SHRINERS HOUSED ANY OLD PLACE

(By United Press) PORTLAND, Ore., June 24.—Some of the Shriners who came here to attend the annual session of the Imperial Council of the Shrine this week have been going to church! They didn't know they were going to go when they came, but they did, just the same. Others saw the inside of a Y. M. C. A. for the first time in their lives. Several hundreds of these Masons went to school again—and others unexpectedly went to jail! Portland couldn't take care of nearly 100,000 guests in her hotels, and rooming houses, so she arranged to send some of her guests to sleep on cots—in schools, churches, the Y. M. C. A. clubs—and even the city jail, where the officers' dormitory was turned over to the visiting Shriners.

TROOPS GO TO LONDONDERRY

(By United Press) LONDON, June 24.—Several hundred additional troops have arrived in Londonderry with "armed cars and machine guns and some heavy artillery, according to dispatches today. A trainload of physicians, nurses and medical supplies left Dublin to aid and give relief to hundreds of wounded who are filling Londonderry hospitals. At the Irish office, it is stated the city is now quiet, although fighting between the Sinn Feiners and unionists occurred during the morning. Military authorities today took measures to replenish food supplies. Strong patrols of soldiers in the streets permitted citizens to purchase their immediate needs.

The known dead are twelve, with many of those in the hospitals mortally wounded. Sniping from roofs continues, but most of the fighting was personal encounters. Neither side showed special animosity toward the military or police.

Several cases are reported of Sinn Feiners shooting at British troops, but they are few, and not considered significant. It is believed the government fears to move troops from other parts of the country to Londonderry, as rioting may break out in the section evacuated by troops.

GENERAL PERSHING ILL

(By United Press) CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 24.—General Pershing, due to slight indisposition, was unable to attend the opening ceremonies at the commencement of Harvard University today. He appeared later in the day, however, and addressed the Alumni association.

ROOMS WANTED FOR CELEBRATION DATES

All persons wishing to rent rooms during the Fourth of July celebration will please list them with the Commercial Club secretary. We will need every available room in town. COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The Fourth of July celebration committee with E. T. Staples as the head, is almost too busy to eat or sleep these times, but are fast lining up all the attractions available in order to give visitors to Ashland during the three days the worth of their money and time. Everything new, or original or entertaining they can devise is being prepared. Already a long list of entertainments and sports are scheduled. Among these will be the following:

The merry-go-round man has arrived, and his car with the equipment is on its way. The kiddies will sure have entertainment this celebration.

Arrangements have been made to have the old time circus band wagon from Jacksonville in the Old Timers' Parade July 3.

The managers of the Hiawatha pageant are drilling daily, and the big show on the night of July 3 is promising to be a very extraordinary entertainment.

The celebration committee have secured the services of some very high grade talent for the free vaudeville acts to be held in the park during the celebration days.

Baseball lovers will be pleased to know that there will be a good game each afternoon at the High School grounds, Ashland vs. Yreka. Those who are competent to judge say that Ashland has got together a very fast battery. At least two Coast League players who have happened to become residents of Ashland, will surprise the natives. Remember, the game is between the Yreka Gold Diggers, and the Ashland Lithia Gladiators.

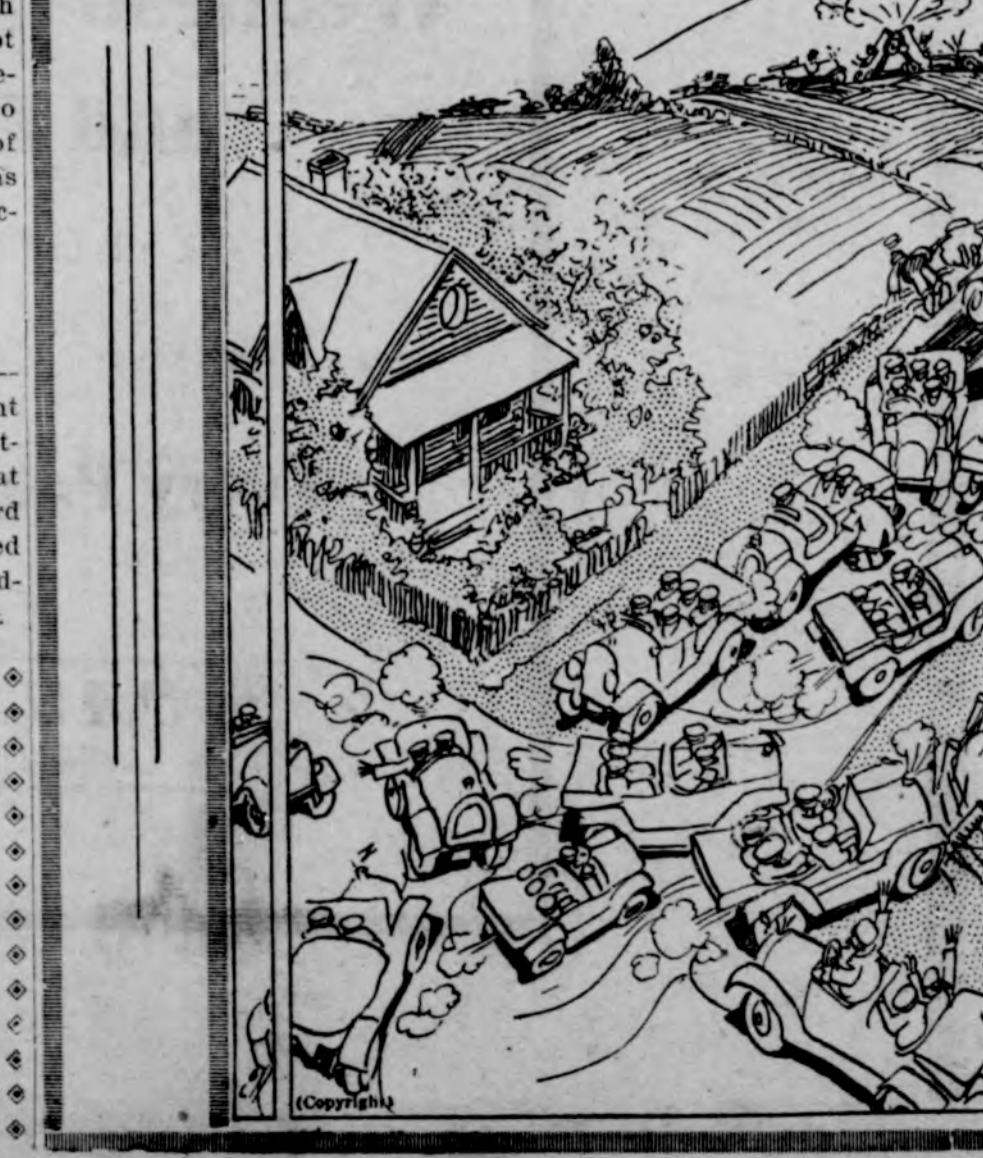

The committee on Old Timers' parade are urging everybody to get ready for this big comic event. The merchants are asked to put on old time signs, making the appearance of mining days. Loggers are asked to prepare something to feature the logging crowds, and everybody should take an interest in this and help to make the time enjoyable. Cowboys, cowgirls, emigrant trains, mule packs, etc., will probably be featured. The windup will be at Miners' Row, where there will be the Rainbow Lane Banking Institution provided with "Lucky Currency" for sale, with which to play the old time games.

John Kunts, the "Kewpie King" of Los Angeles, has already arrived. He will bring two carloads of paraphernalia to provide his share of the entertainment. An Ashland Fourth of July without "Johnny" and his kewpies would throw the city in darkness.

Open air meetings are banned. A censorship is imposed on mail, and telegrams. The decalogue constitutes the arbitrary nullification of Russian authority and members of the Zemstvo and far easterners are protesting.

SITUATION ALARMING

LONDON, June 24.—Sir Hammar Greenwood, secretary for Ireland, received a second urgent message today from Londonderry magistrates stating the situation is desperate, and they feared it is becoming worse. Supplies of food are giving out, and a shortage of gas threatens to throw the city in darkness.

LEADERS HOPE FOR HARMONY

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, June 24.—Hiram Johnson's sharp criticism of the Chicago convention is the only outstanding flaw in the fabric of republican harmony Harding has been weaving since his choice as the republican nominee. Progressive, conservative republicans, except the Johnson and Borah factions, have promised to support Harding. His advisers also received indirect word Johnson "would be all right," and are expecting his support.

Harding exerted himself since the nomination to solidify the republican party. He believes a republican victory is easy if the party is united. Harding headquarters believes effective harmony will be achieved regardless of Johnson. It is believed he can not repeat his feat in 1916, although his grip on California is admitted.

LABOR BOARD DEADLOCKED

(By United Press) CHICAGO, June 24.—The United States railroad labor board has reached a deadlock in its efforts to fix the wage increases for two million railroad workers demanding salary boosts, it is believed here today. According to information here, the board is undecided whether wage increases shall apply to "outlaw" switchmen. The majority of the board, it is said, favors including the "outlaws."

Prohibition Question Not Necessary

(By L. C. Martin) SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—President Wilson considers it unnecessary for the democratic platform to contain any reference to the prohibition question, and independence for Ireland, he informed those who will speak for him at the democratic convention, it was learned today. Regarding the League of Nations the president will be satisfied with nothing less than a strong affirmation of a declaration of the immediate ratification of the league covenant without crippling the reservations.

CAN CALL SPECIAL SESSION

(By United Press) WASHINGTON, June 24.—Acting Attorney Frierson has informed Governor Roberts of Tennessee, he can legally call a special session of the legislature to consider the federal suffrage amendment, it was stated at the White House. Frierson's ruling followed President Wilson's request that Roberts call a special session of the legislature that Tennessee, a democratic state, would furnish the thirty-sixth state ratifying suffrage, thus allowing women to vote at the fall elections.

Suffrage leaders see in Frierson's ruling, coupled with Roberts' announcement he would act favorably on Wilson's suggestion, the end of women's fifty-year battle for the ballot. Miss Alice Paul, head of the national woman's party, said today Tennessee is sure to ratify.

Miss Paul compared Wilson's suggestion to Roberts with the expressed attitude of Republican Nominee Harding who said he would not interfere with the states. Wilson's friends said he had outmaneuvered Harding.

In some quarters unfriendly to the president his move is interpreted as another indication he is seeking a third term.

GETTING AFTER OIL CONCERNS

(By United Press) NEW YORK, June 24.—A drive against alleged misrepresentation in the sale of oil company securities was started today by the federal officials here with the announcement of the indictment of four oil companies, several stock selling concerns, and 50 individuals by the federal grand jury. The use of mail in a scheme to defraud is charged. Five indictments were returned.

Officials claim to have evidence the public has been defrauded of more than a million dollars through schemes involved in the indictments.

Postoffice inspectors are working "from Maine to California," federal official today announced, rounding up men mentioned in the indictments. Several Wall Street brokerage firms are among the accused.

HUSTLING WILSON PLATFORM BEFORE BRYAN APPEARS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The early arrival of Senator Glass has appreciably strengthened the determination of the president's supporters to construct for the democratic national convention a thoroughly Wilsonian platform. Losing no time and taking advantage of the absence of Bryan, who is not scheduled to arrive until late today or Friday, Glass is busy today conferring with leaders on various platform questions. He gives the impression the president is far more concerned with the platform than the candidates.

Democrats Have Hope in Third Party

(By United Press) SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—A strong third party movement would aid the democrats to win the election, Chairman Cummings today stated. Discussing the third party talk, Cummings said such a movement would be abortive and confuse the issues and would disturb the political equilibrium, especially in the Dakotas and other northwestern states, which will probably be lost by the republicans.

ROYALTY WATCH PLAY

LONDON, June 24.—King George and Queen Mary saw William Tilden, the American tennis expert, defeat J. C. Park in the second round of British tennis championships at Wimbledon in three straight sets. Parke is one of the strongest British players.

Officers Elected at Shrine Meeting

(By United Press) PORTLAND, June 24.—The Shriners, at the closing session of the convention here today chose Atlantic City as the 1921 convention city.

PORTLAND, June 24.—Ellis L. Garretson, of Atifi temple, Tacoma, reigns over wide-spread raptures of Shrinedom. He was elected to the august office of imperial potentate, succeeding W. Freeland Kendrick, of Philadelphia at the session of the imperial divan in the auditorium yesterday.

All other imperial officers were reinstated or advanced one degree as the result of the election. Ernest A. Cutts, of Savannah, Ga., was elevated to the office of deputy imperial potentate and James S. (Sunny Jim) McCandless, of Honolulu, was elected to the post of imperial deputy rabban.

An attempt by his friends to place Jack P. Jones, of Oklahoma City, in the office of imperial assistant rabban over Conrad V. Dykeman, of Brooklyn, who was in line for advancement to the post, failed. Dykeman won. Imperial Treasurer William S. Brown, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Imperial Recorder Benjamin W. Rowell, of Boston, both were re-elected. The two now enter their twenty-eighth year of service in their respective offices.

The office of imperial high priest and prophet was awarded James E. Chandler, of Kansas City, Mo., who is now potentate of Ararat temple. James C. Bulger, of Denver, was raised to the office of imperial oriental guard.

The new imperial first ceremonial master is David W. Crossland, of Montgomery, Ala., probate judge-elect of Montgomery. Imperial second ceremonial master is Clarence M. Dunbar, of Providence, R. I., an old college chum of Imperial Potentate Garretson.

Frank C. Jones, of Houston, Tex., an attorney, was elected imperial marshal. The duties of imperial captain of the guards was placed in the hands of Leo V. Youngworth, of Los Angeles, a lawyer and a former United States marshal.

The big battle centered about the selection of an outer guard. Eight favorite sons were nominated and everyone had hard-working delegations behind him anxious to put their candidate across.

Oregon for M'Adoo If He's Candidate

PORTLAND, June 24.—Democrats are preparing to attend the national convention in San Francisco and the local delegation will have left by Saturday night. Notwithstanding W. G. McAdoo's announcement that he is not a candidate, the Oregon delegation will vote for him until they are satisfied that he really isn't and will not accept the nomination if he can get it. Under instructions, there is nothing for the Oregon delegation to do but to vote for McAdoo.

The belief is prevalent among the Oregon contingent that McAdoo will yield to the importunities of his supporters. If he should positively not be a candidate and refuse to permit his name to go before the convention, there is no telling where the ten votes from Oregon will go. Practically no one has been considered by the Oregon delegation aside from McAdoo. Palmer certainly is not strong with the delegation. A few would gladly jump to Bryan if the Nebraskan should enter the field and McAdoo does not, and three or four would be content to vote for Wilson for a third term if the president could be "forced."
