed to pay what they voted for. Even the bootleggers get away with it for awhile, but sooner or later they get them.
