RETURNING ITALIANS SHOW WEAKNESS OF U. S. LAWS

The vanguard of the host of Italians who sailed with their families and their savings for their native land as speedily as possible after the armistice was signed returned to New York last week, on the steamship Dante Alighieri. There were 800 of them, all traveling steerage, and they prophesied that their disappointed countrymen would fill westbound ships for months to come.

Turbulent Italy, they declared, has no place today for thrifty sons returning from foreign shores. Food, rent, clothes and fuel are at prohibitive prices, they said, and profiteers throng on every side to pounce upon the unwary.

This news item might equally well have applied to any one of the southern nations of Europe from which our immigrants have come for the past decade. It points to a sinister menace that is becoming clearer to those Americans who have eyes to see. It means that Americanization, as applied to many of our foreign-born citizens, is a flat failure.

Aside from the fact that less than ten percent of these same immigrants even go through the form of taking out citizenship papers; aside from the fact that more than one-half of the workmen in our fundamental industries, iron, steel and coal, are foreigners, there remains the bitter truth that we have a huge and undigested alien population within our boundaries, which has come here for what there is in it, and is interested in only what it can get out of our country, and eager to return to home lands with its earnings at the first possible moment.

Theodore Roosevelt said, "Unless we are thorough-going Americans and unless our patriotism is part of the very fibre of our being, we can neither serve God nor take our own part. Whatever may be the case in an infinitely remote future, at present no people can render any service to humanity unless as a people they feel an intense sense of national cohesion and solidarity.
 The man who loves other nations as much as he does his own, stands on a par with the man who loves other women as much as he does his own wife. The United States can accomplish little for mankind, save in so far as within its borders it develops an intense spirit of Americanism."

His words are worth pondering.
 Beyond and above and below any other need is the need for the immigrant to learn the language of the land of his adoption. Until he can speak and read English he is helpless. Until he knows the language of the Declaration of Independence, he is a menace.

One of the priceless legacies left us by Theodore Roosevelt was his clear vision and powerful words on this problem. He knew; and we can do well to remember what he said.

Farewell Dinner
 Mrs. G. N. Kramer gave a dinner at her house Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Miller who will leave Ashland soon for Sacramento to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Kramer were seated at the table.

Hallowe'en Party
 The teachers of the Hawthorne school have issued invitations to the teachers in the Senior High and Junior High schools to a Hallowe'en party to take place in the Hawthorne school building Friday evening, November 1.

Young People, Attention!
 The session of the Sunday school convention for Friday evening is for your special benefit. Harold F.
 Humbert will give his splendid address, "The Torch of Flanders."

We have challenged the young people of Medford to produce one to our two for that meeting. Each side will be counted. The winning side will be permitted to give a yell. So it is up to you to keep up our reputation. For further particulars see John Rigg, yell master.

Not only come yourself, but bring your yell with you.

Family Reunion
 Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Pohland are enjoying a reunion of their children at their home on the Boulevard this week. These are John Pohland of Reno, Nev.; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolcott and little daughter, Carolyn Marie, of Marshfield; Mrs. Roy Walker and children, Albert and Dorothea, of Cordova, Alaska. Next Sunday the christening of Dorothea Walker and Carolyn Marie Wolcott will take place at the family residence, by Rev. C. A. Edwards of the Methodist church. This event will be celebrated on the third birthday of Dorothea, while the little Carolyn Marie will be seven weeks old. Mrs.
 Wolcott and Mrs. Walker expect to remain some time with their parents.

Enjoyable Card Party
 The card party given by the Elks ladies Tuesday afternoon was a very enjoyable event. Mrs. G. U. Hile and Mrs. W. H. McNair dispensed hospitality to the guests present, and the afternoon was spent playing bridge.
 The prize for proficiency fell to Mrs.
 J. H. McGee. Another of these pleasant events will be given in two weeks from that date.

Attend Red Cross Meeting
 A number of home service workers of the Red Cross organization of this city went down to Medford Tuesday afternoon to a meeting which was called there by the Jackson county chapter. Rev. P. K. Hammond and Mrs. F. W. Mears both gave excellent reports of the meeting in Portland last month, and plans were laid for the winter's work of the Red Cross chapters throughout the county. A drive for membership in the Red Cross will start November 2 and will continue until Armistice Day, November 11.
 This will not be a campaign to raise money, as the local chapter has sufficient funds to meet the call that will be made on it, but a permanent organization will be effected to look after the home service work. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond both made a

GOOD SPEAKERS FOR CONVENTION

The Jackson County Sunday school convention which will be held in the Methodist church of Ashland three days, beginning tomorrow, Friday, and extending over Sunday, is attracting much attention among Sunday school workers in the county and large delegations are expected at every service. State officers and prominent workers in Sunday schools throughout the state will be present and address the various sessions, while good music will be an attractive feature.

The popular meetings in the evenings will be addressed by good speakers. Among these will be Harold F.
 Humbert, who will deliver his address, "The Torch of Flanders," Friday evening; and J. J. Handsaker, who will speak on "They Shall Not Perish," Saturday evening. Sunday afternoon Rev. J. E. Gilbert, the new Methodist minister of Medford, will deliver an address on "The Task of Religious Education." Sunday evening Harold F. Humbert will again deliver an address on "The Armor of God."

ANCIENT BILL OF SALE A CURIOSITY

John S. Bliss of 180 Harrison street, brought into the Daily Tidings office recently a clipping of great age from a Pike county, Missouri, newspaper giving an account of a sale bill that had been held in that county in 1846. Mr. Bliss says this clipping has been in his possession for thirty years or more, and the sale reads as follows:
 "Public Sale
 "State of Missouri, county of Pike. To Whom It May Concern: The undersigned will on Tuesday, September 29, A. D. 1846, sell at public outcry for cash on premises where Coon creek crosses the old Mission road, the following chattels, to-wit: Six yoke oxen with yoke and chains, 2 wagons with beds, 3 nigger wenches, 4 buck niggers, 3 nigger boys, 2 prairie plows, 25 steel traps, 1 barrel pickled cabbage, 1 hoghead tobacco.

1 lot of nigger shoes, 1 spinning wheel, 1 loom, 12 fox hounds, a lot of coon, mink and skunk skins, and a lot of other articles. Am gwine to California. Free head-cheese, apples and hard cider.—Alvin Knisley."

Every one denies any responsibility for the high cost of living. Of course. No one is guilty. Prices just naturally jumped of their own accord.

With shorter days and longer nights, and with the approach of Jack Frost, we feel it a duty to remind you that the oxford season is at an end and that Dame Fashion commands you to select your Fall boots.

Fortunately, although not without surmounting the difficulties arising through a scarcity of leather and other post-war conditions familiar to you, we placed our order with Utz & Dunn early. As a result we are able to offer you a splendid selection of boots at reasonable prices.

The delightful models are on the shelves and some of the styles grace the window. You will admire them, we know. These boots have every new and worthy point of style. May we have the pleasure of a call?
