Candler Loves Horses

Walter Candler, son of Asa G. Candler, the Atlanta (Ga.) millionaire, who is striving to develop the finest racing stable in the South, has just added 19 racing horses to his stable near Decatur, Ga., bringing the total of racing horses up to 60. Although many times a millionaire, Mr. Candler is a confirmed lover of horses. In the photograph is shown Mr. Candler driving "Bogalousa," one of his fine racing horses, on his own track at Decatur.

OFFICIAL DESIGN OF THE OLD OREGON TRAIL ASSOCIATION

The design of the ox team and covered wagon symbolizes the spirit of the old west. It typifies vision, endurance, hope, suffering and final accomplishment. Over the Old Oregon Trail from the Missouri river the covered wagons came and won an empire for the United States. The design is the work of Avard Fairbanks of the University of Oregon.

Boardman Utellem

Edited by the Students of the Boardman High School - FOURTH YEAR, 1924-1925 - FRIDAY JANUARY 9, 1925

The manual training boys did one fine piece of work before the holidays. The Christmas spirit made a strong demand for toys and that gave Mr. Griggs an idea. Why not the boys make enough for all? To make a long story short, let us state in simple word that the desire of almost the whole of the grade school was met, and not a few of the high school boys shared in the fine assortment of well constructed toys.

After the holidays the high school drawing class will specialize in tracing and blue printing.

Mr. Griggs spent the Christmas in Yakima; Miss Sears went to Bend, Mrs. Deggendorfer to Idaho and the rest of the faculty went to Willamette valley points.

Supt. J. O. Russell was a delegate from Morrow County to the State Teachers' Association and was in attendance at Portland the last three days in December. Mrs. Russell and Elmo accompanied him on the trip.

The big Christmas program at the school was a success as it should be, many nice gifts were received by every pupil present. Hurrah for Santa Claus!

Basket ball is the chief item for discussion since the opening of school January 5. At a recent meeting of the boys, Elmo Russell was elected as captain for 1925 season and Edward McCellan business manager. The boys are looking forward to a successful season.

The Boardman girls are lining up for a series of games too. Thyra M. Beck is the newly elected captain and Violet Gilbreth the manager. The girls are getting out to regular practices and it appears that there will be close competition for places on the first team.

Thyra Beck and Edna Reinhardt were absent from school all day Wednesday. We wonder why?

Russell Mefford has returned to school after a slight illness. The freshman class furnished most of the news for this issue of 'Utellem' Good work for the Freshmen.

The noon hour has been lengthened to one hour since January 7th. This will give more time for the basketball teams to practice. All get out and help the teams get the real kind of practice.

The walls of the high school session room were given a new coating of tinting. The color is a light tan with a cream color for ceiling.

Midyear final examinations will begin Wednesday morning at nine o'clock sharp. Hurry with those reviews.

The Physics Class has completed work for the first semester except a little reviewing and the final exam.

The high school girls played an exciting game of basket ball on Wednesday afternoon. They play at home on the 9th.

Miss Irene Jensen of Walla Walla and a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college is to take up the work of Mrs. Deggendorfer in the school. We are glad to welcome you Miss Jensen, into our school and into our community.

AFTER DINNER SPEECHES

The First Year I Taught School Ladies and Gentlemen, I have been asked to tell you about my first year of teaching school. Like a great many "would be" teachers, I looked forward to my first school, which was in the country. There were but ten pupils, four girls and six boys. I thought that it would be as easy as pie, as the saying goes, but in this I was sadly mistaken. The children had found out that it was my first school, so they decided to make it hard for me. They soon decided that this was not a good

Your Conversation "SALARY"

The only thing which relieves the blues which most of us feel at the first of the month is the "salary" check, which just about covers our bills. "Salary" is derived from the "salarium," or salt money, which formerly was a definite part of the money received by soldiers in the armies of Imperial Rome. Eventually the word came to mean the entire pay received. Salt was originally enough of a luxury to justify a designated sum for its purchase in each pay envelope.

MICKIE SAYS—

THERE'S SUCH A THING AS BEIN' TOO MUCH OF A GOOD FELLER AROUND A NEWSPAPER OFFICE! IF WE GIVE AWAY OUR SPACE, WHERE ARE WE GOIN' TO GET TH' MONEY TO PAY OUR BILLS? FOLKS DON'T THINK OF THAT WHEN THEY ASK GRIEVED BECUZ WE ASK CASH FER OUR SPACE

Editors Understand. Two persons were tried the same day by the same judge in a municipal court in Boston, according to the press. One of them was found guilty and fined for sounding his horn and the other for not sounding it. We understand this experience.—The Baptist.

FITTED FOR THE SPORT

Cigars and Statesmen. Great men in days gone by would plan with smoke to register their claims. I hope that they were better than Cigars that bear their honored names.

More Practical. The Convent—Did you have my brown suit cleaned and pressed while I was in the hospital? His Wife—No. I had your black suit fixed up. I thought that would be better in case anything should happen.—Judge.

Older and Wiser. "When I was a young man, I worked 12 hours a day." Son—I admire your youthful energy, dad, but I admire still more the mature wisdom which led you to stop it.—The Continent.

What They Laugh at in London. Movie Vamp—Haven't you a tighter gown than this? Tired Wardrobe Manager—No, madam. I'm a costumer, not a taxidermist.

Value of Being Able to Debate

I think that every high school should teach debating and public speaking and should organize debating teams among the pupils. A person who is schooled in this art can always be distinguished among numbers of persons who are not. This reminds me, somewhat, of a story that I heard some time ago which goes something like this: Traveler, "Hey, son where's your father?" Deacon Millers son, "Paw is down in the pig pen. You'll know him cause he's got a hat on." This is the way with a good debater, you can always pick him out in a crowd, not because he has a hat on, but by the way he talks.

Debating and public speaking is used in every day life, you cannot get away from it.

All agents, senators, peddlers, or any public officers have to be debaters. There are two sides to every question and these people must know how to convince their opponents whenever they happen to be.

Practice in debating helps to put a student in school at his ease, so when in later life, he has to speak before a large audience he will be able to do so without the least hesitation and can put over his argument good and strong.
