Young People Wedded

Miss Georgia Hendricks and Frank Bright back, two popular young people of Ashland went to Jacksonville Saturday evening and were married by Judge G. A. Gardner. The wedding was a very quiet affair on account of the recent death of the bride's father, the late Joseph Hendricks, who was killed in an automobile accident on the Glenview drive in the summer. On returning to Ashland a fine wedding supper was served the bride and groom at the home of Mrs. M. C. Ferguson. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Brightback and Harold Hendricks, the latter's brother, were entertained at the home of the bride's uncle, Frank Hendricks, south of Ashland.

Women have come to know that these are shoes of utmost reliability, that they fit with perfection, that they serve longer than ordinary shoes and that they reflect a personality of style that can be enjoyed with rare delight.

EVENING STYLES IN BOOTS show Louis heels—high and slender, to be favorites. The long, slender vamp effects are both attractive and graceful. Some of the really aristocratic numbers have vamps of patent, dark Russia, tan or black calf, with toppings of light tan or tawn buckskin.

EASY WALKING BOOTS ARE POPULAR and the favored styles are all dark tan or black calfskin, with the new custom last and straight Cuban heel. Soles are welted and while light in appearance possess a quality that assures good wear.

These are models—$8.50 to $12.00.
