MOTHER'S COOK BOOK

"Smile, and while you smile another smiles; And by and by there's miles of smiles.
And life's worth while because you smile."

MAIN DISHES

A GOOD, substantial dish which is not hard to get ready for a good-sized family is Alaskan Dish.

Cut two pounds of round steak into eight pieces for serving. Dice one-half pound of salt pork. Cook the pork, one cupful of minced celery and one large onion in the pork fat. Fry the steak until brown on both sides, add to the rest of the ingredients, blend two tablespoonsful of fat with the same of flour, pour over the meat and simmer all together for thirty minutes.
Just before serving add one cupful of cooked spaghetti and one pint of stewed tomatoes. Serve on hot platter.

Panned Oysters.

Scald one cupful of oysters. When the edges curl, remove them from the liquor. Take one tablespoonful of butter creamed with two of flour, add one cupful of milk and cook until thick.
Add one-half cupful each of broken nut meats and chopped celery. Season to taste and add the oysters. Remove the tops from rolls, scoop out the soft part, toast the tops and shells and fill with the oysters. The shells may be well battered with soft butter before filling, adding to the palatiness of the dish.

Baked Lima Beans and Tomatoes.

Soak a pound of beans overnight, parboil for five minutes or longer to soften, rinse and cook until tender.
Add one teaspoonful of salt to each quart of water used. Season a pint of tomatoes with salt and pepper and onion juice. Add it to the drained beans.
Put into a beanpot with two thick slices of bacon or salt pork and bake until the bacon is crisp and brown.

Fricassee of Tongues.

Sheep's tongues or small calves' tongues may be used. Take four, cover with boiling water and simmer until tender, adding a few cloves and a small onion; season with salt when nearly done. Remove, cool, skin and cut lengthwise; season well. The next day, roll the tongues in flour and fry in butter and chopped onion until brown. Serve with a brown sauce seasoned with a dash of lemon juice.
Serve with hot boiled rice.

Cows to Be Profitable

Under average farm conditions, a cow needs to produce 200 pounds of butterfat a year to pay all expenses in connection with her feed and care.
In other words, the cow that will produce this amount of butterfat will pay for her feed at market price, pay for all labor in connection with her keep, interest on money invested, taxes, etc.

THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

"LOVE thy neighbor as thyself,"
The holy Scriptures run;
We wish the Lord would tell us, though,
Just how it can be done.

For there are often neighbors near,
There may be neighbors even here, A few that we could tell you of We find it very hard to love.

"Love thy neighbor as thyself?"
But what about the kind Who speak so sweetly to your face And otherwise behind?

And what about the neighbors who Are always borrowing from you?
And neighbors who run in and stay Upon your very busy day?

"Love thy neighbor as thyself?"
The ones who keep a flock Of chickens that will crow and cluck At half past four o'clock?

And folks who let the baby cry,
To find the trouble never try?
And folks who play—yes, what of them?

The phonograph at 2 a. m.?

"Love thy neighbor as thyself"
And live in sweet accord.
There's only one thing we can think To make us do it, Lord: There are some neighbors we could love

Just like the cooling turtle dove If on some bright and sunny day They'd only up and move away.

Something to Think About

By F. A. WALKER

LIGHT OR DARKNESS

IT IS for you to choose whether you shall make your dwelling place where the sunbeams are, or where the shadows lie.

From those rational individuals who mark upon a scale the division between light and darkness, to those who never give thought to the matter, time slips away with the same precision, caring not who makes use of the precious minutes or permits them to go to waste.

The man who wanders about in the gloom, indifferent as to the direction he is traveling, is heading straight for the dismal land of nowhere. He is the frowning, fault-finding man, blaming others for his falls and bruises.
He lives in perpetual darkness and thinks darkly.

The world has too many such men, too many women of the same miserable type, stubbling their toes in the dark simply because they stubbornly refuse to lift their eyes to the guiding light and let reason illuminate their souls with glorious faith and hope.

Everywhere they go, they take with them the clammy chill of midnight.
Their presence is oppressive, though they cannot be made to believe it.

They are important to themselves, but fail to impress their importance upon those who consistently press forward among the industrious on the great sun-lighted highway making the best use of their talents.

Anybody, it is supposed, can say what he means, but if you will take time to converse with one of these benighted mortals and seek to draw him out, you will find that in his case the hypothesis is not true.

It takes the genial sunlight to crown the orchards and the fields with fruit and grain. And just so does it require a spiritual sun to bring forth the goodness in man and loosen his tongue to utter words of cheer and wisdom.

The sunny men and women make the best of things, even when their world is gray and cheerless.

All that is beautiful, inspiring, lovable and noble, comes from their enlightened minds, indulgent to the wayward, sympathetic to the unfortunate, benevolent and merciful.

Into the world's darkest places, into the gloomiest hearts, these humane men and women scatter sunshine without reserve. Who does not bless them?
