The Ashland Fruit & Produce association is busy this week shipping apples. At present the association is sending out a carload every other day of Newtown and Spitzenburg apples to eastern ports for European trade. A large force of women and girls are employed in the packing house wrapping and packing these apples, and it is expected from 15. to 18 cars will be sent out on this order. This year the boxes have to be wired for export shipments, a requirement never exacted before, and two men are employed constantly at the ware house wiring the boxes after they are packed.
