RAILROADING ON QUICKSAND

Collier's National Weekly cannot be successfully termed a reactionary, but admits that our national railway system is in danger. It does not propose to help the stamper into socialism, the trick of the demagogue when the logic of facts is against his contention. It says the condition of the railroads has not pleased anyone for a long time, neither investors, workers, nor the general public. "Supervision was an incomplete success; control is an admitted failure. The roads are on a foundation of shifting sand." Their disposal is "the master problem of this country, affecting industry, commerce, and, primarily, the cost of living." The Plumb plan "promises reduced expenditure, higher wages, and better service,—a veritable golden age of railroading." It is not a plan that will meet with approval of the American people, who prefer the play of open economic forces to any cinch program. The Plumb plan would not encourage private investment in any public utility but would overthrow the whole system of private enterprise. Any avaricious selfish group could attack any large group of industries and overthrow them on the specious plea of sharing ownership. How can the Plumb plan propose to share in profits where there are none, and none would be permitted by the grasping control of unions. Capital has never made the demands for increased profits that the Brotherhoods have demanded at the hands of the government and got them. Better systems, greater efficiency, elimination of waste motion, says Collier's, can do more for the railways than abolishing capital.

FOOTBALL STRONG AT O. A. C.

CORVALLIS, Oct. 18.—Football prospects at O. A. C. are brighter than for many years. Many former stars have returned from war service where they were big factors in army, navy, marine and aviation football. More important still is the fact that the new policy of "Every man out for the game he can play best," has developed naturally and without strain the best men for the various places. The line-up includes almost two full teams who have won letters in former years by playing in a majority of O. A. C. games. They want to win the conference championship. They are determined to win public approval.

WARNS DRIVERS TO NOT RACE TRAIN

The Public Service Commission of Oregon is sending out bulletins to automobile owners in the state explaining the nature and intent of the various kinds of warning signs at the grade crossings on the railroads in order to materially decrease the number of accidents. The bulletin states that warning signs are merely notices of grade crossings. The driver's safety and that of his friends or his family is dependent upon his vigilance, prudence and ability to drive. The speed of a train is very deceptive, consequently with life forfeit, drivers are warned not to race a train to a crossing—he may lose. The Commission urgently requests that it be promptly notified of such physical conditions, surrounding any particular crossing, as tend to increase the hazard. Obstructions of view, difficult approaches, poor roadway construction, absence of warning signs, etc., should be brought to their attention.

Jamaica Ginger Jag a Bad One

(By the United Press)
SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 17.—William B. Stewart purchased some Jamaica ginger with the idea of getting drunk, all right, but he certainly had no intention of getting a wife thrown in for good measure. But he got her just the same. Stewart woke up the morning following his jag with a splitting head and the realization he had been sleeping in a woodshed. But that wasn't so bad, for it was his own shed, and his house was only a few feet away. Entering the back door, he was surprised to have arms thrown about his neck and to receive a few kisses. Pretty soft, he thought. While still Re-insulating a battery is about the most expensive repair there is. And there's only one kind of battery in general use that isn't practically certain to be re-insulated—or junked—within the next year or two. That one exception is the Willard Battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation. Come in and we'll tell you why.

embraced, he started to introduce himself. "What, don't you know your own wife?" Drawing away, Stewart became more than surprised—he was horrified for he found that he had been in the arms of a negress. And the worst of it was, she had a marriage certificate to prove Stewart had married her. It later developed that his bride is 70 years old, and has four grown sons. Stewart is 45. Stewart wants his status quo restored and has filed a petition in superior court for annulment of his marriage.

SALVATION ARMY ON A GOOD WILL MISSION.
BERLIN.—(By Mail)—The Salvation Army—that institution which many an American toughboy will remember kindly through the years—has started a campaign based on Central Europe's looking toward creation with more of the spirit of "peace on earth, good will to men." Headquarters of the organization, maintained here during the war, but unable to operate extensively because of its allied connections, has reopened fully and has begun the task of establishing branches at Prague, Vienna, Budapest and all through the Balkans. Col. Treite, in charge of the local headquarters, declared it will be the aim of the central Europe campaign to offer solace to these troubled nations through calming their spirits and their lives. The army will work to wipe out hatreds engendered during the war, and to revive friendly intercourse, he said.
