ARGUMENT HEARD ON OREGON SCHOOL LAW

Washington, D. C.—The compulsory education law of Oregon, requiring that after September of next year all children between the ages of 8 and 16, with a few exceptions, shall attend public schools, was reached in the supreme court Monday for oral argument in two cases brought by the state to have set aside the injunction of the federal district court against its enforcement.
Although it was thought the cases might not bring a sweeping opinion from the court on the constitutional right of states to control the education of children within their borders, the controversy has attracted wide attention in education and religious circles. The array of counsel brought into court included former Senator George E. Chamberlain, W. S. Moore, A. H. Putney and P. Q. Nyce for the state, William W. Guthrie, for the society of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, and John C. Veatch, for the Hill Military academy.

SIGNERS OF RECALL WIN

Kelso City Attorney's Charge of Libel Not Sustained.
Kelso, Wash.—Judge Campbell of Grays Harbor county, sitting for Judge Kirby, sustained the demurrer filed by Attorney Casey for 14 defendants charged with criminal libel for signing the recall charges against City Attorney Stone. Judge Campbell held that the right to sign a recall charge is the privilege conferred by the statutes and that a signer of recall charges must not be guilty of libel, even though the recall charge is untrue.
The decision will be appealed to the supreme court by Mr. Stone, who was charged with "conspiracy with liquor law violation" in the recall petitions.

Senator George H. Moses

Senator Moses of New Hampshire, who was named by Republicans in the senate to be president pro tem of that body. His nomination is virtually an appointment as his party has a majority in the new senate.

One on Pete.
Tenderfoot—What are you laughing about? What's so funny about drinking poison moonshine?
Cyclone Zip—Well, when we started ter drink it out West 'ere, Pizen Pete, the snake eater and the worst old rumsoak 'ereabouts, was the only one of us ter git sick.
As Others See Her.
Miss Oldsmith—But, doctor, don't you think these glasses make me look lots older?
The Oculist—No, I don't think so, unless you look in the mirror.

GILY TONGUE
"How plausibly these gasoline men talk about the price!"
"Yes; they've got the gily tongues, I'll say."
Pardons.
The wicked elf will go his way in paths of bewitchy ways if when he's caught he need but say politely, "Pardou me."

Arms Parley Resolution is Offered.
Washington, D. C.—Senator Shipstead, farmer-labor, Minnesota, introduced a resolution declaring the senate in readiness to receive from President Coolidge proposals for concluding international agreements for the limitation of armaments, for the prohibition of warfare and for codification of the rules of warfare. The resolution was ordered to lie on the table.

OFFICIAL DESIGN OF THE OLD OREGON TRAIL ASSOCIATION

The design of the ox team and covered wagon symbolizes the spirit of the old west. It typifies vision, endurance, hope, suffering and final accomplishment. Over the Old Oregon Trail from the Missouri river the covered wagons came and won an empire for the United States. The design is the work of Avard Fairbanks of the University of Oregon.
