TRAINS CRASH

FORT MADISON, Iowa, Nov. 26.—One man was fatally injured and more than a dozen hurt when a Santa Fe Limited train collided with a freight train on the bridge over the Mississippi. Despite the terrific impact none of the cars of either train left the bridge.

Steel Strikers Claim Victory

(By the United Press)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 26.—Reports submitted to the national committee of the steel strikers by district organizers indicate that the strikers are now well on their way to victory. "The strike will be continued until their demands are met," it is stated authoritatively at strike headquarters. Union leaders say reports show the strikers holding firmly and that the mills which reopened since the strike started are merely "camouflaging."

TO RECOGNIZE HUNGARIANS

(By the United Press)
PARIS, Nov. 26.—Sir George Clark, head of the allied commission in Hungary, today notified Dr. Huzza, the new Hungarian premier, that the supreme council would recognize his provisional government and negotiate peace as soon as a national assembly is constituted with a government based upon popular elections, according to Budapest dispatches.

But Few Big Games Scheduled Tomorrow

(By the United Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—"Turkey Day" will be rest day among the most of the football folks. Practically all of the big eleven have broken training at the conclusion of the season and will "go big" after choice delicacies that have been on the blacklist for three months. Only two major games are carded in the east. Cornell plays Pennsylvania; Brown meets Columbia; and Syracuse jaunts out to Lincoln, Neb., to play Nebraska university. Some years back, Thanksgiving day was the red letter day of the football calendar. Opposition voiced among some of the players who were deprived of other recreations on the holiday eventually caused a general marking off of the day on the schedules until the big fall holiday games are the exception rather than the rule on the gridiron. With its few games, Thanksgiving practically sounds the knell of the football season. Only one game remains on the schedule—the Army-Navy affair on the Polo grounds, November 29. For many of the team's, the gridiron paraphernalia was stored after the November 15 game. Princeton, Penn State, Dartmouth and Colgate sounded "Taps" then and folded their tents for the year.

Government Orders Strike Settlement

(By the United Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Fuel Administrator Garfield, acting for the government will today deliver to the coal operators and the miners a virtual ultimatum warning both sides in the coal controversy that their differences must be adjusted without further delay. The government's statement, which officials here believe will bring to an end the strike which has kept four hundred thousand miners idle since November 1, was adopted at a meeting of the cabinet today. It will be the "final" exposition of the government's attitude in the strike and will be addressed to both sides. Garfield on leaving the cabinet meeting, emphasized the word "final."

TWO NATIONS HOLDING OUT

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 26.—Norway and Sweden are awaiting action by the United States on the League of Nations before definitely accepting the covenant, according to Johan Michelet, Norwegian Ambassador to Chili, who today passed through this city enroute to Pekin. ASHLAND-MEDFORD WILL LOCK HORNS

The big windup of the football season will be pulled off when the local football gladiators journey down to Medford and lock horns with the aggregation from that city on Turkey day. Ashland defeated Medford on November 15 in one of the hardest fought games that has ever been staged in Southern Oregon. Will they be able to duplicate the stunt? "Ashland will win after a hard scrap," says Coach Moore. Rumors from Medford indicate that the "inside dope fiends" there are looking for the Red and Black to win by a pair of touchdowns. From a common view point, let it be said that this Thanksgiving matinee promises to be the keenest exhibition of football of the season with a fifty-fifty chance for the local Molekinners.

TO PIGEONHOLE PEACE TREATY

(By the United Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Plans to pigeonhole the peace treaty indefinitely by keeping congress busy on domestic legislation are being made by a number of republican senators, it is learned. Quick action on the Lodge resolution declaring the war ended is said to be part of the program. The senators are planning this course on the assumption that the country is sick of the treaty fight and wants speed action on vital domestic questions.

BANDITS HOLD UP A TRAIN

(By the United Press)

PATCHES TO BE FASHIONABLE

(By the United Press)
DENVER, Nov. 26.—Patches will be fashionable here until the high cost of clothes drops. Local women's club members signed a pledge to stop buying clothes until prices drop. Tattered frocks, frayed hats, dilapidated shoes will not cause milady heartaches at any function, the members agreeing that patches shall be the watchword at elite gatherings.

War In Balkans Seems Inevitable

(By the United Press)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—War in the Balkans is inevitable if D'Annunzio attempts to occupy Spalato, according to unofficial opinion in British government circles. There is a decided tendency in government circles to blame the United States for much of the present Italian-Dalmatian middle. Failure of the American senate to accept the peace treaty, it is pointed out, delayed functioning of the League of Nations, which should now be prepared to settle the situation. "D'Annunzio is plain crazy," some British officials bluntly hinted. They are confident, however, that the Italian government will eventually weather the storm which is now brewing. Official Italian reports indicate increasing opposition to D'Annunzio throughout Italy.

WILL BOYCOTT 12-CENT BREAD

(By the United Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—The local organization of housewives today began a campaign of education for a boycott of 12 cent bread. They will urge women to demand stale bread at lower prices. This and other economies is urged by United States Attorney Annette Adams. Raisin bread, women say, should not be eaten now that raisins have become a luxury.

Shopping Tours That Last Week

(By the United Press)
NOVORISSISK, South Russia.—(By Mail).—When a housewife in south Russia leaves on a shopping trip she takes a traveling bag along. Because to make an economical success of it she may have to be gone a week and cover a hundred miles of territory. Conditions in a few of the larger cities which Denekin has wrested from the Bolsheviks are becoming fairly stabilized but in hundreds of the smaller villages the utmost economic chaos prevails. Prices vary widely in different towns and the ruble never has the same value in two adjoining villages. So the thrifty housekeeper, buying a week's supply of potatoes or firewood, or seeking cloth for the children's clothes journeys from town to town seeking the best bargains. The high cost of living is just as much a burning question in south Russia as it is in America, but reliable information on the cost of commodities is not nearly so definite.

Italian King May Be Forced to Abdicate

(By the United Press)
ROME, Nov. 26.—A hard fight against ratification of the peace treaty, one which may precipitate a crisis involving the existence of Italian monarchy is indicated today. Socialist and Catholic deputies in the recently elected chamber of deputies will combine to defeat the pact, it is stated. The signal for the fight is expected to be the introduction of the royal decree ratifying the treaty. Both the Catholics and the Socialists, who exhibited unusual strength in the recent election, were opposed to the treaty from the beginning. Now that Wilson's influence is no longer felt here, treaty opponents, foreseeing defeat of the Anglo-French defensive alliance—from which they claim, Italy was purposefully excluded—believe that Italy will become the balance of power in Europe. The coming session of the chamber of deputies is awaited with considerable misgiving. There is no precedent in Italian history for rejection of a royal decree, especially in the matter of a peace treaty. Treaty right is constitutional prerogative of the crown. Should the socialist plans succeed the outcome of such a solemn disavowal of the king's wishes would necessitate his abdication, in the belief of many Italian leaders. Whether the Catholics will be willing to support the socialists in a flat showdown against the king is considered doubtful by many. On the other hand it is considered certain they will maintain unflinching opposition to the treaty, which, it is reported the Holy See considers contains the source of new wars.

PASTOR INSTALLED IN LOCAL CHURCH

With impressive ceremonies conducted by clergymen from various points in the Southern Oregon Presbytery, Rev. C. F. Koehler was installed as pastor of the local Presbyterian church last evening. Dr. J. K. Ballie of Phoenix preached the installation sermon, Rev. A. H. Gammons, of Jacksonville, gave the charge to the pastor, Rev. L. Myron Boozer of Medford the charge to the people and Rev. J. H. Doran of Ashland made the installation prayer. Visiting clergymen from the other churches in the city were present to extend the hand of fellowship and welcome to the newly installed pastor. Rev. Koehler has served for the past year as stated supply of the Presbyterian church in this city, following the resignation of Rev. H. A. Carnahan. After a year's service as supply a unanimous call was given him by the congregation to fill the pulpit. Mr. and Mrs. Koehler and their family have made many friends during their year of devoted service to the welfare of the church and its people, and the new relationship starts out most propitiously.

(By the United Press)

HUNGER STRIKE

(By the United Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Ellis Island "soviet republic" continues to refuse to negotiate with the United States government and 71 hunger strikers are remaining in their quarters, refusing to take breakfast or lunch with Uncle Sam. Only three of the strikers appeared to their meals. Most of the radicals held for trial in deportation proceedings, refuse to eat, work or appear for trial. There is no apparent intimation of what the government policy will be in dealing with the strikers.

Villa General Is Put to Death

(By the United Press)
EL PASO, Nov. 26.—It is reported here that a federal firing squad today executed General Angeles, intellectual head of the Villista movement, in Chihuahua City. Angeles, who turned against Carranza, was found guilty by court martial and sentenced to death, earlier dispatches said. An appeal to the supreme court had been planned.

WERE GETTING QUEER MINDS

(By the United Press)
MULLAN, Idaho, Nov. 26.—"Our minds were getting queer until we heard the water in the diamond drill hole," says a letter sent up through the air pipe by P. P. Grant and Emil Snyder, entombed in the Gold Hunter mine for the past 12 days. A crew of rescuers is blasting the path of freedom for the imprisoned men but it will be several days before they are rescued.
