Ways to Cook Inexpensive Meats

LAMB STEW
Breast of lamb, 2 pounds; boiling water, 2 cups; potatoes, 4, medium-sized, quartered and parboiled; onion, 1, sliced; rice, 2 tablespoons; tomato, strained, 1 cupful, or tomato ketchup, 1 tablespoon; salt and pepper. Brown the onion in a little of the fat in a saucepan; put with it the meat, cut roughly into cube-shaped pieces, about one and a half inches thick, and sprinkled with salt and pepper. Cover with boiling water; heat this to the boiling point again, then let it simmer directly over the heat for two hours; or cook it over hot water for three hours, or until the meat is tender. After one hour of simmering add the rice; half an hour before dishing the stew add the potatoes; when they are done remove the bones and the pieces of fat, stir in the tomato or ketchup, add salt and pepper, if needed, and serve.

Breast of lamb, while rather wasteful in appearance, is one of the most economical parts of the animal. It is always less in price than the loin or leg, and can be used in many different ways. The small, soft bones add flavor to this particular cut, which is not the case in any other cut of lamb. It may be stuffed and baked or breaded and baked, served with tomato sauce.

ROLLED FLANK OF BEEF
One flank steak, or one pound of top-round steak, one half inch thick; suet, 2 or 3 small slices; carrot, cubed, 1/4 cupful; onion, 1 small one, sliced; boiling water or stock, 1 cupful. Stuffing made from: Soft bread crumbs, 1 cupful; celery, cut fine, 2 tablespoons; melted butter, 2 tablespoons; salt, 1/2 teaspoon; parsley, cut fine, 2 tablespoons; paprika, 1-8 teaspoon; onion juice, 1 teaspoon. Trim the edges of the steak, spread over it the stuffing, roll and tie and lay in a pan on the onion and carrot, with the suet on top. Pour the water or stock into the pan; cook closely covered for 20 minutes or more in a hot oven; then uncover and cook thirty minutes longer. Serve with brown gravy made from the drippings in the pan.

TRAINED BEEF
Three pounds of beef from lower part of round, two thin slices fat salt pork, carrot, turnip, onion, celery, 1/4 cup each, cut in dice. Salt and pepper. Try out pork and remove scraps. Wipe meat, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour, and brown entire surface in pork fat. When turning meat, avoid piercing with fork or skewer, which allows the inner juices to escape. Place in deep heavy pan or earthen pudding dish, and surround with vegetables and three cups boiling water, cover closely and bake four hours in very slow oven, basting every half hour and turning after second hour. Throughout the cooking the liquid should be kept below the boiling point. Serve with horseradish sauce, or with sauce made from liquor in pan.

ROUND STEAK EN CASSEROLE
Cut round steak in pieces about two inches square; roll in flour and let brown in salt pork fat or drippings; remove to a casserole and add broth or hot water to cover; add more fat to the pan and in it brown a small onion for each service; add these to the casserole; cover and let cook about two hours, or until nearly tender; for each service add two small strips of carrot and half a dozen cubes of potato, parboiled and browned in a frying pan; also salt and pepper as needed, and let cook until the vegetables are tender. Serve from the large dish or in individual casseroles.

Braising is steaming meat in its own juices in the oven—a method suitable for solid pieces of meat not tender enough for roasting, but of better quality than those utilized in soups and stews. The retention of steam under a cover, together with basting with the broth, keeps the meat moist enough to permit the juices to flow, while the oven heat is intense enough to develop a rich flavor in both meat and broth.

BEEF RAGOÛT
Wipe three pounds of beef cut from the flank or round. Cut into small cubes; dredge with flour. Brown meat in hot frying pan, being careful to avoid burning. Remove meat to kettle with closefitting cover. Brown four tablespoons butter; add four tablespoons flour, and continue browning; add one and a half cups stock or water, one-half cup each of carrot and onion, pour over meat; season with salt and pepper, and simmer one and a half hours.

CANNELON OF BEEF
Two pounds of any cut of lean beef, 1 tablespoonful of fine-chopped parsley, 2 teaspoonfuls of salt, 1 teaspoonful of onion juice, 1/4 teaspoonful of mace, 1 egg, beaten; one-third cup of soft bread crumbs, 1/4 teaspoonful of pepper; one-quarter cup milk. Pass the meat through a food chopper several times; add the other ingredients, the egg, beaten, and the bread crumbs, moistened with the milk; mix thoroughly and shape in a roll. Bake between thirty and forty minutes in a medium oven; baste frequently with fat from salt pork and mot water. Serve with tomato or mushroom sauce, or with macaroni Italiane.

HORSERADISH SAUCE
One-quarter cup freshly grated horseradish, 1/4 cup soft bread crumbs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup white sauce, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 tablespoon vinegar. Mix horseradish, bread crumbs, salt, paprika and white sauce. When hot, add lemon juice and vinegar.

The following musicians, all of whom are well known in musical circles, compose the personnel: Walter Ash, a pianist whose sense of rhythm has kept him in great demand by dance orchestras; Bob Harker, of whom his admirers say that he must have learned banjo technique from Old Joe himself; Vernon Suckow, who is said to play marimbas as they should be played, with a few ideas and variations of his own concoction, and "Minnie" Stacy, a drummer of skill and originality.

The tour of the western states is conducted by C. C. McCormick, who has been identified for a number of years with concert tours of important musical aggregations.

A. E. F. LOST BAGGAGE ON HOBOKEN DOCKS

There are at present approximately 150,000 pieces of lost baggage belonging to members of the A. E. F. on the government docks at Hoboken, N. J. Much of this baggage is marked with names only and cannot be forwarded to the owners. In all cases a new shipping address is required. Claims should be addressed to "Lost Baggage Branch, Pier No. 2, Hoboken, New Jersey."

The man making the claim should give an accurate description of the missing piece of property, his last military address, his correct home address, and other identifying information that might be helpful. The baggage will be forwarded at the government's expense if on hand at Hoboken, and identification can be proven. The local secretary of the Red Cross Home Service section will be glad to give assistance in making these claims, or to furnish further information.

WHERE'S THE FIRE?
There goes the whistle. The truck is on the go—where? Perhaps to a private home—perhaps to a business house. It may be a small blaze, or it may already be past control—BUT there IS a fire! That's what the fire whistle tells you and your heart jumps faster.

Many times that call may be answered—and NOT before your home or your business. But once—just that vital once—may prove the greatest disaster of your life. Suppose it comes today—tomorrow—who can tell when? Are you fully insured? Why take the chances? A few dollars invested in a fire policy today may save you a thousand tonight. Write, phone or call.

LIBRARY CASE PUT OFF AT PENDLETON UNTIL NEXT MONTH

PENDLETON—The appeal in the case of the Pendleton Commercial association vs. James A. Fee, trustee of the Sturgis trust fund, involving the long standing library controversy, will not be submitted to the supreme court during its sessions here this week. Judge Fee has not completed the brief in answer to the plaintiffs, who are respondents in the case, and has been granted an extension of time. The case will be argued in Salem, probably, late in November.

DUCKS MUST BE PROPERLY TAGGED BEFORE SHIPPING SAYS THE GAME WARDEN

Attempts to ship ducks from this locality illegally has caused Deputy State Game Warden Thompson to make a new ruling regarding the sending of wild ducks, says The Coos Bay Times of Marshfield. It is illegal to ship ducks to other points provided that to each duck is attached a metal tag which is furnished by
