Mr. Chaffee go this hand vory badly cut Wednesday while helping the government man cut hay for poisoning rabbits. Part of one finger was nearly cut off, but he may be able to save it.

Mrs. H. G. Harrison left last week for a visit to Portland and Seaside. Mr. Harrison has been at Seaside for some time. Wahnona Rands accompanied her as far as Hood River.

Malcom Haseltine, wife and three daughters of New Plymouth, Idaho, made a brief visit at the C. G. Blayden home on Wednesday. They were on their way to Corvallis.

SPAGLE-PACKARD

Amid a number of friends and relatives, Miss Glaudiva Belle Packard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard of Boardman, and Lowell Spagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spagle of Hubbard, Ore., were united in marriage Sunday at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins. Miss Packard looked lovely in a gown of baby blue crepe de chine with silver ribbon. Miss Edna Broyles, close friend of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, wearing a beautiful gown of delicate pink with all-over lace. Howard Packard, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Rev. Hughes of Umatilla and Boardman performed the ring ceremony on the lawn. The bride carried a bouquet of beautiful fern and bride rosebuds.

A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Mamie Packard and Mrs. Anna Jenkins assisted by others. Mrs. Nizer made the wedding cake, which was delicious; and Mrs. Louise Rands made the bridal cake.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spagle and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller of Hubbard, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nizer, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Warren, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Broyles, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Rands, Mr. Chas. Barnes, Mr. Ople Waggoner, Mr. Elmer Westervelt, Alveria Jenkins, Master Marcus Spagle, Mrs. Irene Sprague, Misses Ethel and Erma Broyles, all of Boardman.

Mrs. Spagle is one of Boardman's most accomplished and popular young ladies. Beautiful gifts too numerous to mention were received by the happy couple, including a rolling pin sent by Chester Packard from Seattle, the bride's uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Spagle will reside in Boardman, Mr. Spagle being employed by the state highway commission for the present.

Their many friends extend heartiest congratulations.

Due to the extreme dry weather jackrabbits have come in on the Boardman and Irrigon districts in large numbers. In an effort to work out a better method of summer poisoning, County Agent Morse arranged with the U. S. Biological Survey to send Mr. F. E. Garlough to work out a better method. Mr. Garlough is now in the Boardman and Irrigon districts and we expect to have some results within the next week. Mr. Garlough spent the ten days prior to July 7 along Willow Creek, where the poison that was working in other sections was not working. A satisfactory system of poisoning was worked out and Mr. Roy Fugate, of the Biological Survey is in the district now showing the farmers how to use the poison. He will be transferred to the Irrigon and Boardman districts as soon as a satisfactory system of poisoning is worked out.

It will not be possible, nor is it intended to come in each man's land and poison his rabbits. It is impossible with the limited time these men can help to do more than demonstrate to the farmers in the various communities the methods of mixing and putting out poison.

On Thursday, July 10, at Heppner, Oregon, occurred the marriage of Miss Hannah Gorham of Holdrege, Neb., and Frank Ackerman of Los Angeles. Mrs. Ackerman is a sister of Jack Gorham and came here recently for a visit at his home. Mr. Ackerman drove up from Los Angeles and soon afterward motored to Heppner, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham, and where they were married. They left on Monday for Los Angeles, where they expect to make their home. The Mirror extends congratulations.

Henry Klages and son, Fred, had a very narrow escape recently when they were blinded by the lights of an approaching car just below Arlington, and their Ford was pushed off the road and they fell over a fifty foot embankment. They were scratched some but neither seriously injured. The other driver was an Arlington resident.

Fred Graham and family have moved into the Albert Macomber house. Mrs. Graham and two children and her sister, Mrs. Johnson, and two children are visiting their mother at Brogan, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came here recently from Kelso, Wash., and Mr. Johnson is driving a state highway truck.

Clark Boardman of New York City came last Thursday for a visit at the S. H. Boardman home. He came by way of Los Angeles and left Monday morning for home, going over the Canadian Pacific. Mr. Boardman is a publisher in New York and the trip was made in the interest of his work.

Mrs. Gibbons and Norma and Mrs. Frank Cramer and grandson, Basil, left Wednesday night for Portland where they will visit at the Albright home and then go on to Monmouth. Mrs. Gibbons is compelled to spend the larger part of the summer in the valley because of hay fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walker and three children were visitors at the A. T. Hereim home, coming on Monday evening and departing Tuesday. They motored up from their home at Torrance, Calif., by way of the coast route and are returning by the Pacific highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spagle, father and mother, and son, Marcus, brother of Lowell Spagle, and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller uncle and aunt, all of Hubbard, Ore., spent a few days in Boardman, returning home Monday.

FOREST FIRE:—A very large and disastrous result from a very little carelessness.

At the request of President Charles Wesley Tenney, the editor has again been asked to announce through the columns of this paper that the trustees of Gooding College will award a $50.00 scholarship to the honor graduate of the local high school for the fall term which opens September 9th.

In case the valedictorian does not accept, the honor will be open to some other graduate provided he has a good high school record and is recommended by his local principal and pastor.

This help, together with the offer of Gooding College to give all worthy students an opportunity to work for half their board and room, will make it possible for many worthy young men and young women to attend college this year who would otherwise not be able to go.

Tony Campanelli, section boss at Coyote, was married to Mrs. Webb from Spokane on Sunday at Heppner. C. G. Blayden took the bride and groom and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dingmon over to Heppner.
