The Social Realm

Hallowe'en Part
Miss Gertrude Biede entertained a large company of friends at her home on Nob Hill street Saturday evening. The event was in the nature of a Hallowe'en party, and the house was beautifully decorated with all the appointments that go with that festival. A pleasant evening was spent with cards and games of various sorts, after which the hostess served fine refreshments. The guest list included Mrs. Emma Cooffee, Mrs. C. Biegel, Mrs. Nate Bates, Mrs. E. H. Bush, Misses Calla Biegel, George Coffee, Messrs. J. F. Place, George King, H. G. Eastman, Elmer and Milton Biegel and Robert Warner.

Parent-Teachers to Meet
The Parent-Teachers Circles will hold a joint meeting in the Junion high school tomorrow, Tuesday, afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock. Mrs. H. C. Galley, the newly elected member of the school board, will speak on conditions in the school as she has found them. Superintendent G. A. Briscoe will also speak and reports will be given from the parent-teachers congress in session here last month.

Teacup Club
The Teacup club of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Carroll E. Pratt, 438 North Main street, next Tuesday afternoon, November 4.

Dancing Party
Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler have issued invitations to a dancing party to be held in Memorial hall Tuesday evening. This is the first event of its kind given in Ashland since before the war and the invited guests are looking forward with much anticipation for the affair.

Class Organizes
The Live Wire class of the Baptist Sunday school met at the home of the teacher, Leslie Phillips, Friday night and organized for the coming year. The following officers received the election: President, Clark Butterfield; vice-president, Raymond Carson; secretary, Lyman Landrith; treasurer, Raymon Oslin. Albert Carter was elected to keep order.

Luncheon for Eight
Mrs. J. M. Wagner was hostess at a luncheon at her home on Oak street Saturday. Eight ladies were included in the guest list who sat down at the table.

C. E. Social

Training Class Gave Party
The teachers' training class of the Baptist Sunday school gave their young people a delightful Hallowe'en party in the church parlors last Friday night. The guests gathered at an early hour and were shown into the parlors by a young lady. On attempting to turn the door knob they were given an electric shock, which by the way of introduction prepared them for all sorts of Hallowe'en tricks and pranks, and in this they were not disappointed. Not a dull moment was experienced by the large company present until a late hour when they reluctantly adjourned.

Missionary Society
The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Marske, 495 North Main street, Friday afternoon, November 7. The silver side loses in the contest and will treat the gold side.
