SAYS CIGARETTE MUST GO
CINCINNATI, Ohio.—Pastors of churches of the Disciples of Christ met at the Central Christian church recently, apart from the international convention meeting, and formed the first national ministerial association in the history of the organization for the purpose of emphasizing the truths of the restoration movement as taught in the New Testament and opposing any and all tendencies toward rationalism, higher criticism and "open membership"—that is, reception of members into the church without immersion.

Dr. Charles True Wilson, temperance secretary of the Methodist Episcopal church, told the convention that "the cigarette must go" as one of the "next moves of the reformers." Others given are Sabbath observance and world prohibition.

Owing to the new law increasing the wages of laundry workers and the high cost of production, we find it necessary to make a slight advance in laundry work prices.

Something About "The Brat"

Nazimova's great production, "The Brat," which comes to the Vining theater on Sunday next for a two days' engagement, is the story of the ennobling influences of love. Its heroine and dominating character is a waif of the city's slums who has never known any name save "the brat." To eke out a precarious existence she plays in the chorus of a cheap musical comedy. But the pitance she receives for wages is not enough to clothe her in even the half-decent style of the other girls. "Fired" for being shabby, she faces the world desperate. A masher insults her; she slaps his face and is hailed to the Night Court on an outrageous charge falsely made up by the man she rebuffed. There a celebrated author salvages her from the human wrecks awaiting justice for their misdemeanors. He takes her home to study her as the heroine of his forthcoming novel. Love is kindled and fanned to flame—but jealousy stalks in its wake; and there ensues a drama of heart-throbs and smiles, with surprises and tremendously moving climaxes. By reason of her simple faith the odd little "brat" eventually triumphs after heartburnings and sacrifices that touch the whole narrative with the superb qualities of genius.
