Grace and Beauty by Priscilla Dean

Sweet Faces Charm Look pleasant, even if it hurts. A woman who does not look beautiful, no matter what care she may take of her hair and complexion. No one likes to talk to a person who does not look pleasant. Many women are thought beautiful just because they look so pleasant that people forget to notice their plain features.

I have been told by beauty doctors that constant steaming of the face without using a proper astringent afterward will, in time, enlarge the pores.

People are continually writing to me regarding their eyebrows and eyelashes. A great many women are in the habit of using small tweezers to pull out the hairs of the brows until they are the desired shape. This may be satisfactory for a time. Ultimately, however, the hairs will become thick and bristly. In the average beauty shop this is prevented by the use of some lotion immediately after the hairs are extracted which acts upon the roots, causing them to weaken and finally die.
