It was voted by the student body to award from the treasury the prizes for the players in Uncle Ephraim's Summer Boarders. They are given as follows:
 1—Irma Broyles and Norman Bailey.
 2—Ida Mefford and Howard Packard.
 3—Katherine Brown and Francis Gilbreth.

The judges gave out the following statement:
 "We have done the best we could. They all did so well that it was very difficult to make a decision. We hope our efforts will meet with your approval."

The Junior class consisting of Blanche Innes, Jas. Howell, Francis Gilbreth, Earl Olson and Ed McClellan entertained the Seniors down at the old camp grounds near the invisible greenhouse last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Deggendorffer, Miss Sears, Miss Wolff, Mr. Griggs and Mr. Mulkey acted as chaperones. Jas. Howell, Zoe Hadley, Truman Messinger and Mr. Griggs furnished transportation.

A sumptuous repast was served, consisting of wieners, sandwiches, ice cream, cake and punch.

A bonfire was lighted and some lively games were played. The evening closed with songs and speech-making and the usual all-around nine rags. Thus ended the annual Junior event voted as one of the very best ever held.

The Most Interesting Person
 The most interesting person I know is a young man about twenty-two years of age. He is short and rather stout, has a freckled face and always a friendly smile for everyone. Although he is somewhat homely you are sure to like him on first sight. He has traveled a good deal and can tell many stories about his wanderings. Another gift of his is the ability to tell stories and make them up as he goes along. In this way he could keep any number of people eagerly listening until he chose to tell them a yarn too big to swallow.

Probably the most singular fact about this person is that he is by nature a philosopher and at the same time witty. He accepted everything as it came without showing any outward feeling.

—HOWARD PACKARD

Last Tuesday a meeting was held by the boys in which they elected Earl Olson as captain of the track team.

A few of the boys are going to enter the track meet at Lone on Friday, and will try to win a few points for Boardman. Lone and Arlington high schools will enter teams in the meet.

The Baccalaureate sermon held in the church and preached by Rev. Hughes of Umatilla, was very good and well appreciated by the graduating class. The church was decorated in the Seniors' class colors, pink and green. The theme of the sermon was "In Him Is Life and Life Is the Light of Man." Miss Wolff presided at the piano.

A Good High School Student
 There are many things which make a good high school student. In general, he must be capable both mentally and physically. If, however, they are satisfactory mentally, they can improve their physical condition by eating properly and taking the right care of themselves.

First, a student must spend the required amount of time and concentration on his work.

Second, when a fellow student is in trouble he should be willing to give him aid, not to the extent of giving him material to copy though.

Third, do not copy—it is yourself you're hurting.

Fourth, always be self-respectful.

Fifth, be kind and pleasant toward all.

Sixth, never be a grouch.

Seventh, when a difficult assignment is made, instead of quitting, work harder for it.

Eighth, never lose courage. It is hard to regain.

Ninth, keep yourself neat and presentable.

Tenth, last, but not least, stand by your rights and boost your school.

—KATHERINE BROWN.

A student body meeting was held last Thursday, May 1, for discussing the track meet at Lone, May 9. It was decided that a team of the boys enter the contest and if sufficient transportation could be secured, the rest of the high school also attend it.

Tuesday, the 13th there will be an exhibit of the sewing and manual training work. Everyone is invited. This date was changed from the 9th on account of the track meet.

JOKES
 Mrs. Crowder—"Which do you like better the Odyssey or the Illiad?"
 Bright Freshman—"Oh, I like the 'Odiddy of the Idiot' just fine."

Mr. Griggs—"I took college easy?"
 Ed—"How's that?"
 Mr. Griggs—"I graduated by degrees."

Gene at Freshmen's weenie roast—"This air is pressing."
 Mildred (sitting close to Carl)—"This Ayres is pressing."

Ed (after telling a joke)—"I suppose you'd laugh at that one next summer."
 Carl—"No, it was last summer."

Blanche—"I've got to take a make-up test."
 Ole—"You look as if you could pass it."

Why Teachers Resign
 Millie, who was the king of Spain? (Please close that door.)
 When Columbus sailed the Spanish main?

(Who threw those beans across the floor?)
 What is the capital of France? (Bring me that note!)
 Who commanded the White Horse Lance?

(Don't make that noise in your throat.)
 If a man can swim three miles an hour, (Put down your feet.)
 Across a stream whose current's power (Zoe, this isn't time to eat!)
 Is equal to a swimmer's stride, (I saw you wink)

Where may he land on the other side?
 "Teacher, may I get a drink?"
 "A should start ahead of B (Give me that file)

How soon will he catch up with C? (Stop throwing paper in the aisle)
 If hens produce five eggs a day (You see this rod?)
 How many will a dozen lay?
 "Teacher, Ole fired a paper wad."

What Would Happen If—
 Elbert got all his Algebra.
 Weldon lost his Stacombe.
 Ed McClellan got a 100 in deportment.
 Art Bailey had a current event.

Ed—"What are you thinking about?"
 Mildred—"Nothing much."
 Ed—"Why don't you think of me?"
 Mildred—"I was."

Gene—"But it's only six o'clock, and I told you to come after supper."
 Weldon—"Well, that's what I came after."

The Random Shot
 I shot an arrow into the air.
 It fell in the distance I knew 'not where
 Till a neighbor said it had killed his calf,
 And I had to pay him six and a half,
 I bought some poison to slay some rats,
 And a neighbor swore it killed his cats,
 And rather to argue across the fence,
 I paid him four dollars and fifty cents,
 One night I set rolling a toy balloon
 And hoped it would soar till it reached the moon,
 But the candle fell on a farmer's straw,
 And he said I must settle or go to law,
 And that is the way with a random shot—
 It never hits in the proper spot,
 And the joke you sprang that you think so smart
 May leave a wound in some fellow's heart.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS
 The association is shipping a little asparagus now every day.

H. C. Wolfe has rented his farm to Mr. Shull of Boardman for the season.

Rev. S. B. Hughes, of Umatilla, accompanied by representatives from the Albany College, were Irrigon visitors Tuesday.

Arthur Yergins and Mr. Barker have installed a home made radio, and have it working fine. They tuned in many stations within several hundred miles.

Vane and Geneva Jones have arrived from Pasco and taken up the work on the farm with Mr. Glasgow for the season. Mr. Glasgow could not handle the place alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker have purchased forty acres from Frank Yergins. Mr. Barker is on the job now and Mrs. Barker will follow when her school closes at Meacham.

L. A. Doble, M. C. Burchett, C. E. Glasgow and N. Seaman & Son each have a little and by pooling the lot, daily shipments have been possible since the nights warmed up a little. This is one crop frost does not kill out for the entire season.

Mr. Wayne Stewart has returned from college in Portland and has taken up an interest with Dove Knight in the growing of potatoes and cantaloupes on shares with N. Seaman & Son. This acreage now promises to make a good stand.

Another rabbit poison campaign was put on last Sunday. More farmers turned out this time and even greater success is predicted. No reports as to the results have been turned in as yet, but the first lot certainly made a big killing. Our county agent, Mr. Morse came over to assist in the distribution of the poison.

The Commercial club has arranged with the town water users to take over the handling of irrigation water now since the pipe line is completed and the system perfected to the point of making it possible to irrigate lots anywhere in the township with large head of water and complete the job within a few hours each week.

United States Senator

Chas. L. McNary Republican for Renomination

WHAT HE HAS DONE
 During his seven years in the Senate he has secured—
 $31,020,269 for Oregon Development

- $ 9,255,762 for Rivers and Harbors
- $ 9,080,000 for Reclamation and Power
- $11,138,107 for Public Roads

This is more than has been secured by any other Western Senator in the same period.

His powerful committee assignments and his prestige in the Senate equips him to accomplish even greater things for the continued development of Oregon's Resources and Industries.

It would take years for a new man to attain his present position of prominence and influence.

His slogan: "For Oregon; Its people and Their Welfare."

Mr. and Mrs. Balfour have moved to Mountain Home, Idaho, where some of her relatives live. Mr. Balfour did not know just what work he would undertake but hopes to get a position driving a truck there.

Oversight or Neglect

It was a sleepy sort of a day, the class was about half the usual size, and the Professor was calling the roll in a half-absent-minded manner. To each name someone had answered "here" until the name Smith was called. Silence reigned supreme for a moment, only to be broken by the Professor's voice: "My word! Hasn't Mr. Smith any friends here?"
