ASHLAND DAILY TIDINGS

VOL. XXXII
ASHLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1918
NUMBER 11

"IF PEOPLE UNDERSTAND TREATY, IT WILL BE DEFENDED," WITNESS SAYS, LANSING TOLD HIM

FEET ENTERS PUGET SOUND

BY HUGH BILLING

The United States Navy on Thursday occupied Seattle for the purpose of forming an expedition to bring aid to the Chinese Communists in opposition to the war with Japan. The expedition will be composed of the battleship Oregon, the monitor USS Oregon, and several smaller craft.

BABY WILSON OBJECTS TO MRS. WILSON'S KISS

BY J. W. PAYNE

Mrs. Wilson, who is currently in New York, today announced that she would not be in attendance at the Wilsons' wedding on Saturday. The announcement was made by influence from the White House.

THREE NATIONS IN AIR RACE

The United States, England, and France will compete in an air race next week. The race will be over a course of 200 miles, and the American team will be represented by Charles Lindbergh.

"NEVER AGAIN!" SAY MAGNATES

The leaders of the railroad magnates' association have declared that they will never again allow their companies to be used for the transportation of troops or munitions.

BOSTON SITUATION NOW WELL IN HAND BUT GENERAL STRIKE FELT

The situation in Boston has improved since the general strike began, but there is still a general feeling of dissatisfaction among the workers.

MISSION COMES FROM PORTO RICO

The Mission of the Porto Rican Missionary Society arrived in Ashland yesterday. They are on their way to the mission stations in Oregon.

TALENT CHURCH FREE FROM DEBT

The Talent M.E. church has raised over $6,000 to pay off the mortgage on the church. The church was built on land donated by the late John Talent, who was a member of the church.

WILSON IN IDAHO

President Wilson is in Idaho, where he is speaking at the State University. He is expected to return to the White House tomorrow.

FRISCO MARKETS

The Frisco Markets are open for business today. The market is well stocked with fresh produce.

ASHLAND DAILY TIDINGS

VOL. XXXII
ASHLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1918
NUMBER 11

"IF PEOPLE UNDERSTAND TREATY, IT WILL BE DEFENDED," WITNESS SAYS, LANSING TOLD HIM

FEET ENTERS PUGET SOUND

BY HUGH BILLING

The United States Navy on Thursday occupied Seattle for the purpose of forming an expedition to bring aid to the Chinese Communists in opposition to the war with Japan. The expedition will be composed of the battleship Oregon, the monitor USS Oregon, and several smaller craft.

BABY WILSON OBJECTS TO MRS. WILSON'S KISS

BY J. W. PAYNE

Mrs. Wilson, who is currently in New York, today announced that she would not be in attendance at the Wilsons' wedding on Saturday. The announcement was made by influence from the White House.

THREE NATIONS IN AIR RACE

The United States, England, and France will compete in an air race next week. The race will be over a course of 200 miles, and the American team will be represented by Charles Lindbergh.

"NEVER AGAIN!" SAY MAGNATES

The leaders of the railroad magnates' association have declared that they will never again allow their companies to be used for the transportation of troops or munitions.

BOSTON SITUATION NOW WELL IN HAND BUT GENERAL STRIKE FELT

The situation in Boston has improved since the general strike began, but there is still a general feeling of dissatisfaction among the workers.

MISSION COMES FROM PORTO RICO

The Mission of the Porto Rican Missionary Society arrived in Ashland yesterday. They are on their way to the mission stations in Oregon.

TALENT CHURCH FREE FROM DEBT

The Talent M.E. church has raised over $6,000 to pay off the mortgage on the church. The church was built on land donated by the late John Talent, who was a member of the church.

WILSON IN IDAHO

President Wilson is in Idaho, where he is speaking at the State University. He is expected to return to the White House tomorrow.

FRISCO MARKETS

The Frisco Markets are open for business today. The market is well stocked with fresh produce.