

Kate Asks for a Raise By JANE OSBORN žeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee "You ambitious?" exclaimed Mr. (C. 1933, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.) Fanshaw. "Why, I never thought of that. I didn't realize that you were Kate had worked for Timothy Fanshaw for nearly a year and dissatisfaction was creeping upon her. As private secretary to Timothy Fanshaw she knew that others in his employ always had an increase in wage or salary before they had worked for him a year. It had never been the policy of the advertising concern of Fanshaw & Sons to pay large salaries to start. Emtion. ployees were made to feel that it was a privilege to work for a concern like Fanshaw's; moreover, there was the bait of higher wages. "As soon as you are worth more to shaw. us your salary will be increased," was what the Fanshaws, father and sons, usually said when employing new helpers. But they seldom increased wages to employees who did not insist on it. The dissatisfaction of Kake Weston busy day in the office one December day, Kate Weston did not sleep at night -in fact, she did not try. She was trying to compose a suitable speech with which to broach the subject of a raise in salary.

She imagined every possible contingency, and so vivid was her imagination as she lay in her small boarding house hed that she could almost see Timothy Fanshaw's look of perplexity. She almost heard him say, "Miss Weston, I am sorry. But it is bad policy to pay a person more than he or she is worth. Your work is satisfactory, still there are others who would accept your salary who could do the work as well-'

Kate Weston's face flushed with indignation there on her pillow and her fists clenched under the blankets. "Mr. Fanshaw," she whispered, "if there are other women who can do my work as well you had better get one. If you could afford to pay me $30 a year ago you can afford to pay me more now that I am doing twice as much work as I did then." Then she saw Mr. Fanshaw's goodlooking face smile mildly. Women in an office always seemed to amuse Mr. Fanshaw a little. If she were a man and were doing the work she was doing now he would pay her twice thirty dollars, she was sure. But Mr. Fanshaw. like other men, Kate concluded, never liked to let a woman earn much money Yet it was men like that who threw money away on the women at homewives and daughters and sisters and mothers who didn't do half so much to deserve it. Why were men always so much more willing to throw money away on a woman than to pay her for what she honestly earned? Kate worked herself up into quite a fever of excitement and heard the clock strike three before she closed her eyes.

Meantime Timothy Fanshaw, napping on the lounge of his sitting room at the club rather than going comfortably to bed, little dreamed he was figuring as an oppressor of poor working girls in any one's imaginings, least of all in those of Kate Weston, his secretary.

way you are going to look under any  given circumstances. Funny, isn't it?" "So, as I was going to say," continued Kate, determined not to be side-tracked, "I have been thinking that unless this is worth something to you I'd better try to locate somewhere where there will be a chance for advancement. I have ambitions as much as any one that sort of a girl. I thought-' few years. "I hope you didn't think that I was willing to see every one advance himself while I-" "While you, what?" said Timothy Fanshaw, looking now really amused. Kate's little hands became tense and her cheeks showed the color of indigna-

"While I stay here in this office getting just $30 a week for the rest of my life.' "I'm blessed !" said Timothy Fan-

Now Kate's indignation was increasing. "Don't say 'I'm blessed' to me." she said, with fire in her usually soft brown eyes. "You seem to think or try to make me think you think that just because I'm a woman I've no ambition. was so great that, after a particularly I didn't mean to become angry, Mr. Fanshaw. I meant only to ask for a raise."

Mr, Fanshaw here began to laugh. "If I should offer you $35 or $40 or $50 you'd remain?" he asked.

"I suppose I would," said Kate, a little shamefaced. "For $50 I know I would."

"And why should I? I can get a dozen girls who can do your work as well as you do it for $30 a week."

"That's just exactly what I thought tion. you were going to say," said Kate.

Timothy Fanshaw ignored the interruption. "But I can never find another young woman who will so perfectly coincide with my idea of a perfect wife. You see, Miss Weston, I'm humbly begging you to marry me, while you ap-parently would rather continue as my secretary with an increased salary." Kate Weston was still blushing furiously and becomingly, but it was from mbarrassment, not from indignation.

"You mean that-that you love-" "Certainly I love you." "I suppose it would be fibbing to say didn't love you, too," admitted Kate. 'But I never thought-"

But Kate never finished the sentence.

EGYPT HAS MANY COURTS Mixed Population of Country Requires

Brand of Justice for Each.

The doubt as to the nationality of a person suspected of murder in Alexandrin reveals the difficulties attendant on the number of jurisdictions that obtain in Egypt. The Egyptian investigating authorities are not recognized as competent to proceed in the case if the accused is a German, while the German authorities will not take ac tion in the matter till it is decided that he belongs to their nationals.

Egypt possesses at least three concurrent jurisdictions. The native courts deal with all crimes committed by natives and all civil disputes between Egyptian subjects. The mixed courts, staffed with judges representative of Silverton Food Products company has been subscribed by local fruit growers to insure them the controlling interest. This company has been Silverten's cannery company for the past

Salem .- Selection of a board of ar bitration to settle the differences arising between local journeymen plumbers and their employers probably will be announced at a joint meeting of the unionists and master plumbers to be held this week.

Salem .- The state tax on gasoline and distillate sales in Oregon during November amounted to $202.697.68, according to a report issued by the secretary of state. To date the tax on fuel oils has returned to the state a total of $4,869,826.17.

St. Helens .-- Circuit court, Judge J. A. Eakin presiding, convened Monday morning. The first day was taken up in hearing motions and default cases. The second will be naturalization day.

Estacada.-While running the edger saw at the Electric Lumber & Manufacturing company's mill at River Mill Saturday, Elmer Crozier's left hand was severed after getting caught in a saw. He was taken to Estacada where Dr. G. F. Midford gave medical atten-

Salem .-- Joseph Carl Krauger and Miss Lillian E. Maxwell, both of Poster, Linn county, were married "on high" here Saturday afternoon, in the words of Judge Kuntz, who performed 250 feet above the ground.

Eugene.-Work of constructing a ten-wire Western Union Telegraph line between Eugene and Klamath Falls over the route of the new railway being built across the Cascade mountains by the Southern Pacific company, will start soon, according to J. A. McKevitt, manager of the company's local office.

Hood River .- The movement of apples from here has resumed, following the holidays, and at present the Apple Growers' association, the total receipts of the organization reaching 1.496,464 boxes, has on hand only 270,774 boxes, less than 400 cars. The shipments kept up at a more rapid rate than usual during the holiday period.

> Eugene.---Eugene's bank deposits amounted to $6,667,442.74 as compared was one of its first victims. with $5,876,974.69 at the same time in 1922, an increase of $790,646.06, more than 13 per cent.

Eugene,-Fire that started Saturday in Bagdad coffee shops, and, in addiafternoon at 3:10 o'clock in the work- tion, a narghile, in which Shirza tobac

A MAN WHO BECAME FAMOUS

Doctor R. V. Pierce, whose picture appears above, was not only a successful physician but hiso a profound student of the medicinal qualities of Nature's remailes, roots and herbs, and by close observation of the methods used by the Indians, he discovered their great remedial qualities, especially for weaknesses of women, and after careful preparation succeeded in giving to the world a remedy which has been used by women with the best results r half a century. Dr. Pierce's Favorite rescription is still in great demand, a many other so called "cure-alls", come and gono. The reason for in nomenal success is because of its date purity, and Dr. Pierce's high Lunding as an honored citizen of Buffalo is a guarantee of all that is claimed for the Favorite Prescription is a regulator for the ills peculiar to women.

Send 10c, for trial pkg, to Dr, Pierce's Invalids Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sarcasm.

"Stockings!" Smithers pounded the table. "Stockings! Why, you've got gray stockings and red stockings, silk, liste thread, canton flannel, wool, demitasse and socks, stockings until-why the ceremony. The wedding took it takes two bookkeepers to balance place in the capitol dome, more than my checkbook, Mary. Stockings! You want more stockings! Say, whadda think yuh are, anyhow, a centipede?' -Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Hard to Imagine.

In whatever way it comes to pass, we know that when we see a new star we are witnessing the actual explo sion of a sun. You know what occurs when a few grains of gunpowder are ignited; try to imagine the same thing happening to a huge globe weighing billions upon billions of tons! The force created is a million billion times greater than that of an explosion of dynamite.

The Boycott.

The word boycott means to combine to refuse to work for, deal, or as sociate with or assist a person; i show a big increase last year over species of excommunication; to place previous years, according to state. merchandise under a ban to prevent ments just issued by the three insti- its sale. It was a method of intimitutions. At the close of business in dation adopted by the Irish Land December, 1923, the total deposits league in 1880, and Captain Boycott

Drinking Coffee in Bagdad.

For a cent one gets a cup of coffee

We Give What We Are.

Full of It.

An Englishman has discovered how

He is the best teacher of others who will be sent free to any address by Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Pittock Block, Portland, Oregon, upon receipt of request by card or letter.

On Building Material, Roofing Paper, Paints, Varnish, Lumber, Lath, Naiis, Shingles, Doora, Windowa, and Plumbing Supplies, New and Second Hand, Mail Orders Promptly Filled. DOLAN WRECKING & CONSTRUCTION CO. BATTERIES $10

Office & Yard, 460 Belmont St., Portland, Ore.

CUT FLOWERS & FLORAL DESIGNS Clarke Bres., Floriats, 287 Merrison St.

We started our weekly auction sales Wednesday, Nov. 21ht. If you have any-thing to consign in horses, mules, cattle, harness or wagons, also farm implements, you can ship direct to the North Portland Horse & Mule Company. Wire, write or phone Empire 0121, and we will give you prompt attention. North Portland Horse & Mule Co., No. Portland, Oregon. BUY THE BEST HORSE COLLAR MADE direct.

Hides, Pelts, Wool, Mohair, Tallow, Cascara, Oregon Grape Root. Goat Skins, Horse Hair Write for Shipping Tags & latest Price List PORTLAND HIDE & WOOL CO. 186 UNION AVENUE MORTH, PORTANO, ORTODN. Eiranch at Pocatello, Idaho

OREGON BATTERY CO. 46 Gran. Avenue, Phone, East 1000, PORTLAND, OREGON

All long rye straw stuffed. Insist on having the collar with the "Fish" Label. If

P. SHARKEY & SON

"LITE-FOOT"

Powdered

DANCE FLOOR

WAX

CLARKE,

WOODWARD

DRUG CO.

Portland. Oregon.

USED

problem, but he was too sleepy then to take the trouble to go to bed for the brief remainder of the time that he could sleep. FORDS So Timothy Fanshaw was no more refreshed than his secretary on the December morning that followed. Still a certain sort of excitement served as a stimulant to make him forget how West Side (Two Stores) East Side, 28 Nor, 11th St. and 211 Grand Ave., Fortland, weary he really was.

Dictation, however, flowed along in much the same way as usual. Timothy had a way of attending to certain of his letters, almost mechanically and Kate knew so well what he was going to say that the dashes and dots, pothooks and loops flowed out from the The late George A. Knight of Califorend of her well-sharpened pencil almost nia, who had one of the loudest voices before he had uttered the words they of any public speaker of his time, was indicated.

your dealer does not handle this brand collar, write to us Then came luncheon time. Kate had decided to approach her employer after 53 Union Av., Portland, Ore. he had eaten. She had an idea that party, whereas Knight was comparahe would be more tractable then than tively unknown. They struggled vallwhen he was hungry.

she began. "In fact, I could hardly sleep last night." She had planned this frequently interrupted by cries of beginning. But Mr. Fanshaw's reaction was not at all according to expectation, She had thought he would merely smile amusedly and continue signing letters or checks.

"What a coincidence," is what he really said, and he let the pen fall from his hand and pushed the letters back from the blotter on his large flat-topped desk. "You see, I didn't sleep either. I was very much worried. I have come to a fork in the road. I must choose speaker to continue for several which way to turn."

"So have I," said Kate. Which wasn't what she had planned to say next, but she managed to get back into her role in spite of the false cue. "I have been here almost a year, Mr. Fanshaw."

"It seems much longer," sighed Timothy Fanshaw, "We have met here day after day, rain or shine, every day but

"Yes," interrupted Kate, "and I have grown to know your work so well that I know what you are going to say before you say it." Kate was going to suggest that she could really attend to

"And I have become so well acquaint-ad with you that I know just which all the European nowary holding on pitulations in Egypt, decide civil cases between Europeans of different nationalities or between Europeans and natives. And the consular courts of the various powers decide all cases between their own nationals and charges of crime brought against such nationals. Finally the "Sharia," or native religious Moslem courts, decide all cases of inheritance and of what we should call "chancery" matters for Mohammedans, while the different patriarchal councils act in similar cases for Jews, Copts, Armenians and others. -Manchester Guardian.

Sensitive Ears.

An amusing incident, says a contributor, occurred at the Republican national convention in Chicago in 1904. one of the speakers. Among those who preceded him on the program were some of the foremost orators of the antly to make themselves heard by the "I have been rather worried lately." vast audience that filled every nook and cranny of the Collseum, but were

> "Louder! Louder!" Then came Knight's turn, and he advanced to the front of the platform. "Ladies and gentlemen," he began, and the resonant tones rolled over the astonished audience like a tidal wave.

> Before he could say another word a voice from a remote corner of the ball called out with startling distinctness, "Not so loud I" The laughter that followed made it impossible for the minutes.

> > "Van."

The Dutch have the reputation of being very economical and very careful in watching the details of domestic affairs, no matter how small. "Heiny !" called the father. "Vat?" answered the son. "Run and count dem geese again, Heiny." "All right." Heiny went; Heiny returned. "Heiny !" said the father,

"Vat?" said the son. "Did you count dem geese agein, Heiny?"

"Yes." "How many vas dey, Heiny?"

"Van."

"Dat's right, Heiny."

shop of the Lane Automobile com- co is smoked. The coffee shop is the pany's garage on Pearl street com Bourse for the natives.

pletely ruined the interior of the building occupied on the lower floor Roman Soldiers Fed Hard-Tack. by the automobile company and on Hard-tack, similar to the war bis cuit supplied to modern armies, was the upper floor by the Oregon apartmonts, entailing a loss estimated bean article of food for the Roman sol tween $80,000 and $90,000. diers during the Second and Third centuries, A. D.

Salem .- County school superintendents who have been in Salem the past week grading papers in the recent teachers' examinations completed is best taught himself; that which we their duties Saturday night. Several hundred papers were graded, and know and love we cannot but comthese have been turned over to the municate .- Thomas Arnold. state superintendent of schools. Announcement of the results probably will be made within the next few days. John Day.-Supervisor Reid of the to make elecricity from wind. This Malheur national forest announces a being so we know a lot of fellows who meeting to be held in Canyon City are human power plants.

January 16 in the Interest of stockgrowers and other persons interested in the forest reserves. Grazing Examiner Dalton, who has charge of general supervision of the appraisal work for this division, and J. E. Snow, president of the Grant County Stockgrowers' association, will attend.

Albany .- Although risking an injunction, the county court decided to proceed with the 1924 tax levy under the old hudget law and in doing so published the budget in Albany newspapers Saturday. A public hearing on the budget will be held January 26. This procedure is about a month overdue but unless someone enters a suit against extending the tax after the hearing the court will proceed under the old law.

Grants Pass .- A mammoth redwood measuring 23 feet across the butt and 70 feet in circumference, was cut this week in the Redwood forest, near Croscent City, Cal., on the Redwood highway. The tree, which was 300 feet tall, was the largest over cut by the sawmill operating in that vicinity. It will furnish 250,000 feet of lumber. enough to keep the mill running for three days and it will furnish a cargo Are You Satisfied? BUSINESS COLLEGE for two steamers of the size now en-tering the Crescent City harbor. It is pointed out that 50 cottages, each containing 5000 feet of lumber, could West Fit yourself for a higher positions with more money. Permanent positions assured our Graduates. Write for eatslog-Fourth and Yamhil Pertland. for two steamers of the size now enbe erected from the lumber cut from Portland. this single tree. P. N. U.

Dogs Traced Back to Pharaohs. Hounds of the same breed which were pets of the Pharaohs, Egypt's ancient rulers, were exhibited at the re cent dog show in London. MIRRORS AND GLASS

Central Mirror & Glass Works

Manufacturers of High Grade French Mirrors; Beveling; Damaged Mirrors Re-silvered, 400 a square foot, and Mirrors Framed. Glass for Auto Curtaina, Wind-shields, Headlights and all Purpose. 355 Wheeler Street, Fortland, Oregon.

GLASSES WILL SAVE YOUR EYES Expert fitting at lowest prices. All styles of Glasses. Lemes duplicated from broken pisces. Mail in your bro-ken glasses. Satisfaction Goaranteed. Dr. A. E. Hurwitz, 223 First St., Portland, Ore.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

noved without injury to the skin by Ney-Born Interest Republic on request. Ney-Born Lab-Depilatory. Sample on request. Ney-Bor eratories, 519 Morgan Bidg., Portland, Oreg

No. 2, 1924

Paris,-A simple worm scientifically is now engaged in producing an antiknown as "galleria-mellonella," may be tubercular serum on which the famous the salvation of millions of human Pasteur institute pins high hopes, lives, according to the conclusions of Professor Metalnikov, Russian savantof the Pasteur institute, after experiments lasting since 1908.

absolutely Immune to tuberculosia. From its blood the Russian scientist old.

Boy Kills Pal in "Indian" Game. Quincy, IIL-While the two, with most of his correspondence and therefour other boys, were playing "Indian," fore might become more valuable to The "galleria-mellonella." according Grady McKay, eighteen years old, of him. But Timothy Fanshaw interruptto Metalnikov, is the only living thing Quincy, was shot to death by his com- ed. panion, Charles Hadsell, thirteen years

