

Local and Personal

Good dry wood at Ashland Lumber Company. Phone 20. 84tf

The Monday evening bible class will meet as usual at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dodge left Saturday night for Long Beach, California, where they will spend a few months this winter.

Cliff Payne makes shawl needles. 112-3

Verne Rowley, B. F. Shepherd and M. K. Bonter are Seattle guests stopping at the Hotel Austin.

Contractor A. L. Lamb started today to remodel the house of Dr. R. L. Burdie on High street. Extensive repairs and additions will be constructed which will make this residence one of the most attractive in that part of the city.

Yeo has something better in accident insurance. 169tf

Miss Ruth Walters of Portland is spending some time in Ashland this winter with her grandmother, Mrs. A. H. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. King, who have been seriously ill, have entirely recovered and left today in their car for a two months trip to California and Mexico. They were accompanied by Mrs. King's mother, Mrs. A. E. Buckley of Portland.

We do cleaning, pressing and repairing and make suits to order. At Nelson's, Hotel Austin bldg. 91tf Tourists from a distance stopping at the Hotel Austin are: Emil Witty, wife and son of Wheatland, Iowa, who are touring the Northwest, stopped off over the week end in Ashland and were guests at the Hotel Austin. James Mann of Swaledale, Iowa, was also a guest at the Austin.

The weather bureau promises the following weather for the coming week to the Pacific coast states: Generally fair in California, and occasional rain in Oregon and Washington; temperature below normal.

Now is the time to have those tires retreaded, or repaired. Bring them in. Kruggel Bros Vulcanizing Works, 91 Oak street. 107-1f

The body of Mrs. Irene Green, who died in Los Angeles January 12, arrived in Ashland this morning on train No. 14, and was interned in Mountain View cemetery this afternoon. Funeral services conducted by Rev. C. A. Edwards of the Methodist church were held from the Stock undertaking rooms at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Green was aged 26 years. She was a former resident of Ashland and has many relatives living near here.

SPECIAL REVIVAL

at the FREE METHODIST CHURCH Cor. Seventh and Main January 16 till February 10 Preacher Evangelist B. W. Sheldon of Tennessee February 10th Bishop Warner of Chicago will be here for five days.

We extend a hearty welcome to all of Ashland and vicinity to attend these meetings. Come and hear the old-time Gospel preached. We believe in the old-time religion. A. WERDEN, Pastor.

THOROUGHNESS!

Ye Print Shop

A SOUND MERCHANDISING PLAN

good copy, attractive layout and illustration, surely—but there you cannot rest content.

OUR CONCEPTION OF SERVICE to you requires a follow-through on every piece of work—a watchfulness to see that every detail of the printing craft is utilized in the most effective manner.

THOROUGHNESS

is a fundamental with us—our creed for GOOD PRINTING.

Ashland Tidings

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

It Pays to Pass the Buck

Miss Anna Hargrove has gone to San Francisco to purchase her spring stock of millinery. She expects to remain in the city for several weeks.

H. R. Adams for plumbing, heating and gas fitting. Repairing a specialty. 248 Fifth St Phone 166-1.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dougherty and family drove down to Medford yesterday and spent the day with friends.

Following are Oregon people stopping at the Hotel Austin. V. D. Looney of Albany, A. S. Archer of Portland, S. C. Valle and George E. Love of Eugene.

We buy, sell and exchange Records. Large assortment to select from. Maximum pleasure at minimum cost. The Bazaar, on The Plaza. 113-3

Miss Zelda Heer is back at her work as bookkeeper in the Swift & Co. packing house after a week's absence on account of sickness.

Ray Bailey and wife and Evans & Bailey composed a party visiting in Ashland from Mosier, Oregon, over Sunday.

Hemstitching and piecing, Balcony shop, Vaupel's Store.

Mrs. H. G. Gilmore, who has been quite ill for the past week or two with an attack of tonsillitis, is able to be around again.

Mrs. S. L. Sandry returned to her home in Rogue River yesterday after spending several days during the past week with Ashland friends.

U better C Yeo and insure that automobile. 169tf

Try some of our dry kindling. It is convenient. Carson-Fowler Lumber Company. 115-6

A. Wabbel and wife of Lemon Cove are guests at the Hotel Columbia while spending a few days in this city.

Try some real coal. Rock Springs Rainbow. Ashland Lumber Company. Phone 20. 84tf

George Conrad returned the last of the week from Oakland where he had been spending the holidays with relatives, and left today for Klamath Falls to resume his work there.

Melvin Howard Reed, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Reed, died Sunday morning at six o'clock at their home eleven miles east of Ashland. Interment was made in the Kingsbury cemetery.

Levi Stephens was up from Rogue river over Sunday visiting with his family at their home on Granite street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller of Gold Hill were over Sunday visitors at the home of E. E. Gall in the Belle view district, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myer of Ashland. They returned to their home last evening. Mrs. Nettie Gall of Medford accompanied the visitors here.

Major Dusenbury of Salem was in Ashland today on National Guard business with the local company.

Californians stopping at the Hotel Austin are Mrs. Gaynell Mills of Oakland, Jos. Kiordan and Lem Lepold of Los Angeles. Other guests are A. S. Marshall of Winitip, Canada, L. D. Payne, of Walla Walla Wash., H. L. Stammer of Ogden Utah.

Dry kindling for sale. Carson-Fowler Lumber Company. 115-6

J. Carson is moving today from the Gregory house on Noht Pioneer avenue to 376 B street.

Thomas Conner of Hornbrook spent the week end with Ashland friends.

Miss Alma Voedisch, advance representative for Leopold Gadowsky, the famous pianist, who will appear in Medford, January 25, was in Ashland today interesting a good representative of musical lovers from this city to attend the concert.

A big special feature at Ashland natatorium Saturday night, January 22. The Shower Dance. Everybody come and get a kewpie. 115-6

John C. Almack of the University of Oregon was a business caller in Ashland from Eugene today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair are back from Portland where they had been spending last week. Mr. McNair was a member of the pharmaceutical examining board which met last week in that city.

Spratt Wells has returned from a business trip which took him to Klamath Falls for a few days the past week.

A large crowd attended the big Royal Jazz at the natatorium Saturday night and every one expressed themselves as having the best time in many a day. The lucky ones receiving prizes were: George P. King, first; B. L. Montgomery, second and Jack Burns, third.

John Almack, assistant director of the University of Oregon, was a visitor at the Chamber of Commerce rooms today, and is advising with Mr. Filled regarding the summer school plans for next season. Mr. Almack is giving a series of lectures on education, at the library each Monday night, and will speak at a noon forum luncheon in the Hotel Austin in the near future.

Speaking of the oil meeting at the Hotel Austin tomorrow noon a wag on the street asks if this is an attempt to pour oil on the troubled water? (question.)

H. G. Enders, Jr., will have charge of the community singing at the banquet Thursday night at the arroyo. Henry should make a rattling good leader. There will be special new song sheets for the occasion.

Mrs. H. T. Elmore is president of the Ashland branch of the County Health Association.

Winter's "Backbone" Gone The mild weather of the past week is causing the grass to grow and the buttercups and pussy willows are trying to make the people believe that it is house cleaning time. Some early gardens have already been planted, and again has the "backbone" of the winter been broken. Rogue river shows little change in the volume of water it is carrying, the reading at Gold Ray today being 3.5 feet.—Grants Pass Courier.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. FOR RENT—3-room furnished apartment. Allen Bldg. 115-1f

WANTED—Men or women to take orders among friends and neighbors for the genuine guaranteed hosiery, full line for men, women and children. Eliminates darning. We pay 75c an hour spare time, or $26.00 a week for full time. Experience unnecessary. Write International Stocking Mills, Norristown, Pa. 115-10 Mon

NOTICE OF SALE OF IMPOUNDED STOCK.

Ashland, Or., Jan. 15, 1921 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That I will on the 28th day of January, 1921, at the hour of two o'clock p.m., at the city pound on Water street, in the City of Ashland, Oregon, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following live stock to-wit: One old Jersey cow, marks crop off left ear, light upper slope and underbit in right ear, no brand visible. Dated at Ashland, Oregon, January 15, 1921. J. W. HATCHER, Chief of Police 115-2 Mon

PEARL'S TWIN CALVES NO HANDICAP

Having twin-calves didn't stop this industrious cow from going out after a milk and-butter fat record. And she got it. Her name is Pearl of Pomeroy, and she is owned by D. D. Tomney of Crystal Bay, Minn. This makes her the record holder for 5 years. 1,798.9 pounds of milk and 347 pounds of butter fat, carried in calves, shows a record of that time. She is a

The Social Realm

W. C. T. U. Social.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their regular monthly social at the residence of Mrs. Sylvia Wertz, 200 Graham street, Tuesday, January 18th at 2:30 p. m. A light luncheon will be served. Everybody welcome.

Married in Jacksonville.

C. J. Morris, one of the popular young proprietors of the billiard rooms on North Main street, and Miss May Wedlake of Muncie, Indiana, were quietly married in Jacksonville Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Morris will make their home in Ashland.

Grand St. Valentine Ball.

The management of the Ashland natatorium has plans well under way for one of the most elaborate affairs of the season to be given February 14th. Miss Raine leaves soon for San Francisco where she will spare no expense in securing the very latest and best in decorations for the occasion. There will be a special orchestra provided for this big affair. Everybody is assured of a musical treat as well as an evening of real enjoyment with special entertainment and lots of prizes that are worth while will be given during the evening. Detail of this affair will be published later in the Tidings.

W. R. C. Officers Installed.

At a meeting of Burnside Relief Corps last Saturday afternoon, the following officers were installed:

Elective officers—President, Mrs. Lulu Howard; senior vice-president, Mrs. Coder; junior vice-president, Mrs. James Lowe; chaplain, Mrs. Jennie Mathes; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Hammond; secretary, Mrs. Nellie Peters; conductor, Mrs. Anna Moss; guard, Mrs. Ella White; patriotic inspector, Mrs. Porter.

Appointive officers—Press correspondent, Mrs. Ella Harrell; assistant conductor, Mrs. Bonnis Moss; assistant guard, Mrs. Alice Turner; first color bearer, Mrs. Dora Payne; second color bearer, Mrs. Emma Prose; third color bearer, Mrs. Ruth Guisinger; fourth color bearer, Mrs. Mabel Roberts; musician, Mrs. Freda Peters.

A social session followed the business meeting in which the old soldiers were present and enjoyed the cake and coffee served by the Corps. The members of the latter presented the re-elected president, Mrs. Lulu Howard, with a beautiful patch work quilt as a testimonial of appreciation for her services during the past week. A large company was present at the meeting.

Prayer Meeting Changed.

On account of the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce and the Riley lecture coming on Thursday evening of this week, we have changed our prayer meeting from Thursday evening to Wednesday evening. All members take notice of the change and come Wednesday evening at 7:30. 115-2t Walter L. Evans Pastor.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the members of the American Legion and the friends in Ashland for the assistance and many kindnesses rendered during the funeral of our husband and son, the late Sergeant Leo. L. Parrish. Mrs. Leo Parrish. H. S. Parrish. Mrs. A. Eastman.

All men are born equal—but few are equal to the emergency.

only gained a friend but will have a good home. He is much better today.

Transposition of music from one key to another has been simplified by the invention of an instrument resembling a slide rule.

GALICE—Old Channel mine of gold bearing gravel has been reopened.

Guard rails raised by compressed air have been installed on a California ferryboat to prevent automobiles running overboard.

HASKINS & SELLS CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS (NEW YORK) CABLE ADDRESS "HASKSELLS" PITTOCK BLOCK PORTLAND

WE ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF AN OFFICE IN THE PITTOCK BLOCK, PORTLAND, OREGON, AND THE APPOINTMENT OF MR. R. J. LEO, C. P. A. (OREGON) AS MANAGER. HASKINS & SELLS. JANUARY 10, 1921.

VINING LAST TIME TONIGHT Enid Bennett NI Silk Hosiery Sunshine-Comedy Current Events Paramount Magazine SPECIAL - Tues. - Wed. - Thurs. - SPECIAL THE BAIT A Mystery Romance of New York and Paris Produced by Maurice Tourneur

Comply With the Law AND USE Printed Butter Wrappers ACCORDING to the ruling of the Oregon Dairy and Food Commission all dairy butter sold or exposed for sale in this state must be wrapped in butter paper upon which is printed the words "Oregon Dairy Butter, 16 (or 32) ounces full weight," with the name and address of the maker. To enable patrons of the Tidings to easily comply with this ruling this office has put in a supply of the standard sizes of butter paper and will print it in lots of 100 sheets and upward and deliver it by parcels post at the following prices: 100 Sheets, 16 or 32 ounces ..... $1.75 250 Sheets, 16 or 32 ounces ..... $2.75 500 Sheets, 16 or 32 ounces ..... $4.00 Send your orders to us by mail accompanied by the price of the paper and it will be promptly forwarded to you by parcel post, prepaid. We use the best butter paper obtainable, and our workmanship is of the best. Let us have your order and you will not regret it. Ashland Tidings Ashland, Oregon Watch for the "Dollar $ Day" Adv. Friday